

CONCEDES BRYAN'S DEFEAT

Friend of the Popercate Candidate Sees No Hope.

CAMPAINING TO KEEP UP APPEARANCES

Matt Gering, a Nebraska Democrat Who Admits the Chicago Nominee, Predicts a Great Victory for McKinley.

"McKinley will win, and I don't see how Bryan can possibly be elected. I say this although I am a great admirer of William J. Bryan and have done all that I could to bring about his election."

Matt Gering, an attorney and democratic politician of Plattsmouth, expressed this opinion in the political situation yesterday morning. Mr. Gering has been a very ardent supporter of Bryan, not only because he is the presidential candidate's personal friend, but also because he believed that Bryan was the right man for the presidency.

"It is simply a question of votes, and I cannot in any way figure out enough to elect Bryan," continued Mr. Gering.

Mr. Gering is also of the opinion that Nebraska is a very doubtful state, although he is of the belief that Bryan will carry it. He has received a request to speak in behalf of the popercate candidate, but has not yet decided to do so.

Mr. Gering had also heard of the disgraceful treatment that had been accorded Secretary Carlisle in Lexington, Ky.

He took no stock in the denial of the reports of the affair by the free advertisers, because Carlisle himself stated that they were not exaggerated.

"It is not the democrats 5,000 votes," remarked Mr. Gering, "and will probably cost them the state."

AMUSEMENTS.

Lillian Russell will be seen here tonight at the Croughlin theater two nights engagement. In a novel production called "An American Beauty," Hugh Morison and Gustavo Kerker wrote the libretto and the music respectively.

"An American Beauty" is said to be breezy, foamy, abounding in simple catches and music and replete with comedy that is not buffoonery.

Patrons of Boyd's will receive with pleasure the announcement of the coming of "The Old Homestead" on Tuesday and Wednesday, November 3 and 4.

WILL REMAIN WITH THE UNION PACIFIC

Freight Traffic Manager of the Overland Has No Desire to Become One of the Four Freight Commissioners.

"So far as Mr. Munroe is concerned I can say that he will not accept the appointment of commissioner in the new western freight association," was the reply of General Manager Dickinson of the Union Pacific yesterday morning when asked if John A. Munroe, freight traffic manager of the system, would resign his position and accept the honor which has so recently been tendered him.

Mr. Dickinson added that when he left Chicago Sunday evening Mr. Munroe had not been notified of his appointment, but from a conversation he had had with him he knew what his answer would be when the notification committee called.

The demand for admission tickets to the Plattsmouth meeting at Boyd's theater this evening is enormous. No charge is being made for tickets, but the committee having the matter in hand decided to issue tickets for the lower part of the house to the same way as the seats in the lower part of the house and the balcony will be held for holders of tickets until 8 o'clock this evening, after which they will be thrown open to the crowd.

One of the most interesting meetings of the campaign will be held Tuesday evening at Boyd's opera house.

COUNTY COMMISSIONERS MEET.

Justice David Smith Favored of the Board of County Commissioners met yesterday morning for the purpose of trying David Smith, justice of the peace of Elkhorn, on the charge of malfeasance and drunkenness, preferred by Claus Clauson.

The witnesses summoned by Clauson testified more strongly in the interest of Smith than of Clauson, the testimony showing that Smith attended strictly to business, and was in the habit of drinking more than was good for him on his way home.

It was also shown that about a month ago Smith changed his politics from being a life-long democrat to a republican. A certain celebration of his emancipation. A certificate of character was presented, showing that Smith stood high in the community. This was signed by thirty of the representative citizens of Elkhorn.

When the testimony of the prosecution had all been presented, Kierstead moved to dismiss on the ground that the evidence in the case was insufficient to sustain the charge. The motion was seconded by the attorney for Smith, and followed with a warning to Smith that the action of the jury, which was not to be construed as a premium on drunkenness. He cautioned Smith that he must cease his convivial habits.

The principal feature of the occasion was an address by Brigadier Emma Brown of New York, who has been engaged in similar work for some time past.

Mr. Parker will also deliver a lecture on the subject of the rescue home. The Salvation Army has been establishing in the principal cities of the country. It has long been the aim of the Salvation Army to have the aid of the institutions here, especially since the closing of the Open Door, but the plan was not consummated until a few weeks ago.

The object of the home is to furnish a shelter for fallen women who are desirous of reforming their lives.

HELD AT THE BLUFFS AS A SUSPECT.

LaBlanche May Be Charged with the Bank Robbery.

Thomas LaBlanche, alias "Dutchy" Ruetz, is at present under arrest in Council Bluffs and will be turned over to the Nebraska authorities if his connection with the robbery of banks at Brainard and Shelby can be established.

The authorities at David City and Osceola have been working on the case, and have come to the conclusion that the bank robbers were Ruetz, John Saunders, alias Tom Black, and Charles McCoy.

The two banks were both entered about the same time. That at Brainard failed to reward the cracksmen, who succeeded in blowing part of the building away and thereby raised an alarm. They skipped without obtaining a cent. The Shelby robbery, however, netted them a small sum.

Could Not Prove the Charge. Three disorderly women were arrested Saturday for being in a wine room in a saloon on lower Farnam street, and were charged with being drunk and disorderly. Yesterday morning they were discharged, the state being unable to prove the charge.

The arrest was made on the strength of a complaint made by Mrs. Mary Jensen. The woman wrote that her husband was robbed in the place during fall week. She asserted that because her husband lost his money she had been compelled to remain in this city and had been unable to return to her home.

With a better understanding of the transient nature of the many physical ills, which vanish before proper efforts—gentle efforts—pleasant efforts—rightly directed. There is comfort in the knowledge that so many forms of sickness are not due to any actual disease, but simply to a constipated condition of the system, which the pleasant family laxative, Syrup of Figs, promptly removes.

It is the enjoyment of good health, and the system is regular, laxative, or other remedies are then not needed. If afflicted with any actual disease, one may be recommended to the most skillful physician, but if in need of a laxative, one should have the best, and with the well-informed everywhere, Syrup of Figs stands highest and is most largely used and gives most general satisfaction.

SPELLBINDERS

Men who have kept their eye on this "political campaign of education" may have noticed that every once in a while some noted character comes out from the great educational centers of the map and throws his eloquence over the situation to keep the excitement at fever heat and furnish the lesser educators with fresh backbone.

These are the king-pins—the big guns—the spellbinders of the parties—the fellows who are depended on to draw big crowds. This morning we open up some spellbinders ourselves, and unless we miss our guess they will prove to be the strongest arguments ever offered by either side as to the purchasing power of the poor man's dollar and the laws of supply and demand.

Spellbinder No. 1 is a heavy double-breasted black Cheviot suit from New York, which we will sell at $5.00, and spellbinder No. 2 is a single-breasted Cheviot suit from Massachusetts, which we will allow to orate at the rate of $6.50 a suit. These two suits will furnish some of the strongest arguments that have been produced this year in favor of the Nebraska, where you can always get the most possible clothing for the least possible cash.
