

CLOSE OF A HOT CAMPAIGN

Reports from All Pivotal States Giving Actual Prospects.

MARK HANNA FIGURES BRYAN AS CRUSHED

Democrats, However, Claim a Safe Majority of the Electoral Votes, but Admit Their Figures Have No Support.

CHICAGO, Oct. 31.—The campaign in the middle western states for the most part came to an end tonight in Chicago and Cook county, where the heat of the fight has been, the rounding up for the candidates was finished this evening, and the last speeches were made. But parties claim to be sure of the result and express confidence that the count on Tuesday night will show a large majority for their men. The only change that has been made in the estimates of either party is the most important assertion of Chairman Jones that Illinois is a doubtful state. He has always claimed it heretofore as certain for Bryan. Chairman Jones says that Mr. Bryan has at least 152 votes in the electoral college, and that nothing can take them away from him. Chairman Hanna is far more sweeping in his estimates of Major McKinley's prospects, and says that the Ohio man will have not less than 311 votes and others may come later. Both chairmen issued today their last appeals to the people, and urged a victory for their party. Jones won, and all that remains to clinch the matter is the counting of the votes.

In the matter of congressmen and members of the state legislatures, the parties are officers on the tickets. The claims are of the same nature. The campaign in the middle west, and particularly in the upper Mississippi valley, has been of the most determined character on both sides. It has been the center of the fighting ground, and the contest has spared an effort to win. Statements have been issued tonight by the chairmen of the three parties as to the actual situation at the close of the campaign.

FROM MARK HANNA.

Chairman Mark Hanna of the republican national committee gave out the following: "The earnest support which the loyal citizens of the nation have given to the former political affiliations, have rendered the republican party in the cause of sound money in the campaign about to end justified in the eyes of the people. The principles enunciated by the Chicago platform, which proposes not only a debasement of the currency but the destruction of the highest judicial authority of the land, have justified good citizens, irrespective of past party preferences, in uniting to rebuke those who would thus endanger the very foundations of our national organization."

"The developments of the closing week of the campaign leave no doubt that the judgment of an overwhelming majority of the people of the nation is in favor of the reform and candidate of reputation and national honor. It now remains for the voters to register at the polls their answer to the call to elect a president, preferably a man of the highest character, and of the highest ability for the benefit of a few who are willing to destroy national honor and endanger national credit for their personal ambition and individual gain. Good citizens in every section and of every party have in public expressed themselves upon this subject. Their duty now is to do so in such a manner as will forever prevent a further attempt in this line. There is but one way of doing this, and that is at the polls. We each man has his special duty in the primary work of the campaign, the duty of election day is common to all. No man, however much he has done in influencing others, can neglect his own duty at the polls. It is to be remembered however humble or devoted to employment or business, should fall to exercise his privilege and duty. It is not merely a privilege, but a duty. It is the duty of every good citizen to express his will at the polls on all occasions, and to do so in a manner of the most important nature. Sound arguments and expressions of loyalty count for nothing unless those who offer them are convinced of their own sincerity and of the value of participating in the actual direction of the government by voting on election day."

ALL JOIN HANDS AT THE POLLS.

"It is hoped, therefore, that all good citizens will join hands on Tuesday in maintaining the national honor and the principles of the party. The issue is between two men and two platforms, the one representing national honor, government, sound money and sound principles; the other standing for doctrines dangerous to the peace and prosperity of the nation and promising only a system which must debase the currency, debase the moral character of the nation, and as has been recently said by Major McKinley himself, a time when the voice of the partisan is hushed in the chorus of patriotism which sounds from the lips of the country to the other. Let every loyal citizen take this thought to the polls with him on election day and the country will be saved by the same loyal devotion which obliterated party lines in defense of the nation on an occasion of equal but not greater peril."

"I am confident that the strength of McKinley and Hobart in the electoral college, as a result of next Tuesday's election, will not be less than 311 votes. This estimate is made upon figures just received from chairmen of state committees, the result of final talks taken in such a careful manner as to give them the most reliable results. These polls indicate that the vote by states will be as follows:

Table with 2 columns: State and Votes. Painful diseases are bad enough, but when a man is sick with the most serious of them, and the most mental tortures are ten times more than the most physical suffering of day or night. I have known many a man who has been cured of the most obstinate and under such a strain men are scarcely relieved by the most powerful of the writer's pills, and tossed in the bed for days. It's about over the election—when it is you'll get in all your votes—if you're on the right side—then you'll have time to think of furnishing goods and the like—you know your headquarters for goods—furnishing goods—carry the largest—best selected—lowest priced—selections to be found anywhere in Omaha—only prices are not high—as some are inclined to believe.

When you get what you want—and it's as represented—you tell your neighbors—that's why our trade is always getting larger—we make a price on carpets that is away down when you consider the quality—and the guarantee we can give you—and will back up our business has been built up on our reputation of doing just as we say we will—precisely what we set an assortment here that has no equal.

The range that we offer you cannot help being just what you want—never have any complaints about the Acorn Steel Range—it's the handsomest range made—takes less fuel and bakes better than any other—it's not high priced—about the same as you would pay for something not near as good—when you get an Acorn Steel Range you've got something that will last.

There's so much to see in these political times—it tries one's eyes—especially if they are defective—the defects should be attended to without delay—you can't do it yourself—but our expert eye man can do it for you—he makes a business of rectifying eyesight in a way that is pleasing and satisfactory—glasses scientifically fitted—that's what you want.

The parade Monday night may make more noise—but when it comes to a sweet-scented tone—you've got to have a Kimball—they are the finest finished—best made—delicate toned piano on earth—we've sold so many of them that we know we can guarantee the Kimball to be just as we represent it—it's not a high priced instrument—and the terms we sell it on makes it easy to buy.

Don't think because we offer you a shoe at $100 that is poor value—we could get $100 for those men's shoes—with pointed or pointed heavy soles—suits with the winter fall—blood—pointed—thin—black—sole—they're the largest value ever given—we are giving our trade values they never had before in this shoe—only $100—they're the ideal winter shoe—a $100 shoe for $100.

JONES BRIDE DOUBT.

Chairman James K. Jones has given out the following statement as to the general result: "The great struggle to right the wrong of 1872 has been won. The only work remaining to be done is to see that the people have the opportunity to vote as consciences dictate and that their votes shall be counted as cast. I urge all lovers of the country and our institutions to exert themselves as they never have before in this holy cause. Watch the polling places, scrutinize every ballot, and attempt to bribe any voter to vote or to refrain from voting. Also a reward of $500 for evidence to convict any one of coercing, intimidating or attempting to bribe any voter."

"I have received from our chairman of each state committee full estimates of the standing of voters in each state and am confident that Mr. Bryan's election is assured by a very large majority. He will receive each of the following states: Alabama 4 Arkansas 4 Colorado 4 Florida 4 Georgia 4 Idaho 2 Illinois 12 Indiana 4 Iowa 4 Kansas 12 Kentucky 2 Louisiana 2 Maryland 2 Michigan 2 Minnesota 2 Missouri 17 Nebraska 2 Nevada 2 North Carolina 2 North Dakota 2 Ohio 4 Oregon 2 Pennsylvania 2 Rhode Island 2 South Carolina 2 South Dakota 2 Tennessee 2 Texas 13 Vermont 2 Virginia 2 Washington 4 West Virginia 2 Wisconsin 2 Wyoming 3 Total 111

There are other states I regard as doubtful.

JAMES K. JONES.

BUTLER ALSO CONFIDENT.

Chairman Butler of the populists has also made a statement which has been telegraphed to the Associated Press from Washington. He says: "I am confident that Mr. Bryan is an absolute certainty. Bryan now has absolutely certain 258 electoral votes, and his popular majority will be larger than the electoral majority. He has secured the support of the vast majority of the people in every section of the country. The arrangements are perfected and the lining up of voters, both populists and democrats, is being done in a most efficient manner. The issue is between two men and two platforms, the one representing national honor, government, sound money and sound principles; the other standing for doctrines dangerous to the peace and prosperity of the nation and promising only a system which must debase the currency, debase the moral character of the nation, and as has been recently said by Major McKinley himself, a time when the voice of the partisan is hushed in the chorus of patriotism which sounds from the lips of the country to the other. ONLY A QUESTION OF MAJORITY.

NEW YORK, Oct. 31.—With the setting of the sun today the campaign in the most remarkable campaign ever conducted in New York state was brought to a close. Chairman Martin of the republican state committee says in a final review of the campaign: "The majority for the republican ticket in this state will reach at least 250,000 in New York state, and we will get 40,000 majority in the country districts to overcome that. Bryan does not have to get Illinois, and he could not get it. He has to get Michigan, Indiana or Michigan, or Minnesota (which are certain), and be elected. The republicans will come nearer to getting Wyoming than any state west of Iowa, his way clear. It would be a slander on him to say he would consequently keep Bryan from getting votes, and that is what he has done. He has carried the republican vote that will be given to Bryan will be much larger than McKinley's gold standard democratic vote. The 200,000 majority for the republican ticket is a republican success to David B. Hill, the senate of the United States. Chairman Charles W. Hackett of the republican state committee says in a final review of the campaign: "The majority for the republican ticket in this state will reach at least 250,000 in New York state, and we will get 40,000 majority in the country districts to overcome that.
