

THE NEW YORK HERALD'S FORECAST OF CONGRESS

A Comprehensive Review of the Probable Strength of Parties in the Fifty-Fifth Congress—Triumph of Sound Money and Republicanism.

THE CONGRESSIONAL CANVASS.

Probable Political Representation in the Fifty-Fifth Congress.

Table with columns: State, No. Reps., Rep., Dem., Pop., Estimated Plurality. Lists states from Alabama to Wyoming.

DIVISIONS ON THE MONEY QUESTION.

Table with columns: State, Sound Money, Free Silver. Lists states from Alabama to Wyoming.

ALABAMA.

Alabama. This will give Dinsmore a plurality of 4,000. W. H. Neal is the republican candidate in the Sixth district, will be elected by 2,000 plurality. His opponents are B. F. Bodenhamer and Homer Prince.

ARIZONA.

Arizona. This will give Dinsmore a plurality of 4,000. W. H. Neal is the republican candidate in the Sixth district, will be elected by 2,000 plurality.

ARKANSAS.

Arkansas. This will give Dinsmore a plurality of 4,000. W. H. Neal is the republican candidate in the Sixth district, will be elected by 2,000 plurality.

CALIFORNIA.

California. This will give Dinsmore a plurality of 4,000. W. H. Neal is the republican candidate in the Sixth district, will be elected by 2,000 plurality.

CONNECTICUT.

Connecticut. This will give Dinsmore a plurality of 4,000. W. H. Neal is the republican candidate in the Sixth district, will be elected by 2,000 plurality.

DELAWARE.

Delaware. This will give Dinsmore a plurality of 4,000. W. H. Neal is the republican candidate in the Sixth district, will be elected by 2,000 plurality.

CALIFORNIA.

California. This will give Dinsmore a plurality of 4,000. W. H. Neal is the republican candidate in the Sixth district, will be elected by 2,000 plurality.

GEORGIA.

Georgia. This will give Dinsmore a plurality of 4,000. W. H. Neal is the republican candidate in the Sixth district, will be elected by 2,000 plurality.

INDIANA.

Indiana. This will give Dinsmore a plurality of 4,000. W. H. Neal is the republican candidate in the Sixth district, will be elected by 2,000 plurality.

ILLINOIS.

Illinois. This will give Dinsmore a plurality of 4,000. W. H. Neal is the republican candidate in the Sixth district, will be elected by 2,000 plurality.

MISSOURI.

Missouri. This will give Dinsmore a plurality of 4,000. W. H. Neal is the republican candidate in the Sixth district, will be elected by 2,000 plurality.

NEBRASKA.

Nebraska. This will give Dinsmore a plurality of 4,000. W. H. Neal is the republican candidate in the Sixth district, will be elected by 2,000 plurality.

NEW YORK.

New York. This will give Dinsmore a plurality of 4,000. W. H. Neal is the republican candidate in the Sixth district, will be elected by 2,000 plurality.

PENNSYLVANIA.

Pennsylvania. This will give Dinsmore a plurality of 4,000. W. H. Neal is the republican candidate in the Sixth district, will be elected by 2,000 plurality.

TENNESSEE.

Tennessee. This will give Dinsmore a plurality of 4,000. W. H. Neal is the republican candidate in the Sixth district, will be elected by 2,000 plurality.

VERMONT.

Vermont. This will give Dinsmore a plurality of 4,000. W. H. Neal is the republican candidate in the Sixth district, will be elected by 2,000 plurality.

TEXAS.

Texas. This will give Dinsmore a plurality of 4,000. W. H. Neal is the republican candidate in the Sixth district, will be elected by 2,000 plurality.

UTAH.

Utah. This will give Dinsmore a plurality of 4,000. W. H. Neal is the republican candidate in the Sixth district, will be elected by 2,000 plurality.

VERMONT.

Vermont. This will give Dinsmore a plurality of 4,000. W. H. Neal is the republican candidate in the Sixth district, will be elected by 2,000 plurality.

WISCONSIN.

Wisconsin. This will give Dinsmore a plurality of 4,000. W. H. Neal is the republican candidate in the Sixth district, will be elected by 2,000 plurality.

WYOMING.

Wyoming. This will give Dinsmore a plurality of 4,000. W. H. Neal is the republican candidate in the Sixth district, will be elected by 2,000 plurality.

how they can overcome the plurality which the present representative, Walter Reeves, holds in the Sixth district, will be elected by 2,000 plurality.

The Twelfth district will return Joseph G. Cannon, the republican candidate, over the populist candidate, N. Stripling, by a plurality of 10,000.

The First district the contest is very close. The present congressman, Samuel M. Clark, has been renominated by the republicans, but it is not believed that he will poll a large vote this year as he did in 1894.

The Fifth district R. G. Coats, the republican candidate, will be re-elected by a plurality of 2,500. He is very popular and he will receive the support of the sound money democrats.

The Sixth district the republican candidate, John A. Hull, will be re-elected by a plurality of 2,500. He is very popular and he will receive the support of the sound money democrats.

The Seventh district the republican candidate, John A. Hull, will be re-elected by a plurality of 2,500. He is very popular and he will receive the support of the sound money democrats.

The Eighth district the republican candidate, John A. Hull, will be re-elected by a plurality of 2,500. He is very popular and he will receive the support of the sound money democrats.

The Ninth district the republican candidate, John A. Hull, will be re-elected by a plurality of 2,500. He is very popular and he will receive the support of the sound money democrats.

The Tenth district the republican candidate, John A. Hull, will be re-elected by a plurality of 2,500. He is very popular and he will receive the support of the sound money democrats.

The Eleventh district the republican candidate, John A. Hull, will be re-elected by a plurality of 2,500. He is very popular and he will receive the support of the sound money democrats.

The Twelfth district the republican candidate, John A. Hull, will be re-elected by a plurality of 2,500. He is very popular and he will receive the support of the sound money democrats.

The Thirteenth district the republican candidate, John A. Hull, will be re-elected by a plurality of 2,500. He is very popular and he will receive the support of the sound money democrats.

had a leaning that way himself and has voted for silver in congress, so he will not be elected by 2,000 plurality.

The Twelfth district will return Joseph G. Cannon, the republican candidate, over the populist candidate, N. Stripling, by a plurality of 10,000.

The First district the contest is very close. The present congressman, Samuel M. Clark, has been renominated by the republicans, but it is not believed that he will poll a large vote this year as he did in 1894.

The Fifth district R. G. Coats, the republican candidate, will be re-elected by a plurality of 2,500. He is very popular and he will receive the support of the sound money democrats.

The Sixth district the republican candidate, John A. Hull, will be re-elected by a plurality of 2,500. He is very popular and he will receive the support of the sound money democrats.

The Seventh district the republican candidate, John A. Hull, will be re-elected by a plurality of 2,500. He is very popular and he will receive the support of the sound money democrats.

The Eighth district the republican candidate, John A. Hull, will be re-elected by a plurality of 2,500. He is very popular and he will receive the support of the sound money democrats.

The Ninth district the republican candidate, John A. Hull, will be re-elected by a plurality of 2,500. He is very popular and he will receive the support of the sound money democrats.

The Tenth district the republican candidate, John A. Hull, will be re-elected by a plurality of 2,500. He is very popular and he will receive the support of the sound money democrats.

The Eleventh district the republican candidate, John A. Hull, will be re-elected by a plurality of 2,500. He is very popular and he will receive the support of the sound money democrats.

The Twelfth district the republican candidate, John A. Hull, will be re-elected by a plurality of 2,500. He is very popular and he will receive the support of the sound money democrats.

The Thirteenth district the republican candidate, John A. Hull, will be re-elected by a plurality of 2,500. He is very popular and he will receive the support of the sound money democrats.

element among the democrats in the eleven districts, will be elected by 2,000 plurality.

The Twelfth district will return Joseph G. Cannon, the republican candidate, over the populist candidate, N. Stripling, by a plurality of 10,000.

The First district the contest is very close. The present congressman, Samuel M. Clark, has been renominated by the republicans, but it is not believed that he will poll a large vote this year as he did in 1894.

The Fifth district R. G. Coats, the republican candidate, will be re-elected by a plurality of 2,500. He is very popular and he will receive the support of the sound money democrats.

The Sixth district the republican candidate, John A. Hull, will be re-elected by a plurality of 2,500. He is very popular and he will receive the support of the sound money democrats.

The Seventh district the republican candidate, John A. Hull, will be re-elected by a plurality of 2,500. He is very popular and he will receive the support of the sound money democrats.

The Eighth district the republican candidate, John A. Hull, will be re-elected by a plurality of 2,500. He is very popular and he will receive the support of the sound money democrats.

The Ninth district the republican candidate, John A. Hull, will be re-elected by a plurality of 2,500. He is very popular and he will receive the support of the sound money democrats.

The Tenth district the republican candidate, John A. Hull, will be re-elected by a plurality of 2,500. He is very popular and he will receive the support of the sound money democrats.

The Eleventh district the republican candidate, John A. Hull, will be re-elected by a plurality of 2,500. He is very popular and he will receive the support of the sound money democrats.

The Twelfth district the republican candidate, John A. Hull, will be re-elected by a plurality of 2,500. He is very popular and he will receive the support of the sound money democrats.

The Thirteenth district the republican candidate, John A. Hull, will be re-elected by a plurality of 2,500. He is very popular and he will receive the support of the sound money democrats.

the present representative in congress, was elected in 1894 by a republican plurality of 2,967.

The Twelfth district will return Joseph G. Cannon, the republican candidate, over the populist candidate, N. Stripling, by a plurality of 10,000.

The First district the contest is very close. The present congressman, Samuel M. Clark, has been renominated by the republicans, but it is not believed that he will poll a large vote this year as he did in 1894.

The Fifth district R. G. Coats, the republican candidate, will be re-elected by a plurality of 2,500. He is very popular and he will receive the support of the sound money democrats.

The Sixth district the republican candidate, John A. Hull, will be re-elected by a plurality of 2,500. He is very popular and he will receive the support of the sound money democrats.

The Seventh district the republican candidate, John A. Hull, will be re-elected by a plurality of 2,500. He is very popular and he will receive the support of the sound money democrats.

The Eighth district the republican candidate, John A. Hull, will be re-elected by a plurality of 2,500. He is very popular and he will receive the support of the sound money democrats.

The Ninth district the republican candidate, John A. Hull, will be re-elected by a plurality of 2,500. He is very popular and he will receive the support of the sound money democrats.

The Tenth district the republican candidate, John A. Hull, will be re-elected by a plurality of 2,500. He is very popular and he will receive the support of the sound money democrats.

The Eleventh district the republican candidate, John A. Hull, will be re-elected by a plurality of 2,500. He is very popular and he will receive the support of the sound money democrats.

The Twelfth district the republican candidate, John A. Hull, will be re-elected by a plurality of 2,500. He is very popular and he will receive the support of the sound money democrats.

The Thirteenth district the republican candidate, John A. Hull, will be re-elected by a plurality of 2,500. He is very popular and he will receive the support of the sound money democrats.