GETS MONEY BY TAXATION.

"The government gets is money just as the citizen gets his money-by giving thing for it. The government raises $400, 000,000 every year by taxing its people and the products of other people coming into the United States, and the latter is the policy of the republican party. We do not believe the government should make money by setting its printing presses and its mints to work, but that the best thing it C25.T of of its revenues is to put a tariff on for-eign products of every kind that compete with American products and make that tariff high enough to protect the American producer.
