

ILLINOIS DAY AT CANTON

Lincoln's State Sends Large Delegations to Visit Major McKinley.

MONSTER PARADE IN THE OHIO TOWN

Other Sound Money Enthusiasts Pledge The Honor to McKinley and Hobart and Listen to Addresses on the Issues.

CANTON, O., Oct. 21.—This was Illinois day at the home of the republican presidential candidate, but a number of other visits of note were made. All day long the streets have been filled with marching clubs and the air with the music of bands.

The people of this section are divided into two political parties. We are in the midst of a great contest wherein these parties are struggling with each other for the control of the destiny of this country.

Major McKinley reviewed the parade from the stand on the front of his lawn, and when it had passed the marchers continued to march around the stand for the speaking.

Other sound money enthusiasts pledged the honor to McKinley and Hobart and listened to addresses on the issues. The speaker, General Grant, who in our country's war has secured a glorious victory and triumph.

Four heavy trains brought the Garfield club of the western reserve today with the greetings of the republican district, which General Garfield represented in congress for a number of years.

In his reply Major McKinley dwelt at length upon the great resources of Illinois and the advantages of its location.

Major McKinley reviewed a number of representatives of the labor organizations of the state, including the Iron and Steel workers of the Cleveland district.
