

Expressions of Leading Nebraskans Show How the State Stands.

ALL AGREE THAT MCKINLEY IS SAFE HERE

How the Campaign of Education Among the Voters Has Been Conducted—Nothing Has Been Neglected.

CHICAGO, Oct. 30.—(Special.)—The National Republican league has received ample evidence from the Nebraska Republican league and the republican clubs in general throughout the state. These reports are satisfactory. They all speak of a hard fight, but express the fullest confidence in a decisive victory for McKinley and Hobart.

other document or speech that answers these personal questions on the money question.

The Nebraska Republican clubs and the State league are thus serving loyally the party cause in the pending campaign.

ENTHUSIASTIC GREETINGS

AND RAIN CANNOT KEEP THEM AWAY

Senator Thurston Entertains Many Voters with Comparisons Between Times When the Mills Were Open and Now.

AT HEART REPUBLICANS

Other communications showed that Nebraska was still at heart republican. George J. Kelly of Ord said in July: "Free silver is setting the Nebraska prairies on fire and something must be done to stop the mania."

for an hour, and then the two speakers changed parts and spoke another hour.

THE FINGERBOARD OF EXPERIENCE

The integrity of a nation no less essential than the integrity of the individual—Timely Warning.

RESTORING CONFIDENCE

It required all the wisdom of Somers and Locke, of Montague and Newton—a happy blending of statesmanship and philosophy—to extricate England from her financial maze.

beasts to market; the grocer weighed out his cornmeal; the draper measured out his broadcloth; the burn of buyers and sellers was as loud as ever in the towns; the harvest home was celebrated as joyously as ever in the hamlets; the cream overflowed the pails of Chesbire; the apple juice foamed in the presses of Herefordshire; the piles of crockery glowed in the furnaces of Trent and the great iron rollers rolled fast along the timber railways of the Tyne. But when the great instrument of exchange became thoroughly deranged all trade, all industry was smitten as with a pestilence. The evil was felt daily and almost hourly in almost every place and by almost every class in the dairy and on the threshold floor, by the anvil and by the falling of the billows of the ocean and in the depths of the mine. Nothing could be purchased without a dispute. Over every counter there was wrangling from morning till night. The workman and his employer had a quarrel as regularly as the Saturday came round. It may well be doubted whether all the misery which had been inflicted on the English nation in a quarter of a century of bad kings, bad ministers, bad Parliaments and bad judges, was equal to the misery caused by a single year by bad crows and bad shillings."
