PIERRE S. D. Nov. 4 - (Special.) -G. W. Lumley, a rancher on the river near this city, has killed a gray eagle which measured seven feat dame inches from tip to tip. At the time he shot the eagle it was making an attack on a young calf, which was being defended by its mother, and Lumley reached the scene in time to get in a shot, which broke the eagle's wing before it injured the calf. After the immense bird was crippled it made an attack upon Lum-ley as soon as he approached it, and it was only killed after a flerce battle with the clubbed gun for a weapon. He says there are several more of these birds in the vicinity of his ranch and he will have to keep close watch of them in the spring to keep them from his young calves.
