

SLAUGHTER OF THE PACIFICOS

Reign of Terror Produced by Spanish About Guantanamo.

GROSS OUTRAGES IN SOUTHERN CUBA

Spain's Troops, Unable to Cope with the Insurgents, Wreak Vengeance on Women and the Unarmed Men.

(Copyright, 1896, by Press Publishing Company.) SANTIAGO, Cuba, Nov. 22.—(Special Correspondent of the New York World.)—There is a reign of terror in Guantanamo. Every night Pacificos are taken from their homes, conducted to the outskirts of the town, and there butchered. More than sixty inoffensive men have been murdered in that way since the middle of October.

Generals Linares and Vara del Rey, with 2,000 men, were defeated November 10 by Mendoza and Prieto at Barracoa, near Dos Caminos. The Spanish fled leaving many killed and wounded. The wounded, including a colonel, were cared for by people living near. When the Spanish afterward returned to get their wounded, they arrested and shamefully treated the women.

On the 9th Spanish Commander Ardanaz, with a large column, was defeated by Rebel Leader Torres, near the wharf of Banes (Holguin), where there is a fort. The rebel had laid a wire cable across the harbor entrance so the general's batteries could not get in. She retired in a shower of bullets after losing two men killed.

The Spaniards believe that the insurgents on their return in Loma de los Agiles and suffered considerable loss. Commander Garrida's guerrillas and regulars were expected to remain in certain areas prices for fine and coarse grains are closely approximating. So far relief organization is equal to all demands.

SETTLEMENT IS NOT SATISFACTORY.

Manitoba School Question is Still a

MONTREAL, Nov. 22.—The terms of settlement of the Manitoba school question, as agreed upon by the Dominion and Manitoba governments, are far from giving satisfaction to the Roman Catholics of Quebec.

Archbishop Langevin of Montreal has issued a statement disclosing that in an interview, published here, and the French papers of this province have taken it. Archbishop Langevin is reported as saying: "The school question has been settled, and what is more, it will be far from satisfactory in Quebec." He laid especial stress upon Quebec.

At this juncture the archbishop paused a moment and shook his head. Continuing, he said: "How we have been sold! How we shall have our turn later on. I do not know, but I tell you there will be a revolution in Quebec which will ring through Canada, and these men who are today triumphant will be cast down. The fight has only begun."

La Verite says: "The duty of this movement is to support our brothers with all our strength, for if we allow the Catholics of the little province of the west to be crushed, we shall have our turn later on. I do not know, but I tell you there will be a revolution in Quebec which will ring through Canada, and these men who are today triumphant will be cast down. The fight has only begun."

Le Mondeu, commenting on the terms of the settlement, says: "If ever a people had to be crushed, it is the people of the west. They must support our brothers with all our strength, for if we allow the Catholics of the little province of the west to be crushed, we shall have our turn later on. I do not know, but I tell you there will be a revolution in Quebec which will ring through Canada, and these men who are today triumphant will be cast down. The fight has only begun."

MISS BARTON MAKES HER REPORT.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 22.—Miss Clara Barton yesterday afternoon reported to the board of directors of the American Relief Commission. She has completed her detailed report on the Armenian relief expedition to Asia Minor last winter. The report made by Miss Barton is quite exhaustive and covers the work of the several expeditions sent out from Constantinople. It shows that the work had its inception in the relief of the Armenian sufferers, and that the Armenians, gives an account of the sailing of the relief party, of delays in sending out the first expedition on account of the Armenian situation in Constantinople, and of the Turkish government and speaks of the various relief expeditions and the various expeditions.

Approval of M. Hanotaux's Speech.

PARIS, Nov. 22.—The French newspapers generally approve the speech made by M. Hanotaux, the minister for foreign affairs, in the Chamber yesterday in reply to the question of M. Millerand, socialist, as to whether a convention between France and Germany actually existed, and if so what were its main lines. The newspapers recognize that M. Hanotaux could not be more explicit. The socialist newspapers alone complain of his reticence.

Kaiser is Disgusted with Reheating.

LONDON, Nov. 22.—The Daily Mail's Berlin correspondent says he hears Emperor William is disgusted with the proceedings in the Reichstag and is determined to dissolve that body unless the increased naval credits are voted. He regards them as the minimum consistent with the efficiency of the navy, and considers that navy will prove a splendid electorship.

FAMINE DISTRICTS OF INDIA.

Will Relieve the Dry Portions.

LONDON, Nov. 22.—A dispatch from Allahabad, India, to the Times on the breaking of the drought, says: "The storm has caused a rainfall right through eastern Rajputana, which has reached the western parts of the northwest provinces. On Friday a good rain had fallen at Meerut and the rain at Agra. This will be of the highest value, as Agra was suffering severely from drought. There are signs that the rain will extend farther. Here the clouds have gathered in the last few days, but only a few drops have fallen, though there were showers on Saturday night far from the north."

"The following is an accurate view of the position of the Northwest Provinces and Outh. The first area where there is the greatest failure of crops has 25,000 square miles with a population of 13,000,000. Here the famine may be acute. The second area, where there is a severe failure covers 30,000 square miles with a population of 14,000,000. The third area, which has 25,000 square miles and has a population of 12,000,000. The divisions which are worst off are Allahabad, Lucknow and Faizabad, with the portion of Agra not protected by irrigation. The balance of the provinces are those mentioned in the preceding paragraph. There has been little failure, though the distress will press heavily upon the poorer classes of the Khairi. The crop in the Meerut division are excellent and are probably the best in the country. The prospects in fact are a half of rain within the next fortnight would reduce the difficulties by one-half to three-fourths. Favorable rains at the end of the week would relieve from 80 to 90 per cent of the population. The government is preparing for the worst. Should the drought continue until June prices would rule enormously high, and the government does not apprehend a complete failure of supplies next summer, as local stocks will be augmented by a significant indication of the famine condition, so far the relief organization is equal to all demands."

British Jail Official Reports on a Pair of Notable Prisoners.

MRS. MAYBRICK IS GOING INSANE

Osceola Wildly Attacks Aged and Broken in Health—Neither Could Survive Another Year of Prison Life.

(Copyright, 1896, by the Associated Press.) LONDON, Nov. 22.—From a high official connected with her majesty's prison at Wormwood Scrubs, the Associated Press is furnished the following account of the prisoners, Mrs. Maybrick and Oscar Wilde: "By any one who knew Mrs. Maybrick as I did before her incarceration, she would not now be recognized. She is a complete mental and physical wreck, and her condition is such that it is not due to prison treatment, but is the direct result of confinement and mental worry. While she is not insane, her condition borders closely upon it. She has not been at Wormwood Scrubs for many months, but is now in the smaller prison at Aylesbury, in Buckinghamshire. It is found that prisoners in her mental state require special attention. In this respect she is an inmate of so many prisons. While at Wormwood Scrubs she was in the hospital. However, that fact she has never mentioned. Her health has demanded her removal to Aylesbury. She has grown thin and her cheek bones protrude in a most repulsive manner. Her eyes are in a state of absolute blindness, and her hands are gnawed and she has a peculiar expression of a hunted look. She has all the cunning of an insane person. This is shown by the fact she has twice attempted to commit suicide, once nearly successfully, despite the strict and searching watch to which she is constantly subjected. Her last attempt was evidently made in an endeavor to convince the doctors that she was suffering from internal hemorrhage, and went too far. She subsequently made the same attempt and very nearly succeeded. The other attempt was by means of strychnine. Since these attempts she has been in a state of absolute mental prostration, and she has been subjected to special treatment. Her mental condition is such that she has been taken to the hospital at Aylesbury. Her mental condition at the time was such that I did not attach much importance to her remarks. However, that may be, she is now in my opinion a proven quack. I am firmly of the opinion that she will not survive another year of her present confinement. Her present confinement since July, 1895. Ordinarily imprisonment for life means twenty years, there being few instances where prisoners have been kept longer than the term for which they were sentenced, unless some new and pointed facts in relation to their guilt have come to light at the interior of the prison. It is a curse for release that have come from America and elsewhere and which have been in the nature of coercing the home office. However, in this case, it is believed she will be set at liberty within a year."

The official was also asked regarding Oscar Wilde, and said: "Wilde is also removed from the Scrubs a short time ago. He is now at Reading. His health is also wretched, and he seems aged and broken. He has spent much time in the hospital, like Mrs. Maybrick, but has been frequently transferred, and for the same reason. While at Wormwood Scrubs he was in a state of absolute mental prostration, and he was so far from complying with the regulations was concerned, but his work was done in a perfunctory manner. I must decline to say at what hour of the day he is seen. Like Mrs. Maybrick, I do not think he would survive another year of prison life, but fortunately for him, his sentence expires the last of March. Personally, I believe any petitions for his release will be granted."

FERRIS OF WHEEL FAME IS DEAD.

Hard Work and Typhoid Fever Carry Off a Renowned Man.

PITTSBURG, Nov. 22.—George W. Ferris, who conceived and built the world famous Ferris wheel, died at Mercy hospital in this city at 11 o'clock this morning, of typhoid fever. His illness has been brief, and it was only Friday that he was taken to the hospital. The attending physicians say his system was greatly run down by overwork. His wife came here from Canton, and when he died she was with her husband in his dying moments. George Ferris was born at Galeburg, Ill., on February 14, 1857. When he was but six years old his family removed to Carson City, and it was there he spent his early boyhood. In 1876 he came east and began a course at the Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute at Troy, N. Y. In 1881 he graduated with high honors. In 1884 he accepted the position of Louisville Bridge company of Louisville, Ky. It was while with that company he first visited Pittsburgh, where he superintended the construction of the structural steel for the bridge at Niagara. After the completion of the contract Mr. Ferris returned to his native city, and set up on his own account. In 1887, while pursuing that vocation independently, he first conceived the idea of the Ferris wheel, and it was in 1889 that the firm of V. & C. Ferris was organized. By the time the structure was completed the concern still existed. In 1892 he was elected mayor of Canton, O. It was in 1892 that Mr. Ferris conceived the idea of the wonderful Ferris wheel which now stands on the attention of all the people of the world, and which will go down in history as one of the greatest wonders of the age. He was a monster passenger wheel, conceived by Mr. Ferris but built by his personal supervision in this city.

KIOWA, KAN., NOV. 22.—(Special.)

Colnel George Volkert, prominent in Grand Army circles and past commander of Col. John's Wyoming pioneer, died very suddenly last night of rheumatism of the heart.

WASHINGTON, NOV. 22.—Colnel Franklin Tenley, nearly thirty-five years proprietor of the National Hotel, died today, aged 89 years. He has a native of Hudson, N. H. Very few citizens of Washington were better known among a large class of public men of the last half century than the deceased.

NEW YORK, NOV. 22.—After several months' illness, W. W. Wood, a well-known actor, died last night of Bright's disease. He was a man widely respected by the theatrical profession of the United States. After several years' good work, he had a theater with the late John McCullough, he came to New York under an engagement with E. Rice and played under his management in all the principal theatres produced by that manager for several years. Mr. Metcalf wrote, in conjunction with James Weston Key, "The Tourists in a Pullman Palace Car," which made him quite a fortune. This piece was followed by "Tobogganing" and "The Grab Bag." About five years ago he married Theresa Vaughn, who has been fulfilling an engagement at the Boston museum. She arrived in the city tonight. The funeral service will be held in the Little Church Around the Corner on Tuesday.

GOVERNOR BRADLEY EMBARRASSED

His Candidature for Senator Makes His Position a Dilemma.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Nov. 22.—Prominent politicians are visiting Governor Bradley daily, with reference to calling an extra session of the legislature. The state affairs need legislation, but there is a division of opinion as to the effect of an extra session on the senatorship. It so happens that Governor Bradley will appoint a successor to Senator Blackburn, March 4, to serve till the next legislature is elected. The senator who is to succeed him will be an embarrassing one to him. There are half a dozen other prominent republican candidates for the senatorship, and to continue the fight to the last, while the friends of Senator Carlisle are watching the situation. It is the general opinion that there will be an extra session, and that there will be another senatorial fight here this winter.

CINCINNATI, Nov. 22.—The Commercial Tribune writes from this city that Senator Blackburn is here consulting his friends and he has given up the senatorial contest and determined to make the contest for the governorship. He is now a candidate for securing a legislature that would be more favorable to him. Senator Blackburn is confident he can secure the nomination for governor if he is elected. He is now a candidate for securing a legislature that would be more favorable to him. Senator Blackburn is confident he can secure the nomination for governor if he is elected.
