Secretary's Letter on Parity of Gold and Silver Occasions Talk. WASHINGTON, Sept. 16 .- A letter from Secretary Carlisle to a gentleman in Ken tucky, explaining how the parity is main tained between gold and silver, is the subject of much comment at democratic head quarters. Chairman Faulkner, in an interview, alleges there has been a reversal of the policy of the Treasury department in regard to the redemption of silver dollars gold. The feature of the secretary's let ter which has occasioned the most commen is as follows:

"It is the duty of the secretary of the treasury and of all other public officials o execute in good faith the policy declared by congress, and whenever he shall be sat isfied that the silver dollar cannot be kep equal in purchasing power with the gold dollar, except by receiving it in exchange for the gold dollar when such exchange is demanded, it will be his duty to adopt that

Senator Faulkner expressed his "regre that the secretary of the treasury should have announced a policy which invites a de preciation in our currency, and will at once encourage the gold speculators and money lenders of the country to additional raids upon our gold reserve, with a view of force ing the government to continue issuing in-terest-bearing bonds to carry out the policy suggested in the letter of the secretary o treasury. I shall not comment the reasons which these gentlemen, holding the views of Mr. Carlisle have as to why the silver certificate and the silver dollar have today in this country the same pur chasing power as the gold dollar, but I can not refuse to express my absolute dissen-from the policy announced by Mr. Carlisle as the one which will govern the treasury in reference to redeeming silver certificates and coined silver dollars in gold."

The senator quotes from a letter received by him from the secretary on August 26 last, in the course of which he says: "The department has never been called redeem silver dollars in gold," which shows the senator says, that "the holders of silver certificates or silver dollars have never entertained the opinion that the contract on the face of the certificate, which expressly provides for their redemption in silver dol ars, should be construed by the executive department as entitling the holder to demand gold dollars, and much less had any one ever conceived the idea before that the silver dollar made by law a legal tender in payment and designated in the statute as the standard money of the country' should be redeemed in other coin."

The club will aim to reach the Scandinavians, especially of that that everything shows that McKinley has a hold on the Scandinavians in that ward which he silver men cannot shake. The Scandinavian silver club, which meets the same hall, has hardly one-third the following of the McKinley club, though in existence for some time. SEEKING POLITICAL PLUMS

All Wards Except the Third Liberally Sup plied with Candidates.

OFFICES NOT AS NUMEROUS AS THE MEN

Dozens of Candidates Who Are Willing to Accept Republican Nomination and Pince Their Names Upon the County Ticket.

Judging from the number of candidates who have shied their aspirations into the political ring, the republican county convention which meets Saturday will have no lack of timber from which to formulate a ticket. As usual, there are candidates of all sorts and various degrees of desirability. The old timers who have been chronic candidates for office in every campaign for years are not altogether without representaion, and some of the men who have held oface without adding credit to their own re ords are looking for a renewal of their public snap. But with these there is a fair representation of men of conceded integrity and business standing, and the general drift of sentiment is unfavorable to the aspiralous of those who cannot support their candidacy with some elements of strength beyond the mere fact that they want office. There are a number of business men, who are not arnounced as candidates, but who are understood to be willing to accept a place on the ticket at this time. They do not care to mingle in the political pool, but in case they were nominated they would scarcely refuse to accept. Leaving these out of the question, the avowed candidates for the various places on the county ticket aggregate somewhat more than the usual number. There are three candidates for county attorney, nearly a dozen for the senate and twenty for the house. There are ten men who would like to succeed G. Williams as county commissioner from the Third district, and half that number who are out for the nomination in the Fifth listrict.

The First ward is quite modest this year. Lee Estelle, present assistant city attorney, has decided that he would like to fill County Attorney Baidrige's shoes and has put up a delegation that is pledged to fur-ther his ambition and also to advance the candidacy of John H. Butler for a place on the legislative ticket. The candidates have a fight on their hands in their own ward, however, as the friends of Mr. Baldrige have also put up a ticket in that ward.

CANDIDATES AND MORE OF THEM. So far as can be learned the Second vard has no other ambition in this case han to get a representative in the legislature. J. F. Brown, for many years fore-man of the street department, and Frank Dworak are the candidates.

The redoubtable Third is not looking for anything from the county convention. Its workers are reserving their energies for the councilmanic fight, which promises to be a reminder of old times. There is only one delegation in this ward, and it is for K. Sudborough for state senator and Baldrige for county attorney.

The Fourth ward is lop-sided toward the senate, It has four candidates for that honor, of which three are making a desperate fight. D. H. Wheeler and Dick Smith have made a combination to beat T. K. Sudborough. If they can accomplish this the man who shows the most strength in the convention s to have the delegation after it develops hat the other one cannot make it. Sudborough has a strong delegation in the field to fight the combination, and all three of the candidates agree that it will be the hottest fight of the primaries. W. F. Gur-ley has been mentioned as a senatorial candidate, but he is not contesting for the delegation. F. C. O'Halloran and John G. Kuhn are the most active candidates for the house, and there are a number of others who are on a still hunt for a place. The Fifth ward is pretty well fixed in the matter of candidates. E. Benedict has no opposition as a candidate for the senate, but there is a lively fight over the support of the delegation for the house. caucus delegates are presumed to be in his interests. But R. W. Gibson has decided that a place in the legislature is really what he was cut out for. J. M. Counsman also acquired an ambition and between them they have out up another delegation with which they promise to make things lively at the primaries. The ward has three avowed candidates for the county commissionership from the Fifth district. John Jenkins is out for another term and A. A. Raymond, the contractor, is in the field against him. Another candidate is Jack Holt, at present a city sewer inspector who has a following among the younger element of the party.

The Sixth ward is long on legislative andidates and is fairly well supplied with the other varieties. It has Henry Ostrom and E. Gilmore, both candidates for the commissionership from the Fifth J. B. Meikle and M. O. Ricketts district. are rival candidates for the senate and the list of house aspirants includes Fred W. Fitch, George E. Collins, Charles L. Hart, A. H. Willis, Dorsey B. Houck and others A. Tucker was mentioned, but has pulled ut. Collins and Willis are colored men. Fitch is an attorney and Hart is clerk to the city building inspector. There is only one delegation in the field, however, and the candidates will all take their chances.

FIGHT IN OTHER WARDS. The bone of contention in the Seventh ward is the ambition of Tom Crane to re-turn to the senate. The opposition has taken up John Grant. It was announced yesterday morning that Crane had decided not to make the fight, but the assertion is not received as authoritative. Howard H Baldrige is a candidate for renomination county attorney and it is said that J. L. Kaley is making a still hunt for sup-port for the same position.

The legislative fight in the Eighth ward has engendered a good deal of bitterness and promises to make the primaries interesting. There were originally five can didates for the legislature in the ward. They were Jim Allan, M. F. Singleton, Frank Burman, A. A. Buchanan and John T. Dailey. Allan, Singleton and Burman T. Dailey. Allan, Singleton and Burman finally combined on a ticket, each man to have three votes to trade as he pleases. This worked all right for awhile, but the other night Allan put up another delega-tion, pielged to himself exclusively, and now there is trouble. Burman and Singleton leclare that Alian has broken faith and that they and their friends will slaughter him at the primaries.

There is no fight in the Ninth, as John H. Evans is the only candidate for the senate and Joseph Crow for the house. There is a contest in South Omaha, where rival aspirations for places on the legisla-tive ticket have collided. For a long time J. H. Van Dusen was conceded the support of the delegation for senator, but recently Bert Wilcox and A. H. Murdock came into the field as candidates for the house. Murdock has put up a primary ticket with which he hopes to win out against the Van Dusen delegation, and make himself. The country precincts are running over with candidates for the Third district count commissionership. G. R. Williams is said to be very willing to succeed himself, and do so if the other candidates get fighting too hard among themselves. Robert Forgey, the present assessor of Florence precinct, is a candidate, as are place Zach Ellis and Milo Hall of Union ferson has Peter Mangold and John Klinker; Eikhorn, Omar Whitney; Valley, Frank Whitmore: Waterloo, a man named 8 Chicago, Henry Denker and R. the Gold Element.

LINCOLN Sept 16 - (Special.) - Congress. man Thomas E. Watson, populist vice presidential candidate, addressed an audience of 2,000 people at the Lansing theater this afterroon. In his opening he announced himself as just a plain populist, devoted to the interests of the people's party, not present to make a little "two by four free silver speech," but an admitted reformer, pledged to fight "all governmental evils until they were redressed." Then the populist party might die, and he would be willing to die with it.

He said that in accepting the nomination of appointed to meet the silverites, after which the populist party for the office of vice president of the United States, he had been given a plain duty to perform. He should remain on the ticket and carry forward the burdens of that duty until the end of the fight on the night of November 3. He refrained from any mention of the name of Arthur Sewall. and when a voice from the balcony inquired "How about Sewall?" this was the only question out to him which he ignored. central idea of his address was, "Restore the original laws of this government and you restore the prosperity of the people." But a small portion of his speech was devoted the silver question. He conveyed the idea prominently that free silver was the best thing to an unlimited issue of irre deemable greenbacks. He took issue with Mr. Bryan by declaring that the fall in prices did not date from 1873, but from 1867, at the time the government began burning

Touching upon the control of railroads by the government, which he strongly advocated, Mr. Watson got his wires crossed by stating that this was the English system of rathroading, and he was greatly in favor of it. Directly afterwards he declared that in everything in this country we should stand for an American, and not an English system, and especially was this true of the money question. The advocates of populism on called anarchists by the republican and gold standard democratic press. He anid:

HIS IDEA OF ANARCHISTS.

"If the governmental system inaugurated by Jefferson and Jackson is anarchy, I am ready to enroll my e'f mong he anarch sts.

The hopes of Bryan, he said, were centered in the south and west. The north and cast were against him. Recent elections in eVr mont and Maine had conclusively proved that the money power prevailed in the north and east. The west could not win alone Neither could the south. Only by massing the forces of each was the election of Bryan possible. There was great danger the Bryan would be betrayed in the house of his alleged friends.

"Do you know," he asked, "who has been selected as the eastern man, and a friend of the banks and the money power? Gorman is trying to betray the party of Bryan, and today, acting under the dictates of neyed interests, they are preparing to tie his hands." urged all his hearers to remember that Bryan would owe any success that he might have to the populist party, and that it was the people's independent party that had compelled the democrats to adopt the Chicago platform. He denounced the tariff, lavish expenditures by the government, endorsed an income fax, declared that the doors of the republican club room, but Brice and Thurston were railroad cappers the better judgment of those cooler heads tariff, lavish expenditures by the governcabinet. NEW HAVEN, Sept. 16.-The democratic state convention which assembled in this city today began its business with every inlication of being as memorable an occasion as has ever arisen in the political history of Connecticut. While the delegates, numpering 800, were almost solidly for the endorsement of the Chicago platform and candidates, the whole machine of the party in the state was in the hands of the gold standard men. Anticipating the upset which this condition made inevitable twelve members of the state central committee resigned. There was also talk before the convention met that there would be a bolt of the gold standard men at the time when such action might be expected to have an effect more or less spectacular. planks are as follows: The growing industrial disasters and distressful poverty and idleness has been the ever increasing result of the demonstization of silver in 1873. We, therefore, invite the united support of the electors in the effort to restore the coinage system which existed during the years of our national prosperity and which is the coinage system recognized by our national constitution. We denounce the recent bond issues and the useless increase of the national debt in times of peace. As labor is a great producing industry we recognize the certain result of depression to be less money to be paid the labor product and limited markets for its employment. We, therefore, invite labor to unite itself from the danger which threatens it if money shall continue to increase in purchasing power and all else to decrease in exchangeable value in the markets of the world. The growing industrial disasters and dis

Senator F. E. Warren, Cheyenne: Dear Sir-Your letter of the 7th, asking about the Importations of Mexican cattle, received. There were about 20,000 steers imported annually from Mexico bito the United States under the McKinley law. The steers cost an average price in American money of $5 per head and the duty was $7. The importations were increased some the first year after the Wilson bill was passed. This was caused by speculators buying cattle in Mexico under a high protective tariff with a view to importing them when the duty was reduced. The importations have settled down to about 20,000 steers annually. The cost price in Mexica is $10 per head. So you see the United States government loses $5 per head on 200,000 steers annually or $1,000,000, which goes to the Mexican produces under the Wilson bill. Mexican cattle do not reach the people any cheaper under the Wilson bill than they did under the McKinley bill, and there is no difference in price when the beef reaches the consumer. The Mexican pro-rer alone gets the benefit.

There is comfort in the knowledge, that so many forms of sickness are not due to any actual disease, but simply to a constipated condition of the system, which the pleasant family laxative, Syrup of Figs, promptly removes. That is why it is the only remedy with millions of families, and is everywhere esteemed so highly by all who value good health. Its beneficial effects are due to the fact, that it is the one remedy which promotes internal cleanliness without debilitating the organs on which it acts. It is therefore all important, in order to get its beneficial effects, to note when you purchase, that you have the genuine artiele, which is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only and sold by all reputable druggists. If in the enjoyment of good health, and the system is regular, laxatives or other remedies are then not needed.
