

BISMARCK'S COUP A FAILURE

Imperial Chancellor Hohenlohe Makes a Statement in the Reichstag.

GERMANY AND ITS ALLIES STILL FRIENDS

Disclosures of the Ex-Chancellor Fail to Shake the Dreadnought and Relations with Russia Are Cordial as Ever.

BERLIN, Nov. 16.—In anticipation of a statement from the imperial chancellor, Prince Hohenlohe, on the subject of the revelations made by Prince Bismarck...

It was said: Baron Marschall contended that at the time of the treaty of 1871, the west in 1870. But I would remind you that in 1870 Bismarck had a powerful hold...

As regards the tendency of German policy toward Russia, since the spring of 1890, it is equally impossible to give an exhaustive reply so long as that obligation continues...

After a careful examination of the available material, I cannot help recognizing as full of weight the motive which governed German policy, and at the same time I can express the conviction that an unfavorable motive...

As to the effect which recent publications have had upon the relations between Germany and the dreadnought, and her relations with other European powers, I am glad to be able to declare that the cloud of distrust which...

The minister for foreign affairs, Baron Marschall von Bieberstein, followed the chancellor. He said: Entering upon the duties of German policy toward Russia, I am perfectly alive to the great difficulties of the task...

Dr. Leibler, who followed the minister for foreign affairs, declared that the Contrists were not in a position to make any agreement with Germany...

Baron von Mantouff, the next speaker, said that he was not in a position to make any agreement with Germany...

Dr. Conzarius, national liberal, observed that Germany's relations with Russia were not so good as they were in the past...

Herr Richter, the radical leader, urged that the agreement ought at least to have been made on the basis of the best of the relations...

Herr Liebknecht, the socialist leader, responded to Count von Bismarck's remarks, by saying that as little was known of Bismarck's relations...

Herr Pasche, national liberal, said the revelation that Bismarck was actuated by the desire to secure a personal power...

At the close of the debate, Count Herbert von Bismarck was asked by a member of the Reichstag, whether he would be willing to make a statement...

The Reichstag then adjourned without any further business being taken on the question of the disclosures...

WEYLER MUST WHIP MACEO

With Swarms of Soldiers His Prestige and Rank Are at Stake.

AFFAIRS IN CUBA COME TO A SHOWDOWN

Spain Serves Notice Upon the Captain General that He Must Win Decisive Victories Before Congress Meets.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 16.—It is learned here on authority that the Spanish government has given General Weyler to understand that he must push his operations against the insurgents aggressively and vigorously...

It is thought by General Weyler that he will be able to score a decisive victory over the Cuban army before the assembling of congress, which body after it meets, and has urged General Weyler to demonstrate his ability to crush the rebellion within the next two weeks...

In view of the fact that Spain is now making a strong and almost supreme effort to subdue her insurrection, the crisis apparently is at hand the president will likely write that part of his forthcoming message on the Cuban situation...

What action will follow a simply negative result of the campaign, that is a fruitless chase after the insurgents by General Weyler, is less clear. Probably the administration will continue to be influenced in some measure at least, by what representations Spain made as to the policy it would pursue and the instructions given...

Carroll D. Wright Adds More Figures to the Eleventh Census.

SPECIAL REPORT ON OCCUPATIONS

During 1890 Over a Million Working Men and Women Were Without Work, Being Over Five Per Cent of the Whole.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 16.—Hon. Carroll D. Wright, commissioner of labor in charge of the eleventh census, has submitted to the secretary of the interior a special report on statistics of occupations...

The most interesting feature of the report relates to the question of the unemployed. Similar data relative to the unemployed were collected in the census of 1880, but not so complete as this is the first time in the federal census that information of this character has been presented in connection with the statistics of occupation...

Of these 3,012,117 males and 510,613 females, or a total of 3,522,730 persons, were unemployed during the year ending May 31, 1890. Of the whole number of persons unemployed, 1,818,856 were unemployed from one to three months, 1,248,318 from four to six months and 336,447 from seven to twelve months. This is equivalent, approximately, to 1,159,672 persons unemployed for one to three months, 1,672,200 for four to six months and 690,856 for seven to twelve months...
