"I received the most regal reception everywhere," anid the commander yesterday morning when questioned about his trip. "I was met in every city by reception committees and was magnificently treated by the members of the Grand Army of the Republic."

The commander's progress through the east and the receptions he received have been noted in the daily papers. He left Omala November 16, accompanied by Captain Palmer and Andrew Traynor of his staff. The trip was taken in response to talegrams and letters of invitation from the eastern posts, the post of New York City. The commander confined his visits almost entirely to treposts in the states of New York and Penneylvania. He remembers particularly the magnificant receptions he received from the posts in New York City. Philadelphia, Brooklyn and Washington.

The trip entailed some work, as the commander was called upon frequently to make addresses. He has epoken every evening but two since leaving town. In addition, he was often called upon for remarks during the days, especially to school children. Yesterday morning he mentioned particularly two andeness of school children which he had ad-

"My addresses were along patriotic lines," said Commander Clarkson. "I spoke to the veterans on their duty in these times of peace. I advocated particularly military training in the public schools and carefully edited school histories. From what I have seen, the old soldiers are doing a magnificent work in instilling patriotism in the younger Fuerday and Wednesday of last week

Major Clarkson was in consultation with his executive committee in Buffalo. The next annual encampment will be held in that city if certain conditions, especially in regard to railroad rates, are fulfilled. The meeting was occupied with the necessary details in preparation for the encampment. Last Wednesday Major Clarkson and th executive committee spent an hour with President-elect McKinley at Canton. They were received by members of the army and essorted to the home of the next president The visitors enjoyed a most agreeable chat

'We had no axes to grind and no offices to seek." explained the major yesterday morn-ing. "All that I asked him was that he would attend the next encampment. He agreed to do this, saying that it was the only engagement be had made and the only one he had

Following this trip the commander will make another into the southern jurisdiction. This will occur some time in April. He will then journey westward as far as the coast, visiting the posts in New Mexico, Arizona,

Contest Will Be an

Expensive Affair. The popocratic legislative contest is grinding away at the Jacksonian club rooms. So far not a particle of evidence has been in troduced that tends to show any irregularity in connection with the election and the only apparent result of the tellous wranging is t indicate the tremendous bill of costs that the legislature will be asked to pay out of the state treasury. The populate are evidently disposed to work the snap for all it is worth for they have enough attorneys at work of the case to conduct a term of district court Then the stenographer's bill will be some thing formidable. Aside from the Que proceedings of the contest a vast amounof material from the records of the county clerk's office and that of the clerk of the district court has been offered in evidence by the contestants and will have to be transcribed in the records. Much of this is not apparently relevant to the case, but male and the state will be expected to for

The entire session yesterday afternoon was occupied by the testimony of Albyn Frank and his deputy, John D. Harris. The efforts of the contestants were directed toward the discovery of what had been done with the orders for naturalization papers that had been sent in by John Lewis and which seemed to have disappeared. They discovered that the documents had been returned to Lewis as soon as the fees had been pair Deputy Harris was questioned at length in regard to the naturalization of various in-dividuals whose voting qualifications are evi-dently to be called in question during the course of the contest.

The felines are now occupying one of the front windows of the store at Fifteenth and Dougas streets. There is no scrapper in the number and consequently they are quietly enjoying their new quarters. It is the intention of Mr. Cartwright to cage the cats and exhibit them among the other wild animals that will be seen in the society circus parade and show.

The advertisement in the papers was the cause of an amusing incident yesterday moraing. Some kind-hearted woman noticed the ads and at once jumped to the conclusion that the shoe dealer intended to skin the animals to obtain a new kind of shoe leather, or that he possibly proposed to run an experimental station in connection with the store. She onsequently notified the Nebraska Humane ociety. Mr. Cartwright was visited by one of the officers of the association. All forebodings were allayed, however, and the felines were allowed to remain.

OFFICERS FOR LETTER CARRIERS.

Chosen Last Evening and Will Be Installed in January.

The annual meeting of branch No. 5, Na. ional Letter Carriers' association, was held last evening. The principal business was the election of officers for the ensuing year and resulted as follows: President, John M. Stafford; vice president, M. A. Martin of South Omaha; recording secretary, E. L.

Hoag; financial secretary, Charles B. New ton; treasurer, A. P. Hansen; sergeant-at-arms, Jacob Jensen; trustees, O. N. Birkett, Charles G. Flink and Ed N. Bowles; colpoter Mutual Eenefit association, Walter L. Victor. Of these officers the recording and financial secretaries were re-elected. The installation will be held on the second Saturday in January, and it is the intention to have it a little something out of the ordinary. After the formal installation there will be a supper and a literary and

The letter carriers have not ceased their cork in the effort to secure the session of the national association here in 1828. The plans were discussed at some length, and it was decided to entertain the delegates who pass through here next year on their way to the meeting in San Francisco, at east as many of them as can be induced to stop over. The largest delegation will be from New York, and accompanying them will be the letter carriers' band of that city, which is one of the fluest nusical or ganizations in the metropolis. The local confingent will endeavor to have them stop over and give a concert. For the purpose of defraying the expenses of these enter-tainments it is intended to give a series of entertainments during the coming year.

Old Resolution Censuring Ex-Commissioner Paddock Expunged from the Record_interne for County Hospital.

The Board of County Commissioners held a long session yesterday morning, at which a large amount of routine business was transacted. A resolution was introduced by Jenkins, providing that part of the report of the finance committee, bearing date February 21, 1894, relating to a resolution introduced by ex-Commissioner Paddock, be expurged from he records. The resolution of Mr. Paddock rovided that the commissioners should oluntarily cut their salaries 20 per cent the interest of retrenchment. The report of the finance committee on this resolution was a very scrid denunciation of Commissioner Paddock for drawing full pay as commissioner, while the records showed that he was absent the greater part of the time The report was signed by Jenkins and Williams, and the resolution introduced by Jenkins provided that the portion of the eport reflecting upon Mr. Paddock be ex-unged. Jenkins and Williams supported the esolution and it was unanimously adopted. The county attorney was directed by resolution to proceed against the sureties on the bond of the German Savings bank to ecover the sum of $39,699.47, on deposit in uch bank at the time its doors were closed. The sureties on the bond of the bank for the sufekeeping of public funds are L. D. Fowler, Charles J. Karbach, W. Segelke and Wiliam Krug, the bond being for $100,000. The same action was ordered taken against he Midland State bank to recover the sum th bank when it closed its doors Septembe

OVERLAND NOT LIKELY TO CONTROL IT

Will Probably Be Operated in Harmony with the Union Pacific, However-Effect of Opening the Ogden Gateway.

Oliver W. Mink, receiver and comptrolled of the Union Pacific, will leave for New York this morning. He goes on important business pertaining to the foreclosure of the Oregon Short Line, which matter semes to be one of pretty general concern among the rallroads,

When asked yesterday morning whether the Union Pacific would retain a controlling interest in the Short Line, Mr. Mink said: The reorganization of the Short Line is through a stock ownership which now represents less than a controlling interest. Prior to the receivership there was a traffic contract which gave it almost absolute control independent of its stock ownership. My judgment is that the owners of the Short Line property, as reorganized, will operate it as independent property, though probably not in hestility to the interests of the Union

"How will the Short Line be sold?" was "The same as any other mertgaged property is sold to meet a mortgaged debt. It will probably be bought in by the reorganization committee, acting in the interests of the reorganized company. The control of the title in the property will then be vested in the new company, in which the interests of the Union Pacific will not be sufficient to entrol its operations." "How will the sale affect eastern reads?" "As I intimated before, it will not terially change the existing traffic relations, although it is impossible at this stage of the proceedings to make any definite statement defaulted, causing it to be said?"

"The foreclosure proceedings, which par-haps control the situation, were instituted under a defaut of the payment of the interest n the consolidated bonds. No interest has passed into the hands of the receivers, in October, 1893." "Will it not hurt the Union Pacific by ening the Denver and Ogden gateway to nion Pacific if the Orden and Denver gate appened. This would let in all competing and the had effects would be "Can you say who the auditor and genral manager will be?"

"No, I know nothing about the personnel "No, I know nothing about the personner of the reorganization. My judgment is that the reorganization committee has been childed to spend so much time in perfecting the details of the plan, arranging for the sale and taking inventory of the property, that it has not yet considered the question of general or local organization."
"Are the receivers satisfied with the line's

'Are the receivers satisfied with the line's csent earnings?" Oh, yes, about as well as they are satisfied with anything else in life. You know how that is yourself, probably." "Do you think all of this matter will cause my further dissolution in the old Union

'I do not think the reorganization of the Short Line will have any effect on the schemes or plans for reorganization of any other parts of the system. So far as the Union Pacific lines making up the Union Pacific proper are concerned the security holders in a great fart will deposit their recurities with a reorganization committee, which will attempt to advance its plan independent of the plans made or suggested for reorganization of any of the branch line recursive reactions.

Archie Ross, who was arrested in this city last September on information from Grand Island, where he was wanted for Gorgery, was a few days ago sentenced to three years in the penitentiary. As soon as he serves his sentence, the authorities of Chicago will take him. He is wanted by them for breaking jail after being convicted of burglary.

The cases of contagious disease in the city are becoming less frequent and have very nearly reached the normal number. But diphtheria and scarlet fever are gradually decreasing and there are scarcely half as many cases as were posted a month ago. So fai his month the reports of both diseases have aggregated but one case a day, and this indicates that the semi-epidemic that has continued for several months is over. Painful discuses are lead enough, but when a
