

ELECTRICITY ON THE STAGE

Effects Produced Never Before in the Setting of Plays.

THE STAGE CARPENTER'S GREAT ART

Marvelous Atmospheric Effects Produced by Machinery—Novel Devices to be Used in Grand Opera This Year.

It is not the golden it is certainly the mechanical age of the drama. Never before in all the history of the theater...

Whether the tremendous demand for "mechanical effects" among managers is or is not a favorable sign the critics must decide or at least discuss. The scope of this article merely embraces a description of some recent developments in this direction.

To begin with, there is electricity. Nearly 80 per cent of recent "artificial" scenes have been connected with matters electrical.

When he asked the theatrical electrician to produce this effect for him, however, nearly every one of the craft in New York declared it was impossible.

THE LILIPUTIANS will have a rainbow effect in one of their plays this winter. A rainbow machine is a projecting apparatus, a modification of the magic lantern.

OTHER ELECTRICAL EFFECTS. The "Black Crook" will start out on the road this year with a number of electric effects.

A WONDERFUL TIN SAIL BOAT. The invention of the stage mechanic, however, is not limited to electrical effects by any means.

FATA MORGANA ILLUSIONS. In "Under the Palm Star" a purely scenic play, the action of which takes place in Arctic regions the most noteworthy innovation is the spectacle of the Aurora Borealis.

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS. J. C. Metzler of Lincoln is a Barker guest. Judge Dundy is confined to his home by illness.

AWARDED Highest Honors—World's Fair. DR. CREAM BAKING POWDER. MOST PERFECT MADE.

"The Gay Parisians," which is pleasing Creighton patrons, will close its engagement at that theater with two performances today.

"Charley's Aunt," the well known rollicking comedy success, presented by what is said to be a strong company, will be the attraction at Boyd's for three nights, commencing Sunday matinee, October 25.

The scenery of "An American Beauty," the new comic opera, which will be seen next Tuesday and Wednesday at the Creighton, with Miss Lillian Russell, is said to be very particularly striking.

The first production in this city of Sartorius' "Madame Sans Genes" at the Creighton, is a most interesting and successful one.

BREAKING THE BANKS.

A drummer's hot bet that irrigated the Creighton the other night, relates the Danville (Ky.) Advocate. There were Bryan men and McKinley men, and the discussion grew fast and furious.

"All I have to say, gentlemen," finally exclaimed a drummer, "is that four months after Bryan was elected every bank in the United States would be closed."

"This assertion had the effect of bringing a half dozen Bryan men to their feet, and many angry glances were cast at the man with the button-hole bouquet and waxed mustache."

"You needn't look at me in that style," resumed the drummer. "I mean just what I say—every bank in the United States will be closed four months after he's inaugurated."

"Rate!" "Come off!" "You make me tired!" and similar exclamations came from all over the reading room.

The drummer appeared to get mad. Drawing a $5 bill from his pocket he held it up and said: "I'll bet that what I say is true, and will put the money right here with old man Taylor."

A half dozen men jumped up to take his bet and the stakes were deposited. Then the drummer resumed: "I mean just what I say—every bank in the United States will be closed four months after he's inaugurated."
