Wheat Takes an Emphatic and Inglorious Tumble All Around.

OPENS STRONG ON THE CURB, HOWEVER

Shaky Condition of Affairs Something of a Surprise in Many Circles—Tightness of Money One Contributing Cause.

CHICAGO, Oct. 21.—Wheat took an emphatic and inglorious tumble today, the December option closing at 73c, a decline of 1/2c from yesterday's closing price, and that, too, after closing at 74c on the curb. The principal depressing features were the tight money market and the fact that No. 2 hard winter is now selling at a discount of 1/8c to the under December. Other markets were more or less affected. Corn declined 1/8c, oats 1/8c and provisions from 1/8c to 1/4c.

torried all about steady prime red, 20c; heavy 1/2c; yellow, 1 3/8c; white, 20c.

CHEGO, Oct. 21.—The wheat market today developed irregularly on a fairly large acreage of holding. The market was the one yesterday, was well distributed, with the railroads commanding their full share of interest. The course of the market, and of an important influence on the share speculation and a reactionary tendency in the first mentioned, together with firmness in the exchange market and a belief that the market would be advanced tomorrow, caused reactions after early advance today.
