

COUNCIL BLUFFS DEPARTMENT

MINOR MENTION.

Photo supplies and cameras, 541 B'dway. H. Mendel of Neola was in the city yesterday.

Hon. L. T. Gengen of Hastings was in the city last evening to attend the annual dinner of the Keg Creek Club at the Standard Underwood of Keg Creek was in Council Bluffs yesterday.

Mrs. Curris of El Paso, Tex., is a guest of her brother, F. S. Lafferty.

J. A. T. Bates of Oakland, is in the city, a guest of County Clerk Reed.

James G. Berryhill of Illinois, one of the leading republicans of Polk county, is in the city.

Smith McPherson of Red Oak was in the city yesterday on his way to Logan, where he spoke during the afternoon.

W. O. White has returned from the Cripple Creek gold fields with abundant earnings.

L. DeLano of Atlantic, W. J. Burke of Missouri Valley and D. Chestnut of Shelly attended the Irish meeting last night.

All members of the McKinley Guard and Drum corps will meet for drill promptly at 7:30 this evening at the armory in the Elmman building.

Rev. John Askin waited in marriage yesterday at the Congregational parsonage Mr. H. J. Gallagher and Miss Myra A. Carr, both of Omaha.

Pilgrim Sisters' Academy No. 1 will meet at 7:30 p. m. in their rooms in the Bend block. All members requested to be present. Business of importance.

The will of Caroline Baldwin was admitted to probate yesterday in the district court. The value of the estate is in San Francisco, there only being a small holding in this country.

The Mutual Association of the city will meet Monday evening, 10 p. m., at the Young Men's Christian association parlors, corner of Pearl and Broadway. Arrangements will then be made for the union Thanksgiving services in November.

Justice Vien will complete the hearing today of the Hale-Hoyt case. A portion of the evidence was submitted and an adjournment taken until 6 o'clock today. Some grows out of some threatening letters sent by Mrs. Hoyt to her husband's first wife.

A. M. Palmer's company of players will present "Trilby" at the Dohany theatres this evening. This is the same organization that so successfully toured Australia. The piece will be presented by A. M. Palmer's company under the direction of William A. Brady.

The police department is asked to supply all kinds of information and do all kinds of work, but the oddest request of the season came yesterday from Andrew D. Gray or Helena, Mont., who wanted to know if any man in his broom factory was any man whom the Council Bluffs factory will recommend as a good broom maker and a man with good character.

Dr. Lloyd Cooke, who has shown many remarkable manifestations of spirit power, will give an exhibition at the Dohany theatre Saturday evening, 10 p. m., which will perform a variety of feats that will fully demonstrate the methods employed by Prof. Taylor, Bishop, Dr. Arnold and other mediums, whose achievements in the occult science have completely baffled scientific explanation. In the program will be included an evening of songs, with open scenes, in which tables are elevated in mid-air, flowers pass by unseen hands and messages between the spirits and the spectators exchanged.

A case of diphtheria was reported yesterday at the residence of C. M. Phillips, 202 South Eighth street. He has had a severe cold in this neighborhood and complaints have been made that the quarantine regulations have not been properly observed. Complaints of this character have become so frequent of late from all parts of the city that the public health department has issued some arrests and gave some examples that will call attention to the provisions of the state quarantine laws. The testimony of physicians who have been called upon to express an opinion universally points to the laxity permitted in the enforcement of the quarantine laws by the chief medical officer of the board of health.

Justice Cook is still endeavoring to straighten out the kinks in a case where ex-Mayor Broach of Omaha has intervened to protect a claim for $40 in the hands of A. N. Scribner, a wagon maker. Some old creditors of Scribner endeavored to collect a judgment against him which is held by a man who was then his partner, by giving him one of Scribner's present customers. The material for the work done for this customer had been furnished by Broach, and when the customer was garnished Broach intervened. Justice Cook has been compelled to take up the case again before the individual claims of members of the company could be satisfied. This decision knocked out the garnishessuit.

Making New Citizens. The following citizens have been naturalized by Judge McGee in the superior court: Herman Berch, Henry Thiel, J. C. Christianson, Max Goldstein, Alex Ehlers, Peter O'Connell, H. J. Hansen, Frederic Hehl, O. C. Ulstrom, William Johnson, Thomas Pinner, Peter Hansen, Hans Peterson, John Clausen, Neil C. Neilson.

Thomas Pinner proposed to be somewhat of a hero to the citizenry of the city. He is 70 years old and came from Ireland in 1841. May 6 of the same year he took out his first papers in the court of common pleas for the city and county of New York.

Harp music at Purdy Candy Kitchen Saturday night. Peanut taffy, 10¢ a pound.

One Populist's Deep Interest.

In one of the many redhot political discussions constantly under way in front of the democratic headquarters a well known popular yesterday was compelled to admit that he had a son in the service of the elector of Bryan. The man did not become a Populist until several months after the Chicago platform was promulgated, but as election day draws near he has become a very enthusiastic Bryanite. In the discussion yesterday it was developed that he had converted every dollar of his regular income into gold, had drawn it from the banks and was hoarding it with the conviction that each dollar would be worth two if Bryan was elected.

"So you expect to be well paid for your vote for Bryan?" said his interlocutor.

"Yes," said the Populist. "and if Bryan is elected I will more than double my money. I recollect when gold went to $2.40 in this country and in the present conditions I believe it will do better than that."

Another great candy sale at the Purdy Candy Kitchen Saturday. Taffy, 9¢ a pound.

John Don't Wear a Necktie.

Hon. John P. Irish spoke to a large and enthusiastic audience in Council Bluffs Friday evening. It was observed among the peculiarities of the man that he never wears a necktie. Whether he does not wish with this article of dress for the purpose of being considered "common folks" or unable to buy, but if he had seen the elegant Jimmie McGuire, he would have worn his outfit, is showing at 415 Broadway.

The man would undoubtedly have overcome his whim. A man is not dressed unless he wears a tie, and when there is such a beautiful line to select from as Hughes is showing, and at such a low figure, there is no excuse for being half dressed.

Clearing Mosquito Creek.

Work on the bed of Mosquito creek is being done by a gang of laborers under the direction of Supervisor Baker. More dynamite has been used and the obstructions have about all been taken away. A heavy team of horses is being used in dredging the logs and roots, the men working up to their belts in the water. The channel has been almost filled just above the bridge on the road to the Iowa School for the Deaf and it is to protect this structure that the dredging of the channel is being done.

WHI Lay the Corner Stone.

The English Lutheran church, which is being erected at the corner of Willow avenue and Second street, promises to be one of the handsomest structures of the kind in the city. The lower story is about completed and is of gray Missouri sandstone, with a rough face. Arched windows are being made for the laying of the corner stone a week from tomorrow. Appropriate services will be held and addresses will be DAMAGES, FORECLOSURES, ATTACHMENTS, NOTES AND ACCOUNTS AFFECT BASIS FOR MOST OF THE ACTIONS LATELY BROUGHT.

But one day remains for the filing of petitions in the district court for the November term, and a number of new cases were started yesterday.

P. C. Peterson brought suit against R. Harriman for $5,000, claiming that he was damaged to that extent because of misrepresentations made by the plaintiff in a contract for the sale of some patent medicines. Peterson gave his notes for $1,000 for the privilege of selling the mixture, and also received $3,500 worth of accounts that the defendant represented to him were valuable. Peterson states that most of these accounts had already been settled before he got them and many of them paid. He wants the sum asked for because of loss of services and time wasted.

E. Bruce & Co. have filed a petition for an injunction and a writ of attachment against the proprietors of the Hotel Piper against the Minden Drug company and others to the district court. Piper has been assigned for the drug company since it failed some time ago, and Bruce & Co. set up the claim that he is about to dispose of the stock at a nominal sum and in this way sacrifice their interest in the stock. The property is represented as being worth about $1,200.

J. C. Grason, trustee, has sued the Jarvis Wine company for $116.03, due on an old wine account.

Foreclosure suits were commenced by the Mason City Savings and Loan Association against Sarah Bradshaw and others for $700, and against A. K. Pidgeon and others for $70.

Sylvester Hollingsworth asks $2,500 damages from the Omaha & Council Bluffs Bridge and Railway company for injuries sustained by his 13-year-old daughter.

The girl was hit by a train at the Ak-Sar-Ben parade on the night of the Ak-Sar-Ben parade.

The girl was sitting on the rail protecting the foot passage when a motor came along, and she lost her balance and was thrown to the street below. She was bruised and lay by her fall.

J. Hobart signed a note with Gustave Heinrichs October 11, 1887, for $275, and was compelled to pay it. He wants Heinrichs to settle with him now, and has sued him for the amount now.

In the suit of Finley Brauch against the Union Land and Improvement company the defendant has filed a motion for a specific statement. Mr. Burke's claims are for attorney's fees for the company, and the defendant wants him to tell who it was that employed him to do the work.
