DEMOCRATS ALLEGE GREAT FRAUD.

Talk of Throwing Out the Vote in Some of the Wards of St. Louis.

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 3.—The Post-Dispatch in a late issue says: As we go to press Governor Stone is closeted at the Planters' house with Chairman Cooke and Mr. Salmon and Judges Harvey and Edmunds. Chairman Cooke has been out at a number of precincts with Judge Harvey and Chief of Detectives Desmond. Mr. Cooke admits that a sensational discovery has been made and that an explosion is imminent. The rumor in the hotel lobby is that the election commissioners will be immediately suspended by Governor Stone.

A representative of the Associated press called at the democratic headquarters and learned that the conference as stated was being held. Neither Governor Stone nor Chairman Cooke would be seen. It was said by an attache of the headquarters that flagrant corruption had been discovered in four or five wards, which would probably result in throwing out the entire vote in those wards. Intense excitement prevails about the hotel. With the closing of the polls the saloons opened and thousands of enthusiasts are fast becoming drunk.

Governor Stone was seen after the conference in the democratic state headquarters. He denied that he had suspended the election commissioners for St. Louis, but refused to say whether he intended to do so. He would not say how much evidence he had that fraud had been perpetrated.

John Kiely, a democrat, was shot and mortally wounded just before 2 o'clock in an election row at Tenth street and Cass avenue by John Eagan, a republican ward worker.

NORTH CAROLINA IS DEMOCRATIC.

Populists Rally to the Support of Bryan and Re Carries the State.

RALEIGH, N. C., Nov. 3.—The election passed off very quietly. Bryan, so far as heard from, was supported by both the democrats and populists, and has carried the electoral vote of the state by a majority variously estimated at between 10,000 and 20,000. Holton, the republican chairman, however, claims the state for McKinley by between 8,000 and 10,000.

Reports are too meager to state the result for congress. The populists have carried the First, Third, Fourth, Sixth and Seventh districts. The republicans have carried the Second district certain, electing White (colored) over Woodard. Pearson, republican, in the Ninth, is probably elected. The only two doubtful districts are the Eighth and Fifth, where the contest is between Liney, republican, and Doughton, democrat, in the Eighth, and Settle, republican, and Kitchen, democrat, in the Fifth.

The republicans will have more members of the legislature than either of the other two parties, but not enough to organize either house of the general assembly.

Prospects in Tennessee.

MEMPHIS, Nov. 3.—Partial returns from Eighth congressional district indicate election of Sims. Pierce, democrat, Ninth district, probably elected. Vote very close in both; may take official count to decide.

NASHVILLE, Nov. 3.—Congressional Sixth district: Indications point to the election of Gaines, silver democrat, for congress, over Richards, national democrat.

Republicans from Texas.

GALVESTON, Tex., Nov. 3.—For congress, R. B. Hawley, rep., in the Tenth, is reasonably sure of election. In the Twelfth, G. H. Noonan, rep., and J. L. Slayden, dem., are running close. Republicans claim the election of H. Gross in the Eleventh and populists claim the election of B. Gibbs in the Sixth.

GOOD WEATHER FOR VOTING.

Reports from All Parts of the Country Are Favorable.

CHICAGO, Nov. 3.—12 m.—Reports from all sections of the country indicate weather conditions generally favorable for voting. Only in the southern Atlantic states and in North Dakota, northern Minnesota, Wisconsin and one or two other western states has rain or snow fallen, with light showers in eastern Nebraska. Elsewhere the day has been an ideal one and an immense vote is being steadily polled. Throughout New England, New York, New Jersey, Delaware, Pennsylvania and Ohio clear skies and beautiful autumn weather is the rule, and Illinois and Iowa are enjoying a cool and bracing atmosphere. In Arkansas, threatened rain failed to materialize, and the sun is shining. Texas is polling a heavy vote in damp and disagreeable weather. South Dakota reports clear weather, but rough and muddy roads from yesterday's storm. Parts of Indiana and Kentucky show some prospect of rain, but climatic conditions for the most part are all that can be desired for election day. In Missouri the sun is shining and the air is clear and keen. Snow fell at Salt Lake City in the early morning, but there were indications of clearing at noon. Fine weather and unclouded skies prevail throughout the Pacific coast states and in Colorado.

HANNA IS SERENELY CONFIDENT.

Says the Shining Sun Indicates a Clean Sweep for McKinley.

CLEVELAND, Nov. 3.—National Republican Chairman M. A. Hanna arrived in the city from Chicago this morning. To a reporter Mr. Hanna said: "There is hardly anything I can say additional to what I have given out during the past few days and I have seen nothing in the past twenty-four hours that would influence me to alter
