GLADSTONE URGES DECIDED ACTION

Declares that England Has Just Title to Coercion that Does Not in Itself Mean War.

(Copyright, 1896, by the Associated Press.) LIVERPOOL, Sept. 24.—Enthusiastic crowds of people assembled at an early hour this morning in the vicinity of Hengler's circus...

The doors of the circus building were opened for the admission of the audience at 10 o'clock, and at 11 the auditorium was packed to its utmost capacity.

Mr. Gladstone, Mrs. Gladstone, Mr. Herbert Gladstone and other members of the family arrived in this city at noon and were welcomed at the railroad station by a crowd of about 2,000 people...

The earl of Derby, who presided, was accompanied by his countess, his lady, and upon the platform were many persons of distinction in political, commercial and social life.

After the usual formalities of opening such a meeting had been concluded, the first resolution, proposed by a conservative and seconded by a liberal, was adopted.

"That this meeting desires to express its indignation and abhorrence of the cruel and bloody massacre which has recently occurred at Constantinople, which is a disgrace to the civilization of the nineteenth century."

The resolution was adopted by acclamation. When Mr. Gladstone rose to speak he looked well and hearty for a man of his years of hard work.

"That this meeting trusts that her majesty's ministers, realizing to the fullest extent the terrible character of the crime which they have committed, will do everything possible to obtain for them full security and protection; and this meeting assures her majesty's ministers in which all fellow Christians will do their utmost to support the efforts of the government in whatever steps they may feel it necessary to take for that purpose."

When the applause had been calmed down by the outstretched hand of the aged statesman, Mr. Gladstone declared his adherence to the principles of the resolution, and said he came there, not claiming any authority except that of a citizen of Liverpool.

"But," the speaker further said, "the weakness of diplomacy I trust is about to be strengthened by the echo of this nation's voice. Great Britain is now in a position of feeling that appears to be developing among the natives. It is stated that the city of Kien Nin, Fu has been plundered since August 14th, and the effects of this plundering will be burned down, and all foreigners found there massacred. Dr. Riggs is the only foreigner here, and Arch-deacon Wolfe, a member of the British consular staff, has been ordered to get the Chinese officials in the city to protect Dr. Riggs and his mission property."

CUT RATES ON FRESH MEATS

Rock Island and Atchison Roads Take Radical Action.

LEAVE WESTERN FREIGHT ASSOCIATION

Important Notice Served on Chairman Midegley—All Packing House Products to Go East and South at a Big Reduction.

CHICAGO, Sept. 24.—The Rock Island and the Atchison roads today sent to Commissioner Midegley of the Western Freight association notice of their intention to withdraw from that organization at the expiration of ten days.

The Rock Island says that some of the members of the association have purchased stock in a virtual abandonment of the agreement and it can see no cause for remaining a member of an agreement that is an agreement in name only and has no binding force or power upon any of its members.

The notice of the Atchison gives similar reasons for its withdrawal, saying that so many members of the agreement have persistently violated all of its provisions that it can derive no possible benefit from its membership.

The Rock Island today gave notice of its intention to reduce the rate on fresh meats from Omaha, Kansas City and St. Joseph to the Mississippi river points to 10 cents and the rate on packing house products from the same points to the Mississippi river to 8 cents per cwt. This is a reduction of 34 cents on fresh meats and 5 cents on packing house products from the rates in effect heretofore. Rates of 45 cents per cwt. on fresh meats and 3 cents on packing house products to the Mississippi river are made from Wichita, Kan. On packing house products rates of 8 cents are made from Omaha, Kansas City, St. Joseph and Cedar Rapids to the Mississippi river. All these rates become effective September 1st.

The same rate will be made from Omaha, South Omaha and Council Bluffs from the lower Missouri river points. In serving notice to Commissioner Midegley, the Rock Island says that since the reduced rates of August 1 have been in effect on fresh meats and on packing house products from the Missouri river to the Mississippi river it has honestly endeavored to obtain freight at the agreed rates, but has not been able to procure any of it, being told by the shipper that the freight was too high to ship. It is compelled to make the rates by the action of its competitors and that they will remain in effect until satisfactory assurance is given by the Rock Island that its competitors, who have made contracts for the handling of the freight at low rates, have abandoned those contracts, and that the Rock Island will be able to procure its share of the traffic at agreed rates. The action of the Rock Island was met by the Atchison today and it is expected that the other roads will follow suit to correspond tomorrow.

MANY VISITORS AT CANTON

Delegations of Sound Money Voters from Pennsylvania and Ohio.

CANTON, O., Sept. 24.—Pennsylvania today sent two large delegations to extend greetings to Major McKinley. One came as the Westmoreland county delegation, utilizing four special trains of eleven coaches each. This is distinctively representative of the mining industries and included representatives of the coke-making interests.

Addresses were made by W. S. Vandye and Congressman George F. Huff. The Oil City delegation, which was headed by Representative J. C. McLaughlin, included representatives of the oil-producing industries. It included refiners, dealers in supplies, tank manufacturers, merchants in various parts of the oil territory and workmen employed in the different processes of oil producing.

It was claimed by those in charge of the delegation that it included many men who have heretofore voted the Democratic ticket, but who have this year declared their intention to vote for McKinley. Among such, who are prominent oil-producing circles and who were with the party today, were Eugene Leibel, an independent refiner, and other supply dealers and a number of merchants and other business men. Among those who were not present were Patrick C. Boyle of the Oil City Derrick who was also prominent members of the delegation.

The speakers were Hon. Amos Steffer and Hon. W. J. Hillings. The marching of the forty-five young women, representing the various states of the union, each carrying a large banner, was a feature of the day. The banners were taken to Aultman hospital and to private homes where sickness prevails.

The first delegation to come to Canton today to call on Major McKinley was from West Newton, Pa. The visitors brought with them bands of music and a drum corps. The West Newton delegation, which was headed by McKinley and arranged by the West Newton Young Men's Association, included many of the most unique features yet introduced in the campaign. The baskets were taken to Aultman hospital and to private homes where sickness prevails.
