GARBING BISMARCK.

Like their quotations from Blaine, Garfield, Lincoln and numerous other American and foreign statesmen, it turns out that the Bismarck letter...

to protect the German farmer he smelt bugs in every American potato. Germany has today $107,000,000 worth of silver whose value is declining...

THAT FINANCIAL NEWS PAPER.

Another Authoritative Denial that it Ever Appeared in the Columns of the London Paper.

A SECOND WARNING GIVEN. With reference to the "Grip of Gold" forgery, which has been printed in the Omaha World-Herald and other Bryan organs...

"In our issue of August 13 we took occasion to refer to the circulation in the American newspapers of an article entitled 'The Grip of Gold' purporting to be an extract from The Financial News of March 10, 1896...

national politics, the immediate interests of Omaha should not be lost sight of, but citizens should combine to select the right men for the council and for other elective positions of trust.

MORE BRYANITE LIES NAILED.

False Stories About McKinley Authoritatively Contradicted. The following letter from the prominent law firm of Clark, Ambler & Clark of Canton is self-explanatory:

CANTON, O., Sept. 16, 1896. - Dear Sir: We have your favor of the 14th inst. asking us to advise you concerning the truth of certain statements that were made by certain parties in your town, namely, that Major William McKinley...

When asked the other day whether he was for Bryan, William R. Morrison is said to have replied: "I have been a democrat for fifty years and voted the regular democratic ticket. How shall I vote in this election is hardly a proper subject for discussion."

The tour of the veteran union generals in the interest of sound money is one of the wisest moves in this campaign of education. These men, who led the boys in blue to victory a generation ago, are almost the sole survivors of that long roll of illustrious commanders...

John Boyd Thacher complains that there seems to be no place for conservatism in the democratic party of today. What does Mr. Thacher expect? Was not conservatism thrown to the winds at the Chicago convention, and all party tradition trampled ruthlessly under foot?

The democratic national committee has issued a proclamation repudiating the agreement entered into by the Idaho democrats and populists in their state conventions respecting the election of a United States senator. This is striking out for repudiation rather early in the game.

Judge Maxwell thinks he has traced the adage "God helps those who help themselves" back to Aesop. We fear that the great fabulist writer of the ancient world would be astonished at the very intimation. There is no reason why Aesop should be blamed for everything.

Why the Gallus Crew. Philadelphia Record (rem.) As the price of wheat rises the heart of populist stinks toward its boots...

Another Free Silver Forgery. The Helena (Mont.) Independent is the latest paper to print and credit to the World a paragraph which could never have appeared in its columns, and which has a hundred times been denounced as a forgery...

The Derivish Season. The Hon. William Bryan, the Hon. Benjamin R. Tillman, the Hon. Eugene V. Debs, the Hon. Jacob Coxe, and the rest of the crowd noticed that the Derivishes have been put to flight! There appears to be trouble ahead for the Derivishes this year...

Not What Was Wanted. Information Obtained by Bryanites. The Anglo-American, a daily paper published in the City of Mexico, printed the following in its issue of September 13:

Highest of all in Leavening Strength. - Latest U. S. Gov't Report. Boston Globe: The Globe has had occasion from time to time to refer to the gratifying fact that our domestic exports are steadily increasing...

THE CURSTONE ORATOR. Kansas City World. He knows more facts and figures than a dozen common men. And is loaded up with data of the government's affairs. He talks of millions glibly as if owning eight or ten. And speaks with condescension of the presidential races. He tells you what would happen in event of a dryers' day. And that the "tolling masses" deserve a better life. And, while he's idly spouting thus, his home is full of weeds. And with 16 hungry children to 1 tired, hard-working wife.

SIMPLE FACTS.

Plain Truths for Workingmen to Ponder. Every workingman knows this fact or can easily find it out. Each dollar of wages will now buy much more than any dollar did before 1873.

MERRY GLEANINGS. Chicago Record: "Georgia, your mother didn't stay long out west, did she?" "No, the lady that lent her a trunk trotted for her to come home."

Washington Star: "Do you think there is anything in this case?" asked the junior partner of the law firm. "Certain," answered the senior partner, "our client is worth a million."

Washington Star: "Do you think that it prolongs a man's life to be insured?" "Yes," replied the man who had just been interviewed by an agent; "it does something toward keeping from being talked to death."

Cincinnati Enquirer: "I wonder where the odious expression of 'rubber neck' originated?" asked the final person, languidly. "It is evident," said the coarse person, "that you never had much experience with restaurant steaks."

Cleveland Plain Dealer: "Then you won't lead me a dime?" "The voice was full of pathos and husbandly care."

New York Recorder: "This liver is awful, Maad," said Mr. Newbold. "It's very sorry," returned the bride, "I'll tell the cook to speak to the liverman about it."

Indianapolis Journal: Weary Watkins - "What is this here repudiation?" Hungry Higgins - "It's like this here: The work gives me an' you a livin', don't it?" "Yep."

New York World: "I want a pound of butter," said Mr. Spotts to the grocer. "Yes, sir; the real or the imitation?" "Which kind was it you gave me day before yesterday?" "That was the genuine."

"I'll take the imitation this time."

A DISCUSSION OF CROPS. Dep't tells me in the country that success in dryers' days. Deben's er heap on what you got an' underricks ter raise. An' lots er young men's gwinter meet wif trouble, thers yer born. A-rainin' ob de ante when dey should be raisin' corn.

It Is Surprising

To many persons, who have been paying tailors' prices for custom-made suits, to find upon visiting our store that our suits and overcoats are as handsomely made, as fashionable in cut, as elegant in trimmings and as fine in materials.

We guarantee them in every particular and save you many dollars into the bargain.

Indeed our patterns are as nearly "exclusive" as the tailors' patterns are, for no one else has them and we do not make up too many of a kind.

One may retrench in his expenses for clothing here without any loss of style.
