

ALL READY FOR THE RALLY

Preparatory Work for Tuesday Night's Meeting is All Done. FIVE THOUSAND MEN EXPECTED IN LINE. Plans for Seating the Crowd in the Coliseum Are Such as to Prevent Crowding, Confusion or Any Disturbance.

The plans of the local republican managers for the big demonstration Tuesday night are practically complete. According to Chief Marshal Frank E. Moore, it will be the biggest turnout Omaha has ever seen, except the one which we are going to have on the night after election.

The line of march and the order of the parade will be announced this afternoon by Chief Marshal Moore. The Thurston club will meet at 7 o'clock and proceed to Senator Thurston's residence in carriages. It will be the parade as far as the Thurston club and the other clubs will follow in such order as may be designated by the marshal.

SEATING OF THE AUDIENCE.

The platform is reserved for the speakers, the committee and distinguished guests and their wives. Tickets therefor will be issued directly by the executive committee. That portion of the west gallery in the rear of the speakers' platform and extending from the band stand on the north to the barrier by the entrance on the west side of the gallery is reserved exclusively for the union veterans and their wives.

THE DOORS OF THE UNRESERVED PORTION OF THE MAIN GALLERY WILL BE OPENED TO THE GENERAL PUBLIC AT 7 O'CLOCK.

The ladies of the main gallery in line will be admitted upon the presentation of their tickets at the main south door entrance (being that under the new carriage-way entrance), beginning at half past 6 p. m. No CROWDING TO BE ALLOWED. The remainder of the ground floor will be absolutely reserved for the marching clubs, and to them no tickets will be issued, but the utmost care will be taken to keep the parties crowding in with them.

LEFT HER HUSBAND FOR ANOTHER.

Mattie Hunt, a 37-year-old girl who has figured in police court several times for fracturing the seventh commandment, was again arrested last night at the instance of her mother, who alleges that Mattie is infatuated with a young man named Pierce Sype, although already supplied with a good husband.

YOUNG WIFE ARRESTED ON COMPLAINT OF HER MOTHER.

IMPRESSIONS OF AN EASTERNER WHO PASSED THE SUMMER THERE.

Stephen J. Field, associate justice of the United States supreme court, accompanied by his wife and Miss Annetta Whitney of California, passed through Omaha yesterday in a private car, enroute from Paso de Rolles, Cal., where they have been passing a short vacation.

FACE RAW AND BLEEDING

My little boy was afflicted with Eczema in a severe form for some time, which was not without serious every known remedy. The skin was cracked and raw, and the itching and burning was so severe that he could not sleep. I tried many remedies, but all failed.

DISEASE DUE TO LACK OF SEWERS.

Lead City Pays Dearly for Its Neglect of Sanitary Laws. From late advices received from Lead, S. D., by Mr. Andrew Rosewater of this city, it would appear that the epidemic of typhoid fever which has been raging there for a considerable period is now well in hand, with prospects of its speedy extinction.

SEASON APPROPRIATELY OBSERVED IN MOST OF THE OMAHA CHURCHES.

Starting in on a new year's work. First Presbyterian Church observes the day by dedicating greatly enlarged and more beautiful Sunday school rooms. The arrival of fall, the season of garnered grain, was celebrated to some extent in the churches of the city yesterday.

SOUTH OMAHA NEWS.

When George Raworth, janitor of the First Presbyterian Church, opened the edifice yesterday morning, he found that burglars had paid the church a visit some time Friday night or Saturday. The rear door had been broken open and a hatchet and lamp taken.

PACKING HOUSE EMPLOYEES BOUND TO HAVE THEIR BEER.

The policeman on duty at the Fourth ward had a hard time of it yesterday trying to prevent the sale of beer in pails or cans, as per the mayor's order. Gangs of men were coming from the packing houses all day and every one carried a dinner pail.

CITY MUST MAKE A LOAN.

At tonight's meeting of the city council it is expected that the city will be taken to borrow the $100,000 needed to take up bonds and coupons on October 1. Something over $20,000 will fall due on that date and the city has only a little over $9,000 on hand.

POSTER FAD STRIKES OMAHA.

Not Very Many People Are Afflicted as Yet. TWO OR THREE HAVE FINE COLLECTIONS. Up to the Present Foreign Work is Only Represented in One Collection, that of Mr. Lewis Reed. Result of the Poster Show.

In the east the artistic advertising picture called posters and used principally by book and magazine publishers as a means of informing the public of their wares are vigorously sought after and paid for when they are perfectly good, and when they are not they are to be supplied, at prices ranging from 25 cents to $1 for American posters and much more for French ones. In Omaha, however, the poster fad has grown very quietly, counting, nevertheless, many admirers and a few collectors.

AMUSEMENTS.

Chauncey Olcott made his reappearance in Omaha at the Creighton last night, after an absence of several seasons, beginning a half week's engagement and bringing a good company and a repertoire of wholesome Irish songs. Mr. Olcott is by long odds the best of the singing comedians. He has improved greatly in acting since he has been seen here, and has rid himself almost entirely of the methods of minstrelsy formerly clung to him.

Value

Here is a great Boy's Suit. Measured by any standard that mothers are accustomed to it is the greatest money's worth that Omaha has ever seen. Measured by the big values all around it at "The Nebraska" it is still the biggest money's worth and measured by prices in any other store it is like getting two suits instead of one. It is all wool. It is double breasted. It is a dark mixed Cheviot and it is a long pants Suit for boys 14 to 20 years of age—you have seen such suits marked $8.00, you have seen 'em marked $7.50, you may have seen 'em marked down to $7.37 or $6.98, but you have never seen 'em marked less than that or sold honestly for less than that. "The Nebraska" price is only $3.75. It is such suits as this that are making our Boy's Department famous, it is such values as this that you read about oftener than you see. We have them for you to see.
