STILL CUTTING FREIGHT RATES. SWEENEY GETS NINETY DAYS Roads Abandon All Hopes of Getting

Together. Freight matters are still unstable. The various efforts that have been made to or- Five Hundred Dollars Fine Added to the ganize something to take the place of the Western Freight association have failed and each road is free to slash rates as it chooses. The prospects of an agreement among the various western lines have been dimmed by the announcement of General Manager Ramsey of the Wabash that he would not enter into any compact concern ing rates. He gives as the reason for this refusal the failure of other roads to keep faith after making agreements concerning rates. This statement and the persistent refusal of President Stickney of the Great Western to attend any meetings looking toward a settlement of the question are almost sufficient to cause the other freight officials to abandon all hope of reaching an amicable agreement. Meanwhile further reductions continue to be announced with the usual regularity. The Missouri Pacific has announced a new rate on tin boxes, tin cans, lard palls and paint pots from St. Louis to Omaha, effective yesterday. The new rate is 24 cents per 100 pounds, a reduction of 3 cents. It applies to straight or mixed carloads, with a minimum limit of 15,000 pounds. Freight men about town say that notwithstanding the daily reductions, there is but little freight The reductions have failed to increase traffic, and freight cars are as plentiful as ever. It was thought that the cut in the rate on hard coal from Chicago and other take points to Missouri river points would stimulate this class of business, but most of the dealers are holding off apparently for a further reduction that is apparently for a further reduction that is generally expected. There is a general rumor that the rate on soft coal has been out, but no announcement of the fact has yet been given out by any of the Omaha lines.

Phillippi Expects to Win. General Agent Phillippi of the Missouri Pacific has returned from a trip to Kansas City and Chicago. When asked his opinion about the outcome of the case of the Nebraska Starch factory of Nebraska City against the road that he represents and which will be heard by the State Board of Transportation on November 13, he said that there could be no doubt about the failure of the case. "The Morton brothers want cheaper rates on corn into Nebraska City based on the cuts that have been made on corn into Kansas City and St. Louis. It is seldom that local rates are cut during a rate war that necessitates the reduction of through rates."

Railroading in Idaho. Under the direction of J. M. Clark, chief engineer of the Boise, Nampa & Owyce, the work of grading for the new road has been completed for about ten miles out o Nampa, Idaho. A mile of grade from the Snake river toward Nampa has already been completed and there is but little grading that remains to be done. It is expected that the road will be finished up to the river before winter puts a stop to the work. There is but one bridge of any size to be built and that is a 500-foot steel bridge across will meet the reduction that has been made in the rate on anthracite coal from Chicago to Missouri river points. J. L. Harris of Fort Worth, Tex., a live stock agent of the Chicago Union Stock Yards company, was at several of the railroad headquarters yesterday morning. The Michigan Central is testing a con trivance by which cars on parallel tracks can be shunted without the engine leaving the main track. The car switcher is at

The Wisconsin Central has withdrawn from the Western Passenger association. is thought that it will remain out of th fold only long enough for it to put in reduced rates to points in the Fox river val ley October 9. Application was made to the association for privilege to grant the rates Permission was refused and the road ther announced that it would put in the rates

ROENTGEN RAYS LOCATE A NEEDLE Had Worked Some Distance from Where it Entered. Another practical illustration of the utility of the Roentgen rays in diagnosis and surgery was furnished yesterday. Miss Jennie Arthur of 716 North Twentieth street ran a cambric needle into the fishy part of the palm of the hand last Thursday, the needle breaking off and leaving over half of the pointed end in the hand. An inhe needle, but the most careful search failed to locate it. E. B. Smith of the Nebraska telephone exchange kindly placed his valuable Roentgen apparatus at the disposal of the patient and physician. Though plainly showing the bones of the hand the fluorescope did not locate the needle so it could be seen with the naked eye. A Roentgen ray photograph was then taken and the needle could be plainly seen in the negative. Careful measurements of the photograph and hand were then made and the supposed site of the needle fixed with a pencil mark. This showed the needle to be a half inch from where the incision had been made in the track of the needle. An acision across the pencil mark struck the eedle midway and at the depth of half an ich. It was then extracted, the fragment being three-fourths of an inch in length. The operation was performed by the aid of cocaine applied locally. CHARLES BEAL AS A CAMPAIGNER. Stood Up for His Rights and Was Charles Beal of South Omaha attributes his broken leg to the rancor of the present campaign. He figures that if he had not discussed the money question he would be sound and whole.

Upon invitation Beal and his wife visited a friend who lives at Sixth and Hickory streets. There were a number of other guests and they all thoroughly enjoyed themselves over a case of refreshments. The inevitable political argument, however, finally developed and resulted disastrously for Beal. He was on the wrong side and the other men were unable to convince him with words. Therefore he says that they jumped upon him, and the last thing he knew was that he was stretched upon the floor. He charges that the three then threw him out of the house and in falling upon Jail Sentence.

HAD EXPECTED TO GET OFF MUCH EASIER

Another One of the Men Who Interfered with the Henry Bolln Trial Has to Pay the Pennity.

The last of the jury bribers in the Bolln embezzlement case was disposed of by Judge Baker yesterday morning when he sentenced George L. Sweeney to ninety days in the ounty jail and to pay a fine of $500.

Sweeney is the man who acted as the go-between in the case where Morrell lump, Sweeney's brother-in-law, confessed that he had received $50 for hanging the jury in the first trial of Henry Bollo, the ex-city treasurer, afterwards convicted of embezzling city funds. Gump was a member of the jury and James Fitzpatrick testified on the trial of the case that he ne gotiated a deal with Gump through Sweeney, whereby Gump was to vote for acquittal and hang the jury if he could not force a verdict of acquittal. Gump admitted having been bribed, but his conession did not implicate Sweeney. Sweeney denied having been in the deal, but was convicted on the evidence of other wit-

When Gump was sentenced Sweeney's attorneys succeeded in getting a stay of sentence in his case on the ground that his health was affected by heat and he would not be able to survive confinement in the Sweeney's attorneys have used every effort to secure a light sentence, and have presented petitions to Judge Baker, setting forth the fact that Sweeney had always borne a good reputation and asking that he be given as light a sentence as possible. Sweeney himself and his wife have also held interviews with the judge for the same

When asked vesterday morning if he had anything to say why sentence should not be prenounced on him, Sweeney asserted his inoccence and asked for further delay, say-ing he had some business matters which were of great importance, Judge Baker told him very plainly that he did not believe what he said about his innocence, and said he thought he had had time enough to arrange his affairs so that he could retire from the world for a time. The judge also said he was convinced that he ought to give him a heavy sentence, but he had been informed on the best authority that Sweeney had formerly occupied posi-tions of trust and had been faithful to his luties, and for that reason he would give him as light a sentence as he felt warcanted in doing. After sentence had been pronounced

Sweeney was led to the sheriff's office, accompanied by his wife. Both were in-tensely indignant and expressed their feelings in the strongest language. Tears were shed by them and Sweeney was very despon-dent as he was led to the jail.

Haker last spring, has been at his old tricks of playing sick, lately. He has pretended that he was in a dying condition and has kept his bed and refused to eat. It has been discovered, however, that when Gump thinks nobody is looking he gets up and walks about his cell and smokes his pipe with evident relish. He has been given to understand that if he wants anything to eat he will have to go to the dining room the same as the other prisoners. All Right."

Slabaugh yesterday morning sus tained the demurrer filed in the case of the Swedish-American Publishing company against Edward Rosewater to recover $1,300 or services alleged to have been rendered to the republican national committee in the campaign of 1892. Promise of a Lively Time at the Re-publican Primaries Friday. The republican primaries at which the in municipal legislation test their popularity will be held next Friday, and as the time approaches the contests in the various wards are becoming more than usually ex- BOTH WILL BE ARRESTED AS VAGRANTS citing. The candidates for membership in the Board of Education are nearly overlooked in the scuffe for the councilmanic nominations. The latter presents about as lively a conflict of ambitions as the local republicans have ever been engaged in. While each ward has a fight of its own, the fact that the councilmen who are candidates for re-election formed a close corporation early in the campaign for the purpose of pulling each other through has aroused a certain sentiment against the combine. This sentiment has been emphasized by the fact that the combine engaged the services of nearly all the working politicians on the city pay roll, and also the good offices of the corporations to whom councilmanic favor is important. During the past day or two, however, symptoms of a disintegration of the combine have developed which may effect a decided change in the situation. The beginning is in the Fourth and Eighth wards, where F. B. Kennard and Cadet Taylor are cardidates for re-election. These two coun-cilmen are said to be the progenitors of the original combination, and up to Friday they were engaged in an earnest effort to pull each other through. But now they have declared all bets off and decided that each will go it slone hereafter. The trou-ble originated over the gas question, which is to some extent an issue in the campaign. Hitherto both men were tied up with the old gas company. Taylor is said recently to have changed front and given his adherence to the new company which is seeking a franchise. Kennard refused to follow suit and it is said that the parting was not effected without some very acidulous exchanges of opinion. OLD FRIENDS DROP HIM.

The effect of the new deal is more marked in the Eighth than in the Fourth ward. Up to this time Taylor has enjoyed the support of the street railway company and other influences, which are conceded to have a good deal of strength in that ward. It now stated on the authority of one Taylor's supporters that Taylor's action has cost him his best element of strength and presages his defeat. Taylor's friends still maintain that he has a sure thing, but Crocker is making a red-hot campaign and his supporters are equally confident.

The corporation influence is also cutting a good deal of figure in the Ninth ward. All contestants are said to be courting it. Mercer is assisted by Charley Unitt, Ed P. Davis and other workers, while Davidson's support is more largely confined to the element that is not so closely connected with the machine. Mercer offered Friday o bet $100 to $25 that he would beat Davidson out as an indication of his faith in himself.

Down in the First ward Pete Back and Ernest Stuht are fighting each other as usual. The two men have been rival candidates as long as either can remember, and this year there is no other borse in the race and they will have a chance to fight it out without interference. Back has been dent as he was led to the jail.

A few days ago Sweeney was about the court house and he freely predicted that if Judge Eaker sentenced him to jail there advantage of Stuht when it comes to confidence. Stuht has long been famous as one of the most confident individuals who ever elevated a lightning rod. Ike successful in every previous contest and Judge Baker sentenced him to jail there would be an uprising of the citizens of South Omaha which would startle the whole community. He said the jail would be torn dire disaster would follow every ward for his fourteenth consecutive desertion from the republican party. But his Eweeney's brother-in-law, Gump, who has overtures have not been encouraged and seen in fall since he was sentenced by Judge M. F. Funkhauser is said to be first in the democratic line.

Up in the big Sixth there is still a surplus of candidates, although a number of those first announced have pulled in their ambitious and reserved them for a more promising opportunity. H. C. Betterman, Irving C. Pright, Louis Littlefield and Myron D. 1 of seem to lead the field at present, with terman at the pole. A. W. Johnson E. withdrawn, presumably in Betterman's interest, and C. L. Jaynes, the present councilman from that ward the present councilman from that ward As Jaynes is not a candidate for re-election, his friends are disposed to regard his wishes to some extent. The element locally known as the "Winspear crowd" is also working for Betterman. Except in the Seventh, where there are dozen candidates all jumbled together in bunch at the first quarter, the remainder f the field is without feature. Andrew Kiewitt is making Anton Kment hustle in he Second and Captain O'Malley is per orming the same benevolent office for So Prince in the Third. A. J. Lunt is said to have things his own way in the Fifth and W. F. Bechel is making the game interestng for Kennard in the Fourth.

SOUND MONEY LEAGUE ORGANIZED. Non-Partisan in Character and for the Good of All. A Sound Money Non-Partisan league was organized at an enthusiastic meeting of local business men and wage-earners Friday night. The feature of the meeting was the representative character of those who participated. The crowd included a number of the most prominent bysiness men of the city, and with them were workers in the Union Pacific shops and representatives of other lines of industrial effort. The discussion was harmonious and the idea of form-ing an organization solely for sound money without reference to political belief was unanimously endorsed. The organization was perfected by the election of Dr. George . Miller president and W. A. Webster secretary. Some plans of future work were discussed, but nothing definite was decided Before the next meeting the membership list will be circulated, and then the league proposes to take an effective part the remainder of the campaign declaration of principles is brief and to the
