We know that Cod-liver Oil is a fat-forming food because takers of it gain rapidly in weight under its use and the whole body receives vital force. When prepared as in Scott's Emulsion, it is quickly and easily changed into the tissues of the body. As your doctor would say, "It is easily assimilated." Perhaps you are suffering from fat starvation. You take fat enough with your food, but it either isn't the right kind, or it isn't digested. You need fat prepared for you, as in Scott's Emulsion.

FORGER GOES UP FOR A YEAR

H. A. Grantz Sentenced for Securing Fifty Dollars in that Manner.

GROWS OUT OF A PROTRACTED DRUNK

Makes a Heroic Effort to Remain sober, but Domestic in City Finally Drives Him to Jail in the Cup that Cheers.

H. A. Grantz was sentenced to a year's imprisonment in the Fort Madison penitentiary and to pay a $50 fine by Judge Macy yesterday in the district court.

Grantz, who is a native of Iowa, was arrested during the summer, forged a receipt on a lumber firm in Neola, and secured about $50 from Mrs. Williams, for whom he was building a house. He was indicted on this charge and for obtaining money under false pretenses. On the forgery charge he was sentenced and the other was dismissed by the state.

Grantz was presented to the court, asking for clemency in the case. It was set out that Grantz had made a heroic effort to overcome his drink habit and had succeeded in doing so for several years until his family troubles again drove him to the old habit. Since Grantz was arrested W. C. Hader has been visiting him and the two have had intimate relations with his wife. This approaching disgrace is given as a reason for Grantz getting into the penitentiary for a year yesterday. Sheriff Morgan left with his prisoner last evening for Fort Madison.

Considerable interest was manifested by the audience and the court room was well filled. The attorneys stated that they expected to get a number of witnesses from out of town. FAKE MEETING OF SILVER FORCES.

Pretended Movement of Council Bluffs Israelites an Omaha Project.

For several days local and Omaha democratic and populist papers have been standing in their columns notices that the Jewish voters of Council Bluffs would meet in the hall of the Patriotic Sons of America Monday night and organize a Bryan Free Silver club. Distinct emphasis was laid upon the assertion that it was to be a meeting of Council Bluffs Jewish citizens, and that there were to be addresses by prominent speakers in English, Hebrew and German. Only the latter part of the promise was fulfilled. Only three Council Bluffs Jewish voters were present. Harris, Drolch and one other Israelite who were pointed out as leaders in the movement to throw the entire Jewish vote into the Bryan camp. The speakers were absent. The speakers were there, and they brought their audiences with them. Chairman Cohen of the Omaha populist central committee called the meeting to order and presided during the evening. He delivered a speech, and so did Rudy and Mr. Hochman, both of whom were present. The American Hebrew club of Omaha was present with all of its members, and made an attendance and respectful audience. John A. Frainey, John Ables and Phil Warham represented the Council Bluffs Jews, with the assistance of several Jewish young men. Frainey and Ables made speeches, which pleased the Omaha audience. The speaking was finished and the meeting was ready to adjourn by 10:30, and Chairman Cohen and his fellow members left for home. The meeting would not have been just as well to have held the meeting and made the speeches in Omaha club headquarters and saved the matter there.

Attention Divorce Suit.

Word was received here last evening that the supreme court of the state had reversed the decision in the divorce case of Atchison against Atchison, granting the divorce to the plaintiff, with the custody of the two children. The case was tried before Judge Macy October, 1894, and the petition of the plaintiff, Mrs. W. E. Atchison, was granted in the lower court was watched with great interest. The parties to the suit are both prominent and high toned. The case is the memorable feature of the term. The decision of Judge Macy. FROM THIRTY THOUSAND TO

Size of McKinley's Majority in Iowa is Uncertain to a Degree.

DEMOCRATS SERENELY CLAIM EVERYTHING

Make Figures to Back Up Their Assertions, but Show No Facts to Support Their Wonderful Calculations.

DES MOINES, Oct. 12.—(Special.)—The political campaign is just at the point of turning into the home stretch. The managers are making their last preparations for the coming day. On both sides they are carrying the air of confidence in the result in Iowa, but as the end draws nearer whatever doubt there has been at any time is being dispelled and it is becoming plain that the state will go republican by a good majority.

National Committeeman A. R. Cummins puts his lowest estimate of the republican majority at 35,000. Chairman H. C. McKinley puts his minimum at 40,000; Treasurer Pray leaves the figure higher than this, and is confident of 60,000. Two months ago the republican managers admitted among themselves that the state was not in as good condition as they would have liked. The extent of silver sentiment in the rural districts was uncertain; it was reported to be serious, and there is no doubt that it was much worse than it is now. There has been a steady improvement in the conditions until the managers say the party will well in line Chairman McMillan declares the defection of republicans will be remarkably small, insignificant, and the republican majority is at least 39,000 old line democrats will desert their party. Of these it was estimated that 20,000 will be republicans and the rest for Palmer.

These are the estimates of the republicans. They are given in plain figures, and the other side, the democrats, are not far behind. All but a very few counties have been polled, many of them twice. The second poll invariably indicates a great improvement in the republican vote. The count were labeled doubtful or liable to go democratic are found to be in line again. The improvement has been steady and rapid.

On the other hand, the democratic committee is making blanket claims to everything in sight. It has no figures to back up its claims. It is in the state and is all prepared to name the specific counties in which its party will make its gains. Its claims are based on the fact that in all the central part of the state the party will make great gains. In the western part of the state they expect to count on gains in the counties which have those that include cities. They claim that their gains will continue as far east as the second vote of the Mississippi river, and that they will carry the rest of the state. The highest democratic estimate of the sound money vote of the party is 10,000, of which half is expected to vote for Bryan. The republican estimate is 35,000 to 50,000 republicans who will vote for Bryan, and concludes that democrats will carry the state by 20,000 or more.

COMMITTEES HARD AT WORK.

Both committees are working diligently. There is little relaxation of energy in sending out the party workers. The number of pieces sent out weekly is not quite so large as a month ago, but the decrease is not so great as it might be. The number of speaking are handling more speakers. The demand for speaking is unparalleled. There has never been a year of such large meetings. The county of the voters is being divided into districts. The party is being organized. The party is being organized. The party is being organized.

The railroad men have been organizing sound clubs all over the state. Every railroad town of any importance has a club. In Des Moines they have about 500 members, and it is reported there are no less than 125 such organizations in the state. The clubs are being organized in all the railroad towns. The party is being organized. The party is being organized. The party is being organized.

Conditions as to Congressmen.

In the congressional situation the conditions are not so bright as they once were. The democrats assert that they fail to elect four congressmen from the Sixth, Eighth, Ninth and Second districts. They also claim good chances in the Eleventh. The republicans concede that there is a hard fight by 500 to 1,000 votes. They also claim good chances in the Eleventh. No Tracer Yet of Highwaymen.

The police are of the opinion that the Peck brothers are but a small fraction of a crowd of lightfingered individuals who have been growing rich of late through thefts and holdups which have taken place both in this city and in the Bluffs. The men who attempted to hold up Conductor Hughey of the Council Bluffs and Omaha Motor line are undoubtedly members of the inner circle, and the police are making every effort to either locate or drive out of the city all such disreputable citizens. A fairly good description of the tallest of the Peck brothers is given in the Herald. He has been obtained and it is expected that he and his pals will be located shortly.
