London Market Authorities Give Their Expert Opinions of the Present Situation Concerning the Whole World.

LONDON, Oct. 31.—It is now generally conceded that wheat will rule at 35 shillings a quarter during the best part of the season, and if the Argentine crop is shipped it will go still higher.

Some business was done on the London corn market today. Prices were quoted a cent up from New York, but there were no offers.

PRICE WILL BE HIGHER. "As to the Russian situation I understand that there are large reserve stocks which the holders have kept off the market hitherto, hoping to get a better price."

Mr. Woods, the editor of Dornbach's Circular, said: "Stocks are below what they ought to be and what they have been for many seasons, and the large supplies now on the way to Europe will disappear almost as soon as they arrive, because of the reduced stock in the hands of millers and retailers."

Notable Event in the History of the Savoy Theatre in London. LONDON, Oct. 31.—The thousandth performance of the "Mikado" at the Savoy theatre took place tonight.

Among the passengers who will sail for New York today on the American line steamship St. Paul from Southampton, are Mr. and Mrs. John C. New, Miss Frances E. Willard, Lady Pauncefote, Mr. and Mrs. Julian Storey Brandon, Mrs. Henry Abbey and E. S. Willard and company.

Perpetuating Oligarchy. LONDON, Oct. 31.—Advices received here from Athens state that the Greek government will introduce a bill during the coming session of the Boule, or legislative assembly of Greece, providing for quadriennial Olympic games in the Stadion.

THEY TIRE OF WAITING ON HOME.

Jean de Reeske and His Countess Are Married by Deputy Mayor.

LONDON, Oct. 31.—(Special.)—Jean de Reeske sailed from Havre for New York today by the steamship Champane, his agent at Calais telegraphs to the World's London Bureau, but without his bride of two days.

There seems to have been no religious marriage—at least the public is ignorant of any—and the civil ceremony at the mairie of the Seventeenth arrondissement in Paris was of the most informal character.

WHAT ONE SEES WHILE WAITING. While awaiting the arrival of the great singer and his friends it was curious to note the different parties which had all come on the same errand.

MARRIED LIKE ORDINARY FOLKS. While Jean de Reeske and his bride were in the matrimonial bureau their friends remained in the vestibule. After they had rejoined them there was a spell of waiting for at that moment the marriage hall was packed.

There was nothing noteworthy in this particular ceremony, nor was any special address made to the married pair when it came to an end.

Standard Oil Controls Bay State Gas. BOSTON, Oct. 31.—A special to the Journal from Wilmington, Del., says: "Addicks people in the Bay State Gas company have all resigned and the Standard Oil company interests, headed by William Rockefeller, William Moore and H. H. Rogers, will control the future policy of the company."

INDIA AND IRELAND FACE A FAMINE

Drouth Causes Great Distress in the Northwestern Provinces and Oude and Heavy Rains Make Potatoes Scarce.

LONDON, Oct. 31.—Wheat and currency questions are still attracting general attention here. The Spectator this week publishes an interesting article on the rise in the price of wheat and its bearing upon protection and bimetalism.

From a financial point of view the rise in cereals shows a strong case for further large movements of gold to the United States. Whatever the result of the elections, shipments of gold from here are still probable.

INDIA'S DROUTH SERIOUS. Indian advices show that whether rain falls or not there must be keen distress in the northwest provinces and in Oude, and the Indian government must be prepared to succor the population by at least 10,000,000 of relief operations.

While famine is threatened in India through the drouth, the west of Ireland is declared to be face to face with famine, owing to heavy rains, which have caused the failure of the crops, especially potatoes.

James O'Connor, anti-Parnellite member of Parliament, who intends to ask Parliament to order an inquiry into the Tynan affair, bases his demand on the past history of a mysterious Mrs. Tyler, who, he asserts, acted as a medium between Tynan and the British police.

ENGLISHMEN LOSE THEIR NERVE.

Correspondents of London Papers Cautious in Their Views on Bryan's Election.

LONDON, Oct. 31.—(New York World Cablegram—Special Telegram.)—With surprising unanimity, nearly every American correspondent of the London newspapers, including Mr. Smalley in the Times, strikes a note of some alarm in mentioning the possibility of Bryan's election.

I doubt whether a perfectly clear and unequivocal answer to that question can be given, or whether, if it assumed that of the important body of republican voters who are in doubt, the best that can be said, and also the worst, is that the situation is in doubt.

ALL FEEL WORRIED. The tenor of the cables from other correspondents may be judged from these brief extracts: "During the past few days several bank presidents have been approached by persons intimate and friendly with Mr. Bryan."

The Morning Cable says: "Nothing has been more remarkable in the course of this most remarkable presidential campaign than the change which in the last few days has marked the course of public feeling."

DICK CROKER OUT OF IT. Richard Croker is still in England, unless he sailed today. He was seen at Newmarket this week, but seems to have no regular abiding place, having given up his home in London.

Countess Cowley's Divorce Suit—Stories About the Boodles Club—American Singer's Contract Cancelled in Madrid.

LONDON, Oct. 31.—Now that the fetes in honor of the marriage of the crown prince of Italy to the Princess Helene of Montenegro are over, the extraordinary behavior of the Roman clergy connected with the ceremony is widely circulated.

It is added that the astonishment of the king and queen of Italy and the anger of the court was increased tenfold when the usual prayer for the royal house was omitted, and it is said that a long time will elapse before the commotion caused by so public an insult in the presence of foreigners subsides.

On December 1 the prince of Wales will be nominated for election as grand master of English Marksmen Masons. This will be the twelfth successive nomination with which he has been honored.

CABBIES ON STRIKE. London is greatly inconvenienced by the cab strike. The drivers have started a system of boycotting the railroad stations, which has produced scenes of confusion and exasperation at the different depots.

Sir John Millan, late president of the Royal Academy, who died August 18, left a fortune of $250,000, entailed to the holder of the baronetcy.

ALL EMPLOYEES MAY VOTE AS THEY PLEASE

Scathing Rebuke to the Bryan Hustlers Who Report that Railroad Men Are Forced into McKinley Banks.

Of all the political rookeries that have been sprung in Omaha at the eleventh hour for the purpose of influencing votes, none have been so base as that which is being circulated regarding the coercion of employees by the management of the Union Pacific system.

The telegram to Judge Kelly from Walter H. Sanborn, circuit judge of the federal court at St. Paul, reads as follows: "ST. PAUL, Minn., Oct. 29.—G. M. Hitchcock, publisher World-Herald, writes me that the Union Pacific management is preparing to furnish material for a McKinley parade; that new material, especially for use in this parade, has been ordered at the expense of the Union Pacific; that evidence is ample that the Union Pacific management has turned into a McKinley campaign committee; and that the property of the road is to be used for partisan political purposes."

Mr. Carroll's telegram in reply follows: "OMAHA, Oct. 31.—Your telegram to McKinley reaches me in his absence; he is now en route home. After careful investigation I find the management is not preparing to furnish material for any McKinley parade, or that new material has been ordered at expense of the Union Pacific for that purpose."
