MCKINLEY TO THE FARMERS

Tells Them Wealth Cannot Be Created by Breath of Congress.

LEGISLATION DOES NOT MAKE GOOD CROPS

Property Depends on a Steady Home Market for Home Products and Honest Pay for Honest Toil.

CANTON, O., Oct. 22.—Major McKinley had strawberries and cream with his speeches today. The berries came from the second crop in Belmont, O., and the visitors brought plenty of cream with them.

There was glorious Indian summer's bright weather in Canton this morning. A large delegation of farmers called at McKinley's home. They came from Creston, Iowa, and from the north and west.

There is no such thing as creating wealth by the breath of congress. Congress can do a great many things, but it cannot make the country rich by giving us dollars and cents out of its pockets.

FLAG DAY CALL FOR NEBRASKANS.

State Republican Committee Urges the Display of "Old Glory."

In accordance with the suggestion of the national committee that all loyal advocates of sound money and protection should display the flag on Saturday, the first instant, the state republican committee has issued the following:

HEADQUARTERS OF REPUBLICAN STATE COMMITTEE, LINCOLN, Oct. 22.—The patriotic call made by the republican national committee of the United States that Saturday, the 1st instant, should be known as "flag day" and that all who favor the election of William McKinley as president should display their houses, stores, shops and places of business, the emblem of the republic.

The governor stated that his present visit to Omaha was not taken wholly in the interests of politics but was the occasion of his first visit to the state since he took a view of being in touch with the people whom he endeavored to serve.

The governor also spoke at some length upon the silver question and predicted that the next week would see the republican candidate hard for prestige in Nebraska.

PUT COUNTRY ABOVE PARTY

Lifelong Democrats Put in Their Time Speaking for Sound Money.

Safety Lies in McKinley's Election Duty of the Country to Bury Repudiation Out of Sight—Enthusiastic Meeting of the Nonpartisan Sound Money League.

One of the most enthusiastic meetings of the campaign was held at Creighton hall last night under the auspices of the Nonpartisan Sound Money League. The large hall was filled from the stage to the doors, including the gallery, with a crowd made up of many of Omaha's best citizens.

The proscenium arch was draped with two immense American flags, the forming the only decorations. On the stage were seated, besides the speakers, Messrs. Herman Kuntze, P. E. Her, Warren Switzer, Curtis Turner, J. O. Corby, R. W. Richardson, John Harbach, Arthur Wakeley, John R. Webster, Frank Colpeter, W. L. Kierstead, Robert Livesey and others.

The meeting was called to order by Francis A. Bragan, who said that before beginning the political part of the meeting he would introduce Omaha's favorite singer, Jules Lombard. The white-haired singer, who stirred men's souls during the late unpleasantness by his songs, was greeted with prolonged applause.

The crowd rose to the occasion and the building fairly shook with the volume of sound as all joined in the stirring national hymn.

TO BE IN EVIDENCE NIGHTLY. F. A. Bragan then spoke briefly, explaining the objects of the league which, he said, had been organized within the past two weeks through the agency of Dr. George L. Miller. The purpose of the league was to hold meetings every night until election to which every citizen should be invited.

Henry W. Yates was introduced by the chairman and announced that, owing to the lateness of the hour, the committee had consented that his speech be postponed until some future time. He said, however, that in the present campaign attacks had been made on the bankers as a class and he thought it was incumbent upon members of that class that they should raise their voices in self-protection.

HOW ONE MAN SPENT HIS VACATION. The smoke consumer that attaches to the "Acorn Oak" burns up two-thirds of the smoke that usually escapes through the chimney. This smoke and gas is the best part of the fuel—and the smoke consumer results in a great saving on the coal bill—it adds cleanliness to the stove—as the greater part of the soot is consumed—the "Acorn Oak" is absolutely air-tight and holds fire three days with soft coal.

The Kimball piano continues to be the most sought after of all musical instruments—of course the price has something to do with it—but not all-for aside from being the lowest priced—it is the highest grade—awarded toned piano in existence—it was awarded the highest honors at the World's fair after a spirited contest with all the pianos known to be of good reputation.
