

ALL BUT THE VOTE AND COUNT

Both Sides Still Proclaiming There is No Question of Their Victory.

STATEMENTS BY MARK HANNA AND JONES

Republican Chairman Confidently Anticipating Three Hundred and Eleven Votes in the Electoral College for McKinley.

CHICAGO, Nov. 2.—On the night before the battle, serene and unbounded confidence reigned in the headquarters' camp of the democratic party, and in that of their republican rivals as well.

At both headquarters there was today a general exodus for home and voting booths. Chairman Hanna left for Cleveland tonight, and after casting his vote, he will go to Canton for a visit to Major McKinley.

Following final forecasts were made by Chairman Hanna and Jones tonight: REPUBLICAN NATIONAL HEADQUARTERS, CHICAGO, Nov. 2.—The republican campaign is in the hands of McKinley and Hanna.

DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL HEADQUARTERS, CHICAGO, Nov. 2.—The republican presidential election, the west and the south are independent, the east is dominated by the money influence of New York.

WILL BE A LANDSLIDE IN ILLINOIS.

Republicans Will Take Everything in Sight by Big Majorities.

CHICAGO, Nov. 2.—On the eve of election the republican party in Illinois has been practically won the same condition as when the situation was outlined forty-eight hours earlier.

ALLEN MAXWELL, the candidate for state auditor on the democratic silver ticket, sent word to Chairman Jones today that he had discovered "a plan of the republicans to steal the election in Lawrence county."

BY A QUARTER OF A MILLION VOTES.

Pennsylvania Will Give an Emphatic Verdict for Sound Money.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 2.—Pennsylvania tomorrow will elect thirty-two presidential electors, two congressmen-at-large and congressmen in twenty-eight districts of the state.

WEST VIRGINIA IS FOR MCKINLEY.

WHEELING, W. Va., Nov. 2.—The republican ticket in West Virginia has been elected, the ticket outside of the national candidates, including state senators in eight districts and a full house of assembly.

Sixty Thousand Apart in New York.

NEW YORK, Nov. 2.—The chairman of the democratic and republican campaign committees of New York county are 60,000 apart in their estimates today of the result of the election here tomorrow.
