Then the Opponents of Free Coinage Resign and Walk Out—One Man Killed During a Night of Excitement.

BOSTON, Sept. 26.—George Fred Williams was nominated for governor of Massachusetts by silver delegates to the state democratic convention, who held their seats in Music hall throughout the night...

Unique and picturesque as have been scores of notable political contests in this city, none approached that which last night and today wrought up the entire community to its wildest pitch of excitement...

STARTS THE FUN HIMSELF. The climax was reached last evening when, in the big Bryan rally in Music hall, Mr. Williams accused the leaders...

WILLIAMS ON THE SCENE. At about 10:20 Mr. Williams reached the scene. He said that no one knew why the delegates who had tickets were not admitted to the hall...

Not for eighteen years at least, if ever, in the history of the democratic party in Massachusetts, has the day of a state convention dawned with so many sensational preliminaries to the formal organization of the assembling delegates...

BESIEGED IN THE HALL. When the silver men announced last night that they intended to stay in the hall until the convention was over, a large force of police began to form on one side of the hall and on the streets near by...

HOLDING THE FORT. Shortly after 7 o'clock Secretary Nathan C. Robinson of the state committee, a gold standarder, appeared at the hall and asked the managers if they would be ready to deliver the hall cleared of the silver men...

CLASS APPEALS DISHONEST. "Arriving labor against capital is a public calamity and an irreparable injury to both. Class appeals are dishonest and dishonorable. They calculate to separate both who should be united...

LINCOLN'S IDEA OF TARIFF. "Mr. Lincoln once said the question of the tariff was a question of national housekeeping; that we must have a tariff which would supply the meal tub of the government...
