Wonderful Discovery Made by a Local Religious Editor.

CONJURES UP A JESUIT CONSPIRACY

Some Facts About the Society of Jesus, How It is Managed, Training and Duty of Members and Its Present Strength.

OMAHA, Dec. 11.—To the Editor of The Bee: The smoke of battle has cleared away and the vanquished battalions have capitulated to the electoral majority which rules this "land of the free" and "home of the brave."

How the battle was fought and how the victory was won is now a thrice told tale, which the secular press would class with ancient history. Not so, however, with the religious press. A recent number of the Omaha Christian Advocate would have us believe that this country has had a miraculous escape from a Jesuit conspiracy, which, through the election of Bryan, sought to gain control of this republic. In support of this startling revelation the Christian Advocate affirms its belief in a statement made on what it regards as good authority, that when the Jesuits were driven out of Berlin and Prussia they declared that they would colonize the western territories of the United States, and by that means get control of the United States government.

There was a time when the workings of the Jesuits were wrapped in mystery. That mystery has long since been dispelled, and information concerning them is now accessible to everybody. The most complete suppression of the order near the close of the last century, when their houses and effects, books, records, etc., were seized, afforded ample scope for the Jesuit plot. It is still more recently Leo XIII. himself ordered the most secret recesses of the Vatican library to be thrown open to inspection and transcription to friend and foe. All is now thoroughly revealed and the so-called secrets of the Jesuits and Jesuit life have ceased to be secrets.

ORGANIZATION OF THE JESUITS. As the embodiment of the church militant the society of Jesus, as it is styled, is organized like an army. Its highest officer is called "Father General," the most conspicuous of the military spirit of its founder, the Knight Ignatius of Loyola. The general is elected for a term of six years, but for the last several years he has been banished from that city, and has taken up his abode at a village of Pesele, near Florence. There he is surrounded by a council, which is made up of five assistants, each of whom is called, and a secretary. Each assistant represents the Jesuits who speak Latin, French, Italian, Spanish and English.

The Italian assistants number 1,874 members, the German 3,729, the French 2,011, the Spanish 2,949, the English 2,435. Thus there are, all counted, 14,059 Jesuits in the world. The father superior makes up for the lack of numbers by his energy, his organization and individual efficiency. At the time of the suppression there were about 22,000, and they were then at the foremost period of their "fulfillment."

But what about the secret? They are counted in the 14,059. In free countries like this there are no secrets, what ever. But when, in the reigns of Queen Elizabeth and her successors, to be a Jesuit in England was counted high treason, there was no choice for them but to be banished, drawn and quartered or to live and labor incognito, in all manner of disguises. In those days a doctor or a minister, a lawyer or a peddler or a valet, and even a sportsman or a gentleman at leisure, might be a Jesuit in disguise. The Jesuits are again banished from the continent of Europe. The Jesuits are again banished from the continent of Europe. The Jesuits are again banished from the continent of Europe.

THE GENERAL OF THE JESUITS at present is a Spaniard called Father Louis Martin. He was elected in December, 1894, by a general congregation of the order, which met in the city of Rome. TO BE BUILT OF GLASS. An Architectural Oddity to Be Erected at Newport. A magnificent mansion, built entirely of colored glass bricks, has been planned to be built at Newport, R. I., for a Pacific coast millionaire. The architects are not yet permitted to disclose the name of the prospective owner of this unique architectural oddity—first, because it is still abroad, and second, because certain details of construction have not yet been determined. This building, which will be designed somewhat after the style of an old Pompeian palace, is to be begun during the winter of 1897, and will cost $1,000,000. The design and the great care and skill required in the construction of the building, it will not be completed under two years.

FACE AND BLEEDING. My little boy was afflicted with Eczema in severe form for a year, during which we tried every remedy, but without success. The doctor prescribed a course of treatment, but it did not help. I then saw an advertisement for Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People, and I bought a box. I gave my little boy one pill three times a day, and in a few days the itching and burning subsided. In a few more days the skin began to clear up, and in a few more days it was completely cured. I am now able to give my little boy all the pleasures of childhood, and I am very grateful to Dr. Williams for his wonderful medicine.

of poverty, chastity and obedience. The next two years are spent in a post-graduate course of ancient and modern literature; then three years are spent in logic, metaphysics, ethics, the higher mathematics, astronomy, physics and chemistry. After this the academic, being then some 25 years old on an average, receives the degree of bachelor of arts. He is then assigned to a professor or prefect of discipline among college students. Four years of theology follow, after which he is ordained a priest. One year more is given to further studies in spirituality and self-abasement in the novitiate. Then he is allowed to take his last vows and is ready to enter upon the duties of his office. Those duties to which the Jesuits owe the warm love of earnest Catholics, and the number of Jesuit priests thus employed within the boundaries of the United States is about 600. With these we are chiefly concerned. They exercise most of that influence for good or evil which is no doubt very great in reality, and appears still greater in the minds conjured up by fervent imaginations from the merely good of ignorance. Let me adjust my X-rays so that in their bright light I may catch and locate all the elements of this dark hand.

I see it extending its grasp over the entire map of our beloved country; 230 Jesuits scattered over its eastern portions, 152 over the Pacific border, 53 in California, 42 in New Mexico and Colorado; 52 among the Indian tribes of the Rocky mountains; 20 among the borders of Canada, and a few in Alaska, doing such work in our day as Marquette did in his. There are about 640 in all.

THE MISSOURI PROVINCE. Take a glance over the central portion of the United States, the part dominated on the Jesuit map, "the province of Missouri." They are distributed as follows: St. Louis, Mo., has thirty-six; St. Charles, Mo., two; Kansas City, Mo., two; Platteau, Mo., where the Novitiate is situated, twenty; Chicago, Ill., twenty-nine; St. Mary's, Minn., seven; Detroit, Mich., twelve; Cincinnati, Ohio, twenty; Milwaukee, Wis., thirteen; Omaha, twelve. Of the thirty-six put down to St. Louis, six are in the city, giving missions in cities and towns, wherever the little regular army of Jesuits that causes so much trouble to the Omaha Christian Advocate and the secret society of America. Why is this band so secret? That notion is a myth; there are no secret grips or signs or passwords, and no more secrets than belong to any business. But it is a band of picked and trained men. No one is accepted among them who is not a member of the order of pure blood, sound mind, sound body and bright spirit, and he goes through seven years of further training. Then they obey every command of their office with military precision. Obedience to their order is their watchword; prompt and perfect of obedience they carry it into everyday life as soldiers. This order is more perfect than the soldier's; for no one among them has a right to any rank or office. Like the tenacious leaders who commanded day by day in the ranks of the army, the cause is all with them, and that cause they understand to be the kingdom of God on earth, the kingdom of Christ in the hearts of men. History speaks of many a bold little army that achieved wonderful success; such seems to be their band.

Yet even all this is, humanly speaking, inadequate to explain their efficiency for good or evil. The secret of their success lies in devices are excoctated. They are secret and scheme, play the dagger here and use poison there; make kings and nobles and politicians their tools. They are secret and scheme, play the dagger here and use poison there; make kings and nobles and politicians their tools. CHARMS OF A PRETTY GIRL SPOTTED BY SINGING. She was visiting in the city, and she was the prettiest girl in the room, relates the Chicago Tribune. When she stood up to sing the other girls regarded her enviously. A pretty girl who can sing is doubly dangerous, and they considered that the visitor had already received more than her proper share of masculine attention. "I don't think it's a shame," said the first girl, vexedly. "She's captured all the men's eyes well—and just lines, too, does—she won't have a bit of fun tonight."
