HISTORIC PARALLEL.

The Present Situation Likened to that of Eighteen Years Ago. New York Independent.

There is much in the present situation to remind one of the years 1678 and 1880. After years of business depression we agreed, in 1879, to pay gold on demand. Confidence was the immediate result, and Dusiness incremed. We are now about to confirm the continuates and certainty of the same, redemptions of our currency in gold on domand, and the same increase in com- That mercial activity may be expected. There is a parallel also in grain. In 1879 we were blessed with a good grap of wheat of the which was sold it good primes, owing to a meanalty in the world's supply. Likewise this year we are experiencing a similar advance in wheat, in advance delayed in the United Strice by the Chicago platform which limited the power of borrowing and, therefore choosed the rise until foreign purchasers palled the price up by main force; so that formers lost part of the ad-vance which might have carried up prices a month or more earlier. Neverthesess at benst 250,000,000 of bushels, held back by producers, have been lately sold at an edvance of from 10 to 20 cents over last summen's prines-an increase in farmers' profile of, say, 200,000 000 from whent minne; and wheat has advanced the prices of corn and other grains alone. Now let everybody within reach of these words give the hall a further push by voting for McHinley or Palmer, and we shall in all probability see a revival of business for the part decade greater than anything in our industrial bistory. Stocks of mer-chandine in merchant's hands are low. while the sinckness in our imports of lururies confirm the report of seperal economy to the part of our people. It meeds but a return of confidence to set the which of menufacturing and trade going at great speed. Meanwhile, the agricul-tural position is such that we are remon-ably with of good prices for farm products for a couple of years to come. If we elect Mr. McKinley by a large mailed in we need oritain of a revival from the business de-pression. If we elect Mr. Bryan, with his revolutionary policy, we are certain to have a pathic and a continuances of hard times for mebody knows how iong.
