

"ANACONDA" MINE IN POLITICS

Forced Tribute from 5,000 Employers to Promote the Silver Trust.

MONTANA RAISES $300,000 FOR BRYAN

The Silver Kings and Their Stake in the Election—One Miner Opposed to the Free Coinage Policy.

William Shaw Bowen, staff correspondent of the New York World, supplements his disclosure of the contributions of the silver kings of Colorado to the Bryan campaign fund with like details of Montana's offering to the cause of free silver.

In Montana, as in Colorado, there is an insatiable desire on the part of the mine owners to secure free silver.

The Colorado and Montana booth fund is already in excess of $200,000.

Amid the vast ignorance and venality played upon by certain silver mine owners in Montana, it is refreshing to find a great mining authority who sees through the personal schemes of those pushing silver in politics.

I refer to Henry Knippenberg, a director and general manager of the Hecla Consolidated Mining Company of Glendale, Beaverhead county.

Henry Knippenberg is an intelligent, progressive and successful man of business.

"I have lived in Montana sixteen years. My every interest is in silver mining.

"The very fact that it is sought to double the value of a silver dollar by legislation is a confession that the gold dollar is worth 100 cents.

"I love honesty. I deny the legislative power to assert value. The great commercial world knows and recognizes and bows to one authority, supply and demand.

"The proposition of free, independent and unlimited money, that silver at the fixed rate of 16 to 1, in the commercial value is 12 to 1, is dishonest and must result in ruin.

"The whole question is based upon assumptions. I do not know of a single nation on earth that claims that we as a nation can make by our own action the commercial value of silver go to $1.29.

"The share of the sale belonging to Mrs. Hearst was by his direction to be invested in United States bonds as a secure investment.

"This little creature is simply a servent of a fed that has been taken up by ultra-fashionable people. It bids fair to become more popular than the clamshell because the terrapin is less repulsive to women and is not so delicate.

"At that moment the object of the fat man's alarm became apparent to the other occupants of the car.

EXPERIENCE A WISE TEACHER

Americans on the Border of Mexico Ehy on Free Silver.

TWO STANDARDS AT NOGALES, ARIZ.

Mexican and American Silver Circulating in a Border Town with a Street for a Dividing Line.

With only the width of a street between them and free silver the republicans of Nogales, Ariz., took adopted as their sentiment the following:

"We stand for the recoinization of silver, but we demand such a solution of the problem involved, that while it shall reopen the abandoned silver mines of Arizona, it shall not reduce the purchasing power of the dollars in which are paid the wages of American workmen, as we have seen reduced the purchasing power of the dollars in which are paid the wages of Mexican workmen in our very midst.

Nogales is the best place on the border to study some phases of the silver question, writes Walter B. Stevens, staff correspondent of the New York World.

The difference between the two standards is impressed forcibly by the peculiar conditions. A street called International runs a community between the two halves.

Along this street is a row of customs sentry boxes. The 2,000 people who live south of International street are on Mexican soil. Those who live north of the street are under the laws of the United States.

THE ONLY SOLUTION

Even among those interested in silver mining in this part of Mexico is astonishing.

George E. Hart is known from Mexico to the United States as a man who has been in the management of one of the largest groups of silver mines in Mexico.

He does not hesitate to say that international bimetalism is the only practical solution of the silver problem.

Mr. Fred S. James, who is president of the same company, is even more emphatic in his belief that the success of free and unlimited coinage of both metals.

Mr. James and Mr. Hart with most other silver miners in Mexico, having been through the experience of this country.

WOMEN VOTE FOR PRESIDENT

For the first time in the history of this country an opportunity for women to publicly express their choice for president is offered.

The method is unique and will result in showing on Nov. 4th just what effect the woman's vote will have on national affairs.

A manufacturer who has business relations with most of the prominent newspapers in the United States proposes the plan as follows:

All women over 18 are entitled to one vote. The votes by states will be shown on every Wednesday and Saturday until Nov. 4th.

Women are requested to read more than one side of the question and set upon their own judgment.

Write the name of candidate on a postal card and mail it to the address given.

On the lower left hand corner give the name of a banker or grocer who knows you.

This precaution is to prevent flooding the mail with fictitious votes.

Names unknown to grocer or banker will be thrown out. Be very careful to write clearly and acknowledge on the receipt of each vote will be sent to the fair voter.

Send the postal card to Central Food Cakes Co., Battle Creek, Mich. It is urged that every earnest woman will not hesitate to expend a penny to register her preference at this most interesting period of national history.

This company has a national reputation and is widely known.

Support the vote exactly as received, without fear or favor.

A sworn statement of the total vote polled up to 7 p. m. Nov. 4th will be published Nov. 7th and the vote and progress will be shown on every Wednesday and Saturday between now and then.

Next report November 4th.

UNCLE EPHRAIM'S SORROW.

It came on when he found a Bloomer Girl in His Family.

Uncle Ephraim was that the white heat of the struggle, relative to the silver question, stood at the corner of Broad and Marietta streets, and it was something more than impatience that led him to toss his hoary head peevishly and snort like a porcupine in a chippy sea.

It was not difficult to observe that there was something of more than ordinary import in Uncle Ephraim's mind, as he was inclined to disregard all questions put to him by several white friends who gathered about him.

When I was running the store, I had a notion to put up a sign that said 'No more silver' and the spirit of the old man sorely grieved.

"I ain't gwine to do it," he said, wagging his head from side to side. "I ain't gwine to do it," he said, wagging his head from side to side.
