

FUSE ON A LOCAL TICKET

Democrat Capture the Lion's Share in the Division.

POPULISTS CONCEDED FIVE PLACES

Frank Hanson Nominated for the Senate as a Pop to Free Silver Republican—Consolation for Dunn's Loss of a Nomination.

For County Attorney... For State Senator... For Member of the Legislature...

That is the ticket which the Douglas county democrats nominated yesterday afternoon with a little incidental assistance from their populist allies.

The ticket nominated John Jeffcoat for senator, H. M. Taylor, John O. Yeiser and Charles Curtis for representatives and J. M. Kenney for commissioner in the Fifth district.

It was half past 2 when the democratic convention was called to order by E. P. Howell of the county central committee.

READY FOR THE CONFERENCE. A motion by W. S. Shoemaker, authorizing the appointment of a committee on resolutions, was passed.

While the conference committee was being organized, A. J. Webb sang several campaign songs, and then the committee proceeded to read the resolutions.

CONFERENCE REPORT ACCEPTED. The conference committee appeared at this time and reported that the joint committee had agreed to give the following resolutions.

READY FOR THE CONFERENCE. A motion by W. S. Shoemaker, authorizing the appointment of a committee on resolutions, was passed, and a motion that no proxies be allowed was summarily laid on the table.

While the conference committee was being organized, A. J. Webb sang several campaign songs, and then the committee proceeded to read the resolutions.

READY FOR THE CONFERENCE. A motion by W. S. Shoemaker, authorizing the appointment of a committee on resolutions, was passed, and a motion that no proxies be allowed was summarily laid on the table.

READY FOR THE CONFERENCE. A motion by W. S. Shoemaker, authorizing the appointment of a committee on resolutions, was passed, and a motion that no proxies be allowed was summarily laid on the table.

nominate a ticket with the exception of the four places already conceded to their allies. REPORT FROM THE CONFERENCE.

The candidates for nomination on the legislative ticket were: William Maxwell, Dudley Smith, Edson Rich, W. S. Felker, H. M. Taylor, John O. Yeiser, and Charles Curtis.

The roll was called and there was such confusion that it promised to last all night. Nearly every delegation changed its vote at least once.

Nothing Else to Do While the Fusion Ticket Was Being Organized.

The populist county nominating convention convened in the Knights of Labor hall on Fourteenth street yesterday morning.

Nothing Else to Do While the Fusion Ticket Was Being Organized.

Nothing Else to Do While the Fusion Ticket Was Being Organized.

Nothing Else to Do While the Fusion Ticket Was Being Organized.

Nothing Else to Do While the Fusion Ticket Was Being Organized.

Nothing Else to Do While the Fusion Ticket Was Being Organized.

THE OMAHA DAILY BEE: SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 19, 1896.

NEW CENTRAL COMMITTEE.

Jim Kenney secured the floor and announced that a committee from the Douglas County Protective League is present and wished to address the convention.

Second Ward—P. L. Quinlan, John Kemmerling, Thomas Bennett.

OUTWITTED BY HIS COMPANION.

Officers locked up two suspicious characters last night. The men, who gave the names of Ed Taylor and Fred Walter, besides carrying guns, had their pockets searched.

REVIVES THE STATE BANK OF MURDOCK.

PLATTSMOUTH, Neb., Sept. 18.—(Special Telegram.)—In district court this afternoon Judge John S. Deuel decided the celebrated State Bank of Murdock case.

THEORIES OF CURS MAY BE DISMISSED.

Theories of curs may be dismissed at length by physicians, but the sufferers want the legislative department to make laws which will give it to them.

SOMEBODY TAKES AN APPOINTMENT.

A trial of the case against Sol Sommers to result every day in a new holding in police court yesterday afternoon and a fine of $100 was imposed.

AIM BETTER THAN INTENDED.

A Baker came to grief yesterday afternoon. He appears to have shined one too many shoes.

CHANGED HER MIND THOMPSON.

Kittie Howard, although her name was loudly called in police court, failed to put up a good defense.

LOCAL BRIEVITIES.

Heiler & Co., tailors, 215 S. 13th. A warrant is out for the arrest of Nancy Daglar for obstructing the streets of the city.

LIVELY TIME AT PRIMARIES

Council Combine Falls Down in the Fourth but Wins in the Eighth Ward.

MEIKLE DEFEATS RICKETTS IN THE SIXTH

PRACTICALLY NO CONTEST IN THE THIRD AND NINTH—HEAVY VOTE POLLED IN ALL WARDS WHERE THERE WAS A CONTEST.

With the exception of the Third and Ninth wards, where there was no contest, there was a very heavy vote polled at the republican primaries yesterday.

CONFIRMS MR. HOFF'S EDITORIAL.

SUMMIT, Neb., Sept. 15.—The Editor of the Bee noticed an article in the Evening Bee of September 14, headed "Bright Prospects in the State."

OUTWITTED BY HIS COMPANION.

Officers locked up two suspicious characters last night. The men, who gave the names of Ed Taylor and Fred Walter, besides carrying guns, had their pockets searched.

REVIVES THE STATE BANK OF MURDOCK.

PLATTSMOUTH, Neb., Sept. 18.—(Special Telegram.)—In district court this afternoon Judge John S. Deuel decided the celebrated State Bank of Murdock case.

THEORIES OF CURS MAY BE DISMISSED.

Theories of curs may be dismissed at length by physicians, but the sufferers want the legislative department to make laws which will give it to them.

SOMEBODY TAKES AN APPOINTMENT.

A trial of the case against Sol Sommers to result every day in a new holding in police court yesterday afternoon and a fine of $100 was imposed.

AIM BETTER THAN INTENDED.

A Baker came to grief yesterday afternoon. He appears to have shined one too many shoes.

CHANGED HER MIND THOMPSON.

Kittie Howard, although her name was loudly called in police court, failed to put up a good defense.

LOCAL BRIEVITIES.

Heiler & Co., tailors, 215 S. 13th. A warrant is out for the arrest of Nancy Daglar for obstructing the streets of the city.

LIVELY TIME AT PRIMARIES

Council Combine Falls Down in the Fourth but Wins in the Eighth Ward.

MEIKLE DEFEATS RICKETTS IN THE SIXTH

PRACTICALLY NO CONTEST IN THE THIRD AND NINTH—HEAVY VOTE POLLED IN ALL WARDS WHERE THERE WAS A CONTEST.

With the exception of the Third and Ninth wards, where there was no contest, there was a very heavy vote polled at the republican primaries yesterday.

CONFIRMS MR. HOFF'S EDITORIAL.

SUMMIT, Neb., Sept. 15.—The Editor of the Bee noticed an article in the Evening Bee of September 14, headed "Bright Prospects in the State."

OUTWITTED BY HIS COMPANION.

Officers locked up two suspicious characters last night. The men, who gave the names of Ed Taylor and Fred Walter, besides carrying guns, had their pockets searched.

REVIVES THE STATE BANK OF MURDOCK.

PLATTSMOUTH, Neb., Sept. 18.—(Special Telegram.)—In district court this afternoon Judge John S. Deuel decided the celebrated State Bank of Murdock case.

THEORIES OF CURS MAY BE DISMISSED.

Theories of curs may be dismissed at length by physicians, but the sufferers want the legislative department to make laws which will give it to them.

SOMEBODY TAKES AN APPOINTMENT.

A trial of the case against Sol Sommers to result every day in a new holding in police court yesterday afternoon and a fine of $100 was imposed.

AIM BETTER THAN INTENDED.

A Baker came to grief yesterday afternoon. He appears to have shined one too many shoes.

CHANGED HER MIND THOMPSON.

Kittie Howard, although her name was loudly called in police court, failed to put up a good defense.

LOCAL BRIEVITIES.

Heiler & Co., tailors, 215 S. 13th. A warrant is out for the arrest of Nancy Daglar for obstructing the streets of the city.

P. S. SENATOR WARREN.

Why Paine's Celery Compound is Famed in Washington Families.

Many persons out of health have found an excuse in hot weather for doing nothing to get well.

CAREER OF A BOHEMIAN.

San Francisco, Sept. 18.—With the identification of the body of an unknown youth who committed suicide under mysterious circumstances at Martinez on Sunday last the story of the eventful but brief career of an alleged German baron is told.

AMUSEMENTS.

Henderson's Opera company presented "The Mikado" at Boyd's last night, very creditably on the whole.

FOLLOWS HIS WIFE AND KILLS HER.

Double tragedy enacted on the street of St. Joseph, Mo. ST. JOSEPH, Mo., Sept. 18.—F. J. Fowler of Stillwell, Okla., who has been in search of his runaway wife, found her in this city today and shot her and then shot himself.

AMUSEMENTS.

BOYD'S NEW THEATER. REGULAR PRICES. TWO LAST PERFORMANCES. DAVE HENDERSON'S OPERA CO. MATTIE TODAY AT BOYD'S. BELLS OF CORNEVILLE.

AMUSEMENTS.

BOYD'S NEW THEATER. REGULAR PRICES. TWO LAST PERFORMANCES. DAVE HENDERSON'S OPERA CO. MATTIE TODAY AT BOYD'S. BELLS OF CORNEVILLE.

AMUSEMENTS.

BOYD'S NEW THEATER. REGULAR PRICES. TWO LAST PERFORMANCES. DAVE HENDERSON'S OPERA CO. MATTIE TODAY AT BOYD'S. BELLS OF CORNEVILLE.

LADIES WITH RED FACES CUTICURA SOAP. It is so because it strikes at the cause of most facial eruptions...

LADIES WITH RED FACES CUTICURA SOAP. It is so because it strikes at the cause of most facial eruptions...

LADIES WITH RED FACES CUTICURA SOAP. It is so because it strikes at the cause of most facial eruptions...

LADIES WITH RED FACES CUTICURA SOAP. It is so because it strikes at the cause of most facial eruptions...

LADIES WITH RED FACES CUTICURA SOAP. It is so because it strikes at the cause of most facial eruptions...

LADIES WITH RED FACES CUTICURA SOAP. It is so because it strikes at the cause of most facial eruptions...