LEAP YEAR'S LAST DESPERATE RALLY

Society's Circus Will Be the Grent Event of the Week to Come, but There Will Be Other Interesting Events.

As after a atorm comes a calm; as after pasalon follows repose; as "after life's fitful fever he sleeps well;" so to a week of unusual activity, crowded full of social pleasures and overflowing with the modern spirit of the Thanksgiving festival, succeeds a week which, without being quite state, flat and unprobtable, certainly has come nearer to it than an early winter week in

Before another Sunday, the society circus Before another Sunday, the society circus will have come and gone, and the Godowsky concert, both of which are likely to be generately patronized by society in general. The appears hereafter, will be found to promise quite as most entertainment as any of the latter day three-ringers. The only difference is that the attractions are not presented with that wealth of adjectives which characterize the "naper" of the real thing. The with that wealth of adjectives which char-neterize the 'paper' of the real thing. The posters displayed round about, however, have the genuine high-colored look, the horses are duly dappled and the men and women suitably attired. These, with the stupendons and unequaled street parade, which will occur in all its world-embracing magnitude on the morning of Tucsday, are relied upon to attinulate the interest which the performance itself will assuredly retain. The circus is given for charity—the greatest of the three sweet attributes which abble last of all.

The excellent custom of New Year's calling, which for some years has fallen into disuse from a variety of causes, is likely to be revived to some extent this season in Omaha. Certain wether, whose influence and example in such matters go far, have expressed themselves as favorable to the practice in general, and as intending to open their houses to calls on New Year's day. It is thought that other women will fall into line, and that the old-time hospitality may once more be extended at the outset of the dawning year.

It is currently reported, by those who ought to know, that the mailtens of Omaha, real-izing that their days are gliding swiftly by, and feeling reluctant to let alin their tean year privileges without a struggle, are plan ping a lest raily in the shape of a party to be given to their masculine friends within the next two or three weeks. As the men, judging from the number of recent engage-ments, seem disposed to aid them in all their laudable undertakings, there would appear to be nothing in the way of the en-tire success of such a project.

One of the most complete surprise partle of the season was that given to Ralph Cole at the residence of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Cole, 2109 Douglas street, last Wednesday night.

Master Ralph was favited out to dinner and upon his return home he found the parlors filled with friends. Games, dancing and music helped to pass a most delightful evening Mesdames Bates, Katz and Winter rendered some fine piano solos during the evening. Mrs. Cole was assisted in entertaining by Miss Kittle Polack, Mrs. Katz. Mrs. Bates and Mrs. Rood. The rooms wer prettily decorated with palma, ferns and chrysanthemums. Master Ralph Cole and Miss Kittle Polack lead the grand march down to the dining room, where delicious refreshments were served. The tables looked lovely with their simple decoration of yellow chrysanthenums and ferns, and centerpeices done in yellow chrpsanthenums.

Those prepent were: Lucy Parrish, Anna Rose, Ethel Morrison, Edith Lewis, Marion Christison, Mamie Morrison, Niobe Godfry, Jeane Brunner, Lillie Rose, Marcy Morrell Caffery, Frank McCaffery, John Clark, Gay Katz, Lenter Hall, Ed Petty, Artie Kilkenney, Will Johnson, Frank Meade, Howard Bates, Mrs. Todd, Mrs. Katz, Mrs. Bates. Mrs. Meade, Mrs. Roode, Mins Kittle Polack Mr. and Mrs. Brundage, Mr. and Mrs. Cole. Each of the guests upon leaving were presented by Master Ralph with a box of

NEWPORT, R. L. Dec. 5.—One hundred naval apprentice boys made a dash for liberty this afternoon and twenty succeeded escaping from Coasters' Harbor island. The Newport and cavalry police have been asked to help state officials in capturing the boys. The trouble is said to be the outgrowth of the refucal of furloughs for the Christmas

The outbreak occurred in the absence of Commander Dickens, who is in Warning-ton on official business. Trouble has been browing several days among the apprentices. It culminated today when they formed a fly-ing wedge and at full speed dashed over tured in the vicinity. Others returned vol untarily, but twenty are still unaccounted NEW YORK, Dec. 5 .- The World tomor-
