DIVORCE CASE GIVEN A SECOND HEARING

Sister of the Wife a Disturbing Eles ment in the Household, but She Deutes Any Wrong Doing.

Judge Powell was engaged yesterday morning in hearing the testimony in a divorce case which broke the record in this county for genuine nastiness. The case was entitled "Frank O. Cassiday against Carrie T. Cassiday," and the ground alleged in the petition why a divorce should be granted the husband was cruelty, a number of instances being detailed.

One peculiar feature of the case lies in the fact that a decree of divorce was granted at the last term of court, the husband and a sister of the wife appearing in court and giving testimony in support of the allegations in the petition. It was stated that the wife did not intend to contest the case and a decree was entered by default. Afterward the wife appeared in court and told another story, and the decree was set aside, the hearing being set for yesterday. The story in the petition filed in the case was to the effect that the wife was vicious and vulgar in her habits, and made a practice of calling the husband the most repulsive names; that she was frequently under the influence of liquor, and that she had threatened the life of her husband and time at least any hopes we may have of getting eastern money to develop Nebraska sister. resources. The fear of hostile legislation is

The answer of the wife denied the charges made in the petition and set up counter charges against the husband and the sister of the wife, charging that while the sister was living at the house of the parties to the suit, she and the husband had committed many indecent acts. The plaintiff in the case was the first witness and he detailed a long series of events in line with the charges made in his peti-Names Are Not in the Democratic Campaign Circular. One cause of action which is generally alhad cared for his wife when she was severely burned by her clothing taking fire leged is the fact that the democratic steering committee has recently issued a cam-paign circular bearing on the legislative campaign. This is a small pamphlet headed "Stand Up for Nebraska." and containing biographical sketches of candidates who from a gasoline stove. After this accident he said their quarrels had been more frequent, and his wife had threatened to shoot both himself and her sister, charging them with criminal intimacy. Katle Gallatin, the sister of the wife, was the only other witness for the plaintiff and she told substantially the same story, adding that her sister was continually jealous of her and was always quarreling with Cassiday about her. As the witness was giving this latter testimony Cassiday looked daggers at her

Both witnesses denied that any improper relations had ever existed between them The defense called the wife to the stand and for over an hour she recited a story of wrongs and conduct on the part of her recreant husband and her sister. She admitted having taken a revolver in her hand on one occasion of demanding an explana-tion of both of them, but denied any intention of shooting either of them. She recited details and proofs of her suspicions. After the accident by which she was severely Samuel P. # Jewelry of India.

Jewelry of India. Never during its existence has India been so rich in jewelry as now. The people are always adding to their stock. Savings from nearly all sources are disposed of in this way, and these savings are being constantly made-often at the expense of clothing, sometimes at the expense of greater neces-sities of life. The making and the storing away of wealth in this form is the national necesilarity of the country.

away of wealth in this tourity. peculiarity of the country. Jewelry is regarded as the most stable kind of wealth and fortunes are never counted without estimating the value of the stock of jewelry. It can always be pledged or disposed of. The market for ts sale is never closed and never depressed. The most ignorant native who wishes to sell a piece of jewelry knows its market value quite well. He can scarcely be heated,

Jewelry forms the greatest factor in matrimony. The most lowly bride has her stridham, which is occasionally equal in value to five years' income of the bride-groom. There is often a scarcity of cloth-ing, sometimes a scarcity of cooking pots, generally not a particle of furniture, but nearly always a stock of jewelry. The wife who hes no invelopments on bibling else. who has no jewelry possesses nothing else; she cannot be robbed. The family that does not have jewelry is absolutely indigent. One of the greatest boasts of the jewelry owner is that his hoards cannot be taxed. CRAWFORD, Neb., Oct. 13.-To the Edi-tor of The Bee: What constitutes a royal flush? A SUBSCRIBER. A royal flush is ace, king, queen, jack and ten of any suit. A man may own jewelry valued at a lakh of rupees, and pay no income tax. This is a cource of great satisfaction. Jewelry yields no recurring income, but it is prized more than government paper. If it never increases, it never diminishes, is a national saying, common among men and women alike. No native marriage, except among the most impoverished, takes place without a transfer of jeweiry, and very frequently
