THE OMAHA DAILY BEE.

E. ROSEWATER, Editor. PUBLISHED EVERY MORNING. TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION. Daily Dec (Without Sunday), One Year .... $ 5 Ct Daily Dec and Sunday, One Year ..... 10 00 OFFICER:

Omaha: The Lies Guldens. South Graha: Singer Bik., Cor. N and 24th Six.

COMBUSEONDENCE.

All communications relating to news and ell-BURINGS LETTERS.

STATEMENT OF CHICULATION.

Less disturtions for muscld and returned

Total net witer

Now for the man who fold you so.

Sworn to before me and subscribed in my presence this list day of October, 1896 N. P. FEIL.

disonor a TZSCHUCK.

chance now.

foresight.

Nobody can say when Nebraska will candidates again.

an election every week.

and hide himself until next election.

tion dictates.

warm reading for some folks.

political forecaster can now lay aside his mathematical utensils and devote the next month or two to constructing a cabinet and list of foreign representatives for the next president.

Cuba was in all national platforms, but it was crowded out as an issue. It will now have an opportunity to occupy the public mind once more and demand attention of the national government.

The collision of two pugilists in San Francisco, in which the two warriors. nearly came to blows, should effectually refute the charge that fists have gone out of fashion as the chief offensive weapons of these artists.

announced as his closing speech of the the character and functions of money, campaign, but when he got to Lincoln what gives it value, its influence upon he could not resist the temptation of delivering a second closing speech to distinction between monometallic British government was about to double the make sure that his campaign was and bimetallic systems of curclosed.

For sale cheap—a number of first-class second-hand campaign speeches. These speeches have been used only 'steen times and are guaranteed good for as many times more. Apply at the oratorical bureaus of the national campaign committees.

A presidential campaign is a wonderful piece of political mechanism and one that is unparalleled in any other country. If you don't think so, just run over a file of your newspaper for the period since the great nominating conventions and convince yourself.

Creditors of a number of insolvent national banks have recently been made happy by the declaration of dividends by the comptroller of the currency. But the long-expected dividend for the late Capital National bank of Lincoln is still like the letter which never came.

nual reports covering their business and silver standard uniformly expels gold. finances with the commission. A man- A number of fallacies and false as-

A GREAT REPUBLICAN VICTORY. William McKipley is president-elect than forty majority in the electoral college and his plurality of the popular vote is unprecedented.

The next house of representatives will be republican by a large majority, nor 250 so great, perhaps, as in the present 1 20 house, but sufficient to assure the country that the sound money policy of the party will be fulthfully adhered to.

The forces of repudiation and national The forces of repudiation and national for further popular enlightenment on or woman will fine in 167 F Street, N. W.

The forces of repudiation and national for further popular enlightenment on or woman will the money question, while at the same Lee, Chicago, The American people have administered a death blow to the party of sectionalism and class hostility. The voice of the country is overwhelmingly against the country is overwhelmingly against the country is overwhelmingly against any debasement of the currency and remains to the order of the company. That here published company. pledged public faith. The "solid south" has been broken. The intelligence, the lategrity and the patriotism of the large majority of the people have been vindi- received its death blow from the boun-sound finance, for public and private offers in the Cincinnati Enquirer an ex- caron of free trade. 20.534 Most people's hindsight always turns lands suggests that when the normal greatly stimulated production and the out to be considerably better than their wheat crop of India is restored the old producers of those countries, particucompetition will be renewed.

be complimented with two presidential tition has never been great and is not tition. It is seen that the effect has been likely to be so in the future. India's to nearly destroy the sugar industry of wheat exports began to dwindle several Guiana. The question that naturally their faith is justified with each returning The telegraph companies are among years ago and have reached a point suggests itself is, how long can the the concerns that would not object to where even without the drawback of a sugar industry of the United States, crop failure, they ceased to be of any without more protection than it now Hoods of Paris; On the Irrawaddy, a Tale importance. In 1891 India supplied has, survive the European competition, of the War between Eugland and Burmah; The returns from Mexico, China, Great Britain with 13,000,000 hundred which grows stronger from year to of the Exploits of Lord Cochrane in South Japan and the other silver standard weights of wheat, in 1892 with 12,500, year? It is a matter of no small im- American Waters. The hero of the first portance and Nebraska has a very constory is an English lad, who serves as page 000, in 1893 with 6,200,000 and in 1894 portance and Nebraska has a very conwith 5,300,000. In 1895 the quantity rose siderable interest in it. The man who carries bundreds of to 8,800,000 laundred weights, but for the votes in his vest pocket will now go first nine months of this year it was but 1,936,000 bundred weights, and of course none is now being No one can deprive President Cleve- exported. Since the total imports he is taught a valuable lesson. land of the privilege of composing one into Great Britain of wheat and wheat more Thanksgiving proclamation, and flour are from 90,000,000 to 100,000,000 composing it just as his own inclina- hundred weights a year, it will be seen that if India could produce the cereal to a thief is difficult to determine until the the extent and with the profit which it status in society of the culprit is known. We suppose Tom Watson will now be has been asserted she can, it is not permitted to give his letter of accept- the want of a market which has preance to the public. As an afterglow vented her doing it. It was not the Inof the campaign it ought to make pretty dian competition that reduced the price now nearly four weeks old. The only of American wheat in the British mar- her lungs. ket, but the competition of Argentina and Russia and this year neither of those countries have a large surplus for export. But the competition of India and the newspapers are saying many comhas been continually made to serve the purpose of deluding the American work to give others good pulls.

farmer. Mr. Newlands also offers an explanation of the decline in silver, but this is of no consequence. The obvious and law of supply and demand, as in the ease of the advance in the price of wheat.

WHAT HAS BEEN LEARNED.

the American people the wisest to money and its relations. In F of the people know so much as of admission is $100! Bryan's last speech in Omaha was the masses in the United States about prices, the meaning of standards, the rency and the question of make clear, at the outset of the campaign, to a majority of the people, but now very generally understood. Even the children of the public schools have manifested an intense interest in the paramount issue and not a few of them are now better qualified to discuss the her by spelling his name Jym. currency than their fathers were three months ago. Of course there has been much said on one side of the controwrong impressions were created which will continue for a time, or until removed by actual experience, but in the moved by actual experience, but in the state house. main the instruction has been sound and its value could not very well be overestlmated.

One fact distinctly brought out is that labor finds its best reward in gold standard countries. In all such countries wages are higher than in silver himself and Lord Kelvin, by which the deaf standard countries and their purchasing Power is relatively greater. Neces sarily the social condition of the work. No matter which party has central of the legislature, the question of revising the Omaha charter is bound to chain a share of its attention. There are only two months intervening before the legislative session and the laxpower is relatively greater. Neces-damus will merely force the recalcitrant sumptions have been exploded. He officials to come to time, but it will would challenge a doubt as to his sannot punish them for defying the law, ity who should now assert that there Having violated other provisions of the has ever been any necessary connection interstate law with impunity, no won- or relation between the price of silver

Another demolished fallacy is that the quantity of money regulates prices, re of the United States. He has not less | gardless of its quality, or of the opera-upon products. Prices are seen to nd> nary contraction of the currency. time serving as an impregnable but wark against any attempt hereafter to defude the people on this question.

> > THE SUGAR INDUSTRY.

storing confidence, removing depression and starting the nation upon a new era of progress and prosperity.

WHEAT ADVANCED.

Representative Newlands of Nevada

Representative Newlands of Nevada

Representative Newlands of Nevada

Representative Newlands of Nevada

Representative Newlands of Nevada

Representative Newlands of Nevada

Representative Newlands of Nevada

Representative Newlands of Nevada

Representative Newlands of Nevada

Representative Newlands of Nevada

Representative Newlands of Nevada

Representative Newlands of Nevada

Representative Newlands of Nevada

Representative Newlands of Nevada

Representative Newlands of Nevada

Representative Newlands of Nevada

Representative Newlands of Nevada

Representative Newlands of Nevada

Representative Newlands of Nevada

Representative Newlands of Nevada

Representative Newlands of Nevada

Representative Newlands of Nevada

Representative Newlands of Nevada

Representative Newlands of Nevada

Representative Newlands of Nevada

Representative Newlands of Nevada

Representative Newlands of Nevada

Representative Newlands of Nevada

Representative Newlands of Nevada

Representative Newlands of Nevada

Representative Newlands of Nevada

Representative Newlands of Nevada

Representative Newlands of Nevada

Representative Newlands of Nevada

Representative Newlands of Nevada

Representative Newlands of Nevada

Representative Newlands of Nevada

Representative Newlands of Nevada

Representative Newlands of Nevada

Representative Newlands of Nevada

Representative Newlands of Nevada

Representative Newlands of Nevada

Representative Newlands of Nevada

Representative Newlands of Nevada

Representative Newlands of Nevada

Representative Newlands of Nevada

Representative Newlan

planation of why wheat advanced. It thus appears that the question of Liverpool markets of the wheat pro- surmise as to what England may do to duction of silver countries, notably prevent the destruction of that induslarly of Germany, are enabled to export Now, as a matter of fact this compe- beet sugar at prices that defy compe-

Some Good in Either Case.

If a man bets money on the election, and wins, he is ahead of the deal, and if he loses

It Depends. The difference between a kleptomaniae and

A Girl Orator. Sandow is the happy father of a daughter, strength she has manifested so far is in Reciprocity.

The inventor of the corncob pipe is dead plimentary things about him. Turn turn about is fair play; he made it his life

Deferred Satisfaction.

It's really too bad that Spain isn't tevng to conquer Turkey instead of Cubasimple explanation is to be found in the Turkey needs to be conquered and Spain has been trying long enough to have the satisfaction of conquering something.

The Price of Admission.

Bonds in the sum of $26,000 having been The campaign of education has made given that the 200 Armenians detained at head, the latest issue in the charming little "lyory Series" of the Scribners', deals G. P. Putnam's Sons, New York Series of the Scribners', deals G. P. Putnam's Scribn not become charges upon public charity, the people in the world in regard fugitives from Turkish tyranny have been no other country do the masses fugees will please take notice that the price

A Prompt Denial.

Nobody, probably, in this country was disturbed by the unfounded report that the strength of its ficet in American waters. in denying the report is evidence of friendly feeling, which is appreciated here.

PERSONAL AND OTHERWISE.

A Topeka girl who spells her name Kath Lightning atruck a foot ball team as it recently, killing one man and badly injuring Iwo others.

An Indiana man who was supposed to be dead sat up in his coffin last Saturday, and induced the mourners to defer funeral at least until he had cast his ballot, If that isn't patriotism, what is: Prof. McKenrick of Glasgow university showed at the last meeting of the British might be enabled to enjoy the rhythm of are less than a score of dead birds about the base of the shaft. Strange to say, few English sparrows lose their lives by flying against the monument. Munkacsy left Paris for his basic, a relast spring, with glowing plans for a repewed career as the greatest man in Hunches Buda, Peath was eager to do its share "Vawder's Understudy," by James Knapp "Vawder's Understudy," by James "Vawder's Understudy," by Jam in realizing this vision, but at the start there was a hitch. Munkacsy's health gave was a hitch. Munsacsy's magary. He never leave his hand until he is sufficiently was soon as he entered Hungary. He was forced to go to Baden Baden for the was forced to go to Baden Baden for the writing a novel intending to show how writing a novel intending to show how writing a novel intending to show how writing a novel intending to show how

Carrent Literature

"Lee's Home and Business Instructor" vance, increasing by many millions the is a handsome little volume in which penvalue of commodities, without a cor- manship bookkeeping, fetter writing, bankresponding increase in the currency; ing. iaw, social forms, etc., etc., are taught, indeed coincident with an extraordible per and picture, with a directness and Silvard Carry; The Late Bond Syndicate accuracy found only in works carefully Contract, by A. D. Noyes; The Gold Replanned from the start and conscientionsly Such are some of the teachings of the campaign of education that have been deadly in the start and considerable to the campaign of education that have been deadly in the start and considerable to the start and consid deeply impressed upon the public mind compact and more up-to-date than the and which make a strong foundation latter, and is just what the average man

"From Whose Bourne," by Robert Barr, though first published in 1888, is now rethough first published in 1888, is now reissued in more inviting style. At the outset of the story a man unexpectedly dies, and his disembodied spirit proceeds to take sen interest in the fact that his wife has been arrested on a charge of mirdering him
been arrested on a charge of mirdering him

been arrested on a charge of mirdering him

children. Of these stories some are hisbeen arrested on a charge of mirdering him

children. Of these stories some are hisbeen arrested on a charge of mirdering him children. Of these stories some are his-A London correspondent says that the by poison. Detectives celestial and terressound finance, for public and private honesty and for a government of law and order. We confidently believe that its effect will be most salutary in re which England has not protected her its effect will be most salutary in re witch Winnie in Holland. Mrs. Champney's new volume, carries the popular heroine of this well known series of books to Holland, where she pursues her art education. It is difficult to imagine a country in the book has very attractive dress, the illustrations being particularly noteworthy. American Book company, Chistoring confidence, removing depression colonies. The correspondent suggests more opportunities for Witch Winnie to finish her education than Holland. Many Representative Newlands of Nevada involve nonconformity with the sacred is a story of an English artist and a Boston girl. The courtship takes place among most amusing and unusual circumstances, at the He states that our American wheat has the future of the sugar industry is one in Canada. The subject is treated with Mr. suffered from the competition in the of widespread interest. It is useless to Barr's characteristic humor and vivacity. Frederick A. Stokes company, New York Megeath's.

It will be hard to imagine a family, or a India. The wheat crop having failed in India, so that that country is compelled to import, "the result is that on protect its sugar interests from destruc-Give the college foot ball players a the Liverpool market our American the Liverpool market our American wheat, Indian competition being removed, has risen in price," Mr. New-proof of the college foot ball players a the Liverpool market our American the European competition. The policy in Germany, Austria and France in remigrant roughing it in the forest, may learn from it many useful delivers and with nothing more than a competition and the another of india rubber, may effect more be imagined. Dodd, Mead & Co., New York.

Like as the Israelites in the wilderness went out each day for manua, so do the boys of this generation expect each year some new stories by Mr. G. A. Henty autumn, for Mr. Henty does not fall them. mances: At Agincourt, a Tale of the White to a French hely during the uproar of the Butchers' Gulld in Paris, and afterward at the battle of Agineourt. The second story relates the adventures of an English The Recond boy who served on Str Archibald Campbeil's staff during the Burmese war; and the third story is of the exploits of a midshipman with Admiral Cochrane in Brazilian waters. Healthy stimulation for receptive minds and recurring suggestions of manly fortitude are always the special excellences of Mr. Henty's tales. Charles Scribner's Sons, New York. Harry Collingwood has kept The Log of a Privateersman to good purpose, as all boys will agree who have the good luck to read it. George Bowen sailed as second mate on the Dolphin to fight, the Prenchmen and capture their merchant vessels, while Napoteon bit his thumb in rage. Sea fights at long and close range, capture and recapture, storm stacks of prize money. Charles Scribner's Sons, New York. Megeath's.

Sons, New York. Mcgeath's.
S. R. Crockett has written a delightful Clay and Since," Sook in "Sweetheart Travelers." It is the Paper; 256 pages. record of little journeys on a tricycle made with his 4-year-old girl in Galloway. The child's sayings are very well reproduced, and her knowledge of birds and trees and flowers, her ignorance of real and her great love of fairy tales are admirably brought out. Older renders will relish the story more than children, for there is much in the novellst's shrewd comment which will be lost on the young. The book is so beau tifully illustrated and bound that it is suitable for a birthday or holiday gift. Frederick A. Stokes Company, New York. Metle "Ivory Series" of the Scribners', deals G. P. Putnam's Sons, New York: "The with the fortunes of a pretty Italian girl War of the Standards," by Albion W. Tourugitives from Turkish tyranny have been who is compelled to seek a home in an gee. Paper: 130 pages.

American family. The story of her experiated of the oppressed. Prospective reces in this family, where the mother of by Kirk Munroe. Cloth: 282 pages. In love with her, is very entertainingly told. Charles Scribner's Sens, New York: "Fa-Our pretty Piccarada becomes bethrothed to bles," by Robert Louis Stevenson. Cloth: Had that been done it would not have been Tales of the adventures of a reckless and regarded here as a menace, but rather as an rather improper young woman, who, being Bruce, D. D. Cloth; $1.50. "The Rogue's ratios—this last the most difficult to episode in British naval routine. Neverthe-less the prompt action of that government ences which would have been the ruin of another woman, may not be particularly elevating, but once convinced that the princess has a heart, any reader possessed of a similar incumbrance will follow its fortunes to the end. in "The Heart of Princess Osra." by Anthony Hope, we have a charming col-lection of stories with Princess Osra, of ryn has a regular fellow who gets even with | Zenda, as heroine, all so closely connected that they practically form one long The princess was a woman with a love for was about to play a match at Liverpool adventure, and the striking incidents of her life are described with a charm that is not surpassed, if equaled, in any other of Mr.

Frederick A. Stokes com-"Through Swamp and Glade," by Kirk Munroe, is a tale of Florida, in the days when slavery was in full swing and the white landgrabber was striving to wipe the Seminole Indians off the face of the earth. States government, such as must make every white man want to hide his head in shame.
It is well that these who, like the Pharisees of oid, thank God that their nation is not as other nations are, should know the truth. The knowledge of crimes perpetrated against the Seminoles in former days may help toward bringing about a yer, with his fine, true aspirations, his noble presents the American youth in so admir-able and winning a light. Charles Scrib-

Reeve, is a study in platonic affection. Vawder is a writer of short stories which never leave his hand until he is satisfied for his heroine, and makes an arrangement with a society woman to take the part of his heroine and act to him as she would act to the hero. The conversations they have about the truth of Vawder's work make the story. Frederick Stokes Company, New York. Megcath's. "The Gold-Silver Controversy" is a com-pilation of recent essays taken from the Political Science Quarterly. In the list of by Prof. R. Mayo-Smith; "Sliver in Comand which make a strong foundation tatter, and is just what the average man for further popular enlightenment on the money question, while at the same time serving as an interpretable but in the same time serving as a substitute of the same time serving

"Fifty Pamous Stories Retold," by James torical, having for their subjects real inci-Guiana sugar planters are holding con- and while the outcome is not unforescen, the famous characters; others are legendary, its title represent the three principal types of the era in which the scene is laid. The pure, historical Hebrev type appears in Miriam, the daughter of Rabbi Jairus. Solomon, the son of the Lord Chaza. Herod's steward, represents the Hellenized Hebrew influenced by Greek culture and literature, Titus, the son of the Roman race. All the events of Christ's life are skillfully interwoven in the story, which is glways wholesome and natural. Although in the form of fletion, accuracy is never sacrificed, and in addition to its excellent typography with 22,000 pearls and 3,000 diamonds, and the last moment she found it was so heavy she couldn't wear it and had to get another. But men led in the splendor of Burgandy often wore jewels valued at a willion francs. When he walked along the streets the people climbed over each other to get a look at him. He was a moving mass of diamonds. The duke of Bucking-ham wore a suit at the court of St. James which cost is 0000. The dress of the nobles during the middle ages was literally covered with gold and precious stones. and in addition to its excellent typography the book is embellished by reproductions tists. Joseph Knight company, Boston.

"The War of the Standards," by Albin W.

York. Linen; 35 cents. 'Robinson Crusoe,' by Daniel Deice, edited by Kate Stephens. doen: 50 cents. Stories of New Jersey, y Frank B. Stockton, Cloth; 30 cents. American Publishing Company, Buffalo. "Storica of New Jersey, H. Smith. Paper; 48 pages. Charles W. Johnson, 259 First avenue, South Minneapolis, Minn.; "Official Proceed ings of the Eleventh Republican National Convention." Paper, $1; cloth, $1.50. Gian & Co., Boston: "The Gold-Silver Controversy." Paper; 145 pages.

Robert Beall, 495 Pennsylvania avenue, N. W., Washington, D. C. Paper; 166 pages. The Arena Publishing company, That Romanist," by Adelia R. McArthur. 50 centu Paper; 50 cents.

Dodd Mead & Co., New York: "Witch Winnie in Hoiland." by Elizabeth W.
Champney. Cloth; $1.50.
Joseph Knight Company, Boston: "Three

Children of Galilee," by John Gordon Cloth; Laird & Lee, Chicago: "My Young Masclese range, capture and recapture, storm and wreck, fire at sea and starvation in an open beat, are a few of the incidents in the hero's carcer, and his bravery was finally rewarded with a command in the navy and stacks of price money. Charles Seribare's capture.

Henry Clay Publishing Company, New York: "The Tariff in the Days of Henry Clay and Since," by William McKinley. FROM MEGEATH STATIONERY COM-

PANY, OMAHA. Frederick A. Stokes company, New York "Pairy Tales Far and Near," retold by Q. Cloth; $1.50. "The Heart of Princess Osra." by Anthony Hope. Cloth; $1.50. "One Day's Courtship," by Robert Barr. Cloth; 75 cents. 'Vawder's Understudy," by James Knapp Reeve. Cloth; 75 cents. From Whos Bourne," by Robert Barr. Cloth; 75 cents. "The Herb Moon," by John Oliver Cloth; $1.25. "Little Men and Little Minds, by Frances Brundage and Elizabeth S. "One of the Visconti," by Eva W. Brod- Tucker. Boards, "Sweetheart Travelers, Harper & Bros., New York: "Rick Date." the family is violently opposed to "foreign- Elementary Study of English," by William ers," and the son of the family is violently J. Rolfe, Litt. D. Cloth; 86 pages. a nobleman of her own nation, who hears rather an unsavery reputation, and for a time her future looks dark, but the continuation of the tale brings sunshine to the girl and her American lover. Charles Scribner's Sons, New York. Megcath's.

Tales of the adventures of a reckless and Results," by George Santayana. Cloth; $1.50. "With Open Pace," by Alexander Balmain March," by E. F. Hornung. Cloth; $1.50, PROM AUTHORS. "Memorles and Impressions," by Frank Putnam, Chicago.

"The Money of the Constitution," by Allen Ripley Foote, Paper: 25 cents. Bennett building, New York.

HEALTH INSURANCE.

A Company Which Takes Care of Your Physical Welfare. Companies to insure clients against ill-health and disease, just as persons are now insured against death, will be doing business in the near future if the predictions of Mr. Marcel Baudoin are fulfilled. He is the author of a very interesting paper published in the Progress Medical, one of the It is a story of treachery and deceit on the part of Andrew Jackson and the United subject of the future of the medical profession. "Up to this time." he says, "the old custom still prevalls in Europe, and elsewhere to pay a physician by whenever he is wanted." All this, he says will be changed in time, and strong effort. will be made to abolish this system, which ultimately is to be replaced by health ance. Some insurance speculators introduced payers and citizens should lose no time in formulating their demands for charter clanges.

Now the Interstate Commerce commission announces that it is preparing to institute mandamus proceedings to compel certain railroads to comply with the law that requires them to file annual reports covering their barshage and citizens, whereas the institute mandamus proceedings to the king of the propers and prosperity of the masses of the masses of the people. Workingmen save most in gold countries and are in every way better off than in silver standard countries.

It is said to be a fact that hundreds of washington meaning their day of his preparing to institute mandamus proceedings to the countries, whereas the law that requires them to file annual reports covering their business and an access of dead block.

A similar state of affairs prevails in hundred supports and the science of a sound countries and interest in a client of the company for he masses that it is preparing to institute mandamus proceedings to the wind of the propers and prosperity of the masses of the suppose and the substance of the substance of the suppose and dispatched to the little to its spiquancy. Following it for it as a short story; are a series of others no little to its spiquancy. Following it for it as a short story; are a series of others no little to its spiquancy. Following it for it as a short story; are a series of others no little to its spiquancy. Following it for it as a short story; are a series of others no little to its spiquancy. Following it for it as a short story; are a series of others not little to its spiquancy. Following it for it as a short story; are a series of others not little to its spiquancy. Following it for it as a short story; are a series of others not little to its spiquancy. Following it for it as a short story; are a series of others not little to its spiquancy. Following it is China, where doctors are paid by the mouth he finds that nature, the great restorer, the story is, it repays reading, because it presents the American youth in so admirable and winered and winered and all story is a second to their clients falls ill his purse strings are drawn taut, and no fee is forthcoming until the patient has fully recovered. This method is not near as faults are in their clients falls ill his purse strings are drawn taut, and no fee is forthcoming until the patient has fully recovered. This at first sight. In this way one pays for being well, instead of for being sick, a conception which certainly constitutes an inno-vation, which if it does not perhaps improve the art of healing, is decidedly more in der they think they can ignore a little that the modern social the commodities, particularly was forced to go to Baden fladen for the that the characters are true types. While the filing of a report. The only way to enforce the law on the roads is to enforce every part of it.

Way as soon as he entered Hungary. He was forced to go to Baden fladen for the that the characters are true types. While the thing a novel intending to show how leading theory, which has deluded so he is worse, and unlikely ever to paint and remain simply friends, he needs a model of the hygienists.

Way as soon as he entered Hungary. The coming physician according to Dr. The coming physician according to Dr. Baden fladen for the that the characters are true types. While the the modern social theories which the moder social the ories which the modern social the characters are true types. While the the modern social theories which the modern social theories was forced to go to Baden fladen for the that the characters are true types. While the the modern social theories which the modern social theories which the modern social theories. The coming physician according to Dr. H. P. Merriman, 2239, Michigan average in the characters are true types. While the characters are true types. The coming physician according to Dr. H. P. Merriman, 2239, Michigan are true types. While the characters are sided there, would fill many volumes. Many of them are found in the daily mailbag. At a dinner the other day Mrs. Mc-

GOSSIP ABOUT WOMEN.

"The Gold on you for it. Please send me a dress paton an express package, as I never know what is in it until I have opened it." Mrs. Harrison, according to the relator, was much amused at this missive, and "I'll locate on you for that" became a standing phrase amused at this missive, and "I'll locate on you for that" became a standing phrase in the family ever after when some object was covered.

a black velvet jockey cap fauntily on one side of her head. Stopping at a drug store miss covered. was coveted.

Another letter received by Mrs. Harrison Please send me a piane and some sheet music, as I have a daughter that has some tallents."

The women of fashion and even the actresses of the present day can hardly hold a condle to the dames of old in the ferences and presenting memorials to the home government on behalf of the sugar industry, which has apparently received its death blow from the bounties paid by Germany, Austria and France to the beet producers. He states It is a great and z glorious victory for it is a great and z glorious victory for sound finance, for public and private honesty and for a government of law and order. We confidently believe that and order with effect will be most salutary in restoring confidence, removing depression. The correspondent suggests of the supplied of the correspondent suggests. The correspondent suggests are supplied by Germany, Austrn and power files and z glorious victory for it is a great and z glorious victory for the best producers. He states for the kind that survive in literature. Frank R, Stockton's "Stories of New Jerson and one for $300,000, and Caesonia had a ring worth $200,000. Committal one of $300,000, and caesonia had a ring of the kind that survive in literature. Frank R, Stockton's "Stories of New Jerson and private finance to the best producers. He states that nothing is cheaper than sugar in England, but the staple industry and the kind that survive in literature. Which Winnis in Holland, "Witch Winnis in Holland, where she pursues her art cducations are particularly in an and one of $300,000, and Caesonia had a ring of the kind that survive in literature. Going the for $400,000, some a sugar-coated history, the kind one for $300,000, and caesonia had a ring one falson of the kind that survive in literature. Frank R, Stockton's "Stories of New Jerson Report that the story told in form adapted to the mind one of $300,000, and caesonia had a ring of the kind that survive in literature. Going the for $400,000, some a sugar-coated history, the story told in form adapted to the mind of this conditions and that one pearl in each car no longer story told in form adapted to the mind of this well known series of books to the winth the supplied to the mind of the kind that survive in literature. Going the form adapted to the mind of the winth story, it is not of the kind that survive in literature. Frank R, Stockton's Stories of New Jerson Report the survive in literature. The survive in literature. The survive in literatu

Feminine New Zealand is in a reforming the book is embellished by reproductions mood. At any rate, it is "advanced" on a of the masterplece of ancient and modern number of topics. Women voters of the colony, at a convention recently, expressed a desire to abolish capital punishment, t Tourgee, is an unbiased presentation of the nationalize the land, to create a system of case of gold against silver, or, as the author old-age pensions and to make judicial senfacetionsly puts it. 'Coin and credit versus | tences reformative as well as positive | coin without credit.' Mr. Tourgee fur- | Evidently these women are of a go-ahead nishes a very clear view of the causes that disposition. Not satisfied with so ambitious have led to the depreciation of silver and a program, they go still further in aspoints to a new economic law bearing upon serting the right of women to sit on juries this subject. G. P. Putnam's Sons, New and be elected to the legislature. Men are only too anxious to escape exercising BOOKS RECEIVED—FROM PUBLISHERS.

American Book Company, Chicago: "Fifty advantage if they could send their wives to serve in their stead. Another resolution Linen; 35 cents. "Robinson Crusoe." by was passed that is worth setting forth in full: "In all cases where a woman elects to superintend a household, and to be the mother of children, there shall be a law attaching a certain just share of her hus-"National Bimetallism," by Roderick | band's carnings or income for her separate use, payable, if she desires, into her separate account."

Before Li Hung Chang left China for a tour of observation of the various civilized countries of the world he instructed the Viscount Li Chow Chow to bring him the sacred book of Chinese etiquette, from which he selected the following questions to be propounded to ladies wherever he should meet them: "How old are you!

"Is that your own hair?"
"How much did you pay for it?" It is simple justice to the eminent Chinaladies in all parts of Europe and America thus far visited he has never deviated from these simple and polite interrogations.

success. This was in the form of an after noon for girls. The invitations were ver-bal, or very informal notes requesting the guests to bring their thimbles. But it was very different from the stereotyped "thim de party." After everybody had met every body else, and a little music had been es loyed, one of the hostesses came in and said: 'Now, you all are going to sew.' She was interrupted by one of her guests, who arose in rebellious consternation and said "Now, for goodness sake, don't tell me wo're going to sit up here and see who can make the straightest hem or anything like that. I'll go home now. I never could

"No, now you wait a minute," said th hostess. She held a tray in her hand Hanging around the edge were dozens of hostess. vellow tassels. Giving directions all aroun "draw one of these," she stood in center of a group of girls. On the ends of the cord and tassels were found to b dainty little yellow pencils.

Next came the sister carrying anotheray. From this she handed out little tray. square linen doilles. In the corner of each doily was a shein of green and of pla-embroidery silk, wrapped in tissue pape and fastened with a needle 'Now," said one of the directors, "yo are to draw your own design and sew Many and varied were the exclamation that "they had never drawn a line in the lives," "they never could make up any-thing," etc. One young woman said she never had drawn anything but one of these back-view cats that you make with three lines, so she proceeded to put a green and pink cat on her linen. They were seen all working for dear life three-quarters of an hour being the tim allowed. Tongues flew as fast as the needles and the young woman who vowed she couldn't sew accompanied the noise b playing exquisitely on the plane. The written on them and were gathered and taken to another room to pass under the yes of several married ladies who were While awaiting the decision fees and cake were enjoyed. The first prize, a heaut ful photograph frame, was awarded to the most complete design. The second, a water color sketch, to the most original The third, a pen sketch, to the most original

"afternoon" proved an original and artistic success. An important order was to be executed the other day by a Washington milliner, for Mrs. Cleveland had written down for an "Your own selection autumn hat. old the milliner. The hat, when it reache Gray Gables, was of pale green straw with brown dots scattered over it. These were small knots of grass. One side of the hat was trimmed with stiff taffeta bows in brown and green-loops of each, other side of the hat was a mass of sr palls nestling in green leaves. The was a standing mass of lace, and th

THE ROYAL ROAD.

Good Food is the Only Way.

It's man's bad habits that hurt him more than overwork. The little habits of coffee and tobacco hurt worse than some of the big ones, because they are continued more steadily than the greater habits. Many a man is simply poisoned to death by the alkaloids of coffee and tobacco and never will believe what is hurting him. quit tobacco and use Postum Cereal, the food drink, in place of coffee and very soon as long as people are well; but as soon as at work. No medicine is needed, simply one of their clients falls ill his purse strings quit doing those things which poison and waste the energy, and let nature build into body and brain from good food. Postum is made entirely of grains by the Pestum Cereal Co., lim., of Battle Creek, Mich., and is nourishing and fattening. Use plain, common food and the food-drink (it looks the common food and the common food like coffee, but is not). Health will come and be of much more solld character than pointed top carried out the brown and green The humors of the White bouse, it is Mrs. Cleveland also sent for small russet the testimony of every one who has restands that for the little girls. These were trimmed with forget-me-nots and green rib Helep and Nora Stelgman are the two Kee told of a letter Mrs. Harrison received white first hady of the land. It ran:

"Dear Maddam: I would like a present from Washington City, so I will locate on you for it. Please send me a dress pathology of the land on you for it. Please send me a dress pathology of the land on you for it. Please send me a dress pathology of the land of afternoon startled the citizens of port by coming into town astride a apprised two-year-old herse. She was accompanit by her sister Helen, who sat on a regulation Miss Nora's costume was of put-brown serge, made in full bloomer style. hitched it to a post and assisted her sister to dismount.

The men who gathered around the horses while the girls were getting some water in the store wondered that Miss Nora could ride such a lively colt without a saddie, and particularly as it had a very

JOKERS' RETURNS.

Roston Transcript: Stikker-I dreamed ast night that you gave me $10." Stryker-Good! that makes us square. I owed you a tenner, you know.

Chicago Post: "I thought you were going to marry the girl that made such a hit in comic opera."
"Oh, dear, no. When L marry I want something permanent."

Puck: First Reporter—You always said that Jones would haver learn anything about the newspaper business, I told you he would, in time. Second Reporter—What makes you think First Reporter-He's looking for a job in Brooklyn Life: Owens-What's in a name, anyhow?

Dunne Not much in yours, old man.
Owens What do you mean?
Dunne Why, everything you've got is in your wife's name, isn't it?

Chicago Tribune: "You look so pleased; where have you been?"
"I've been visiting dentists' offices, and had a lovely time got a lot of new ideas for our college yell."

Truth: Enrglar-Hold up your hands and don't speak. Now trot out the most value able thing yer not in the house.

Head of the Household-O, Lord, he wants the servant girl, and she hasn't been here a week yet? New York Press: She bowed her blushing face upon his shoulder. When she raised it the tellade flush and vanished.

That is to say, it was no longer on her face. But it look a professional scourer and $1.50 to get it off his coar.

Harper's Bazar: Mr. Poetiens (who for the last half-hour has been reading his arest role poems. Well, my dear, how do you think it gives? Mrs Poeticus (who has been gazing into the glass in an abstracted manner)—Well, I'm afraid it's a little loose on the shoulder.

A MODERN SAMARITAN. The street was dark, the night was cold; I met a man polite and bold.

"The kindly man will always share The load his brother has to bear." Twas thus he said, and then he strove

His kindness to fully prove; He took my watch and ske my rings, My pocketbook and other things.

> COULD SHE BUT GUESS. New Budget,

Could she but guess the secret here— The secret I would fain confess— What would she do, poor little dear, Could shot but guess? I wonder! Would she felan distress,

Or might she shyly murmur, "Yes?"

The dence—'ils out! My whole career Lies in her hands to blast or bless. That comes of triffing with a mere "Could she but guess."

WILL SELL A GOOD MANY IN FERIOR SUITS OF CLOTHES TO PERSONS WHO ARE TEMPTED BY RIDICULOUSLY LOW PRICES FOR A

A VERY GOOD LOOKING SUIT MAY BE MADE TO SELL FOR A FEW DOLLARS, AND YOU CAN'T TELL TILL YOU WEAR IT A WHILE THAT IT'S ABOUT HALF COTTON.

WE OFFER YOU THE BEST READY-MADE CLOTHING IN THE WORLD-THE BEST WE KNOW HOW TO MAKE-WARRANTED ALL WOOL-GUARANTEED IN EVERY RESPECT-AND WE CAN FIT YOUR PURSE AS WELL AS YOUR FIGURE. IT WOULD DO YOU NO HARM TO LOOK OVER OUR ASSORTMENT. YOU ARE WELCOME, AND WE WOULD LIKE TO PROVE THE WORTH OF OUR GOODS OVER ALL OTHERS.

