

AMUSEMENTS.

During the past week the final curtain has been rung down upon the earthly career of two men of exceeding prominence upon the stage. Both were foreigners by birth and Americans by choice and naturalization.

The writer enjoyed a personal acquaintance with Alexander Salvini, extending over several years. His acquaintance was a thing of itself and was not a mere acquaintance.

On another occasion the writer, happening to possess a rather good copy of "The Three Guardsmen," with illustrations by Maurice LeBlond, brought it down one night to Salvini's dressing room.

The chief incidents of Alexander Salvini's life are well known. His father tried to make a civil engineer of him, but the boy's leaning toward the stage was so strong that the old man finally relented.

Hermann probably enjoyed a greater personal popularity than any "marionette" who ever appeared before the Omaha public.

IT CAN'T BE DONE.

No One Can Remain Well, No Chronic Disease Can Be Cured Unless the Stomach is First Made Strong and Vigorous.

This is plain, because every organ in the body depends on the stomach for its nourishment. Nerve, bone, sinew, blood are made from the food which the stomach converts to our use.

gentleman is of far greater moment than his opinion of them. But this manager seems to have a peculiarly offensive opinion of a class which does so much to degrade the stage.

Claw & Erlanger will present "The Lady Slavey" at the Creighton theater Tuesday and Wednesday nights, December 22 and 23.

On the occasion of his last engagement here about a year ago, he played "Hamlet" for the first time in Omaha and among the first times he had played it anywhere.

On another occasion the writer, happening to possess a rather good copy of "The Three Guardsmen," with illustrations by Maurice LeBlond, brought it down one night to Salvini's dressing room.

"I don't know whether you have noticed," he said, in his usual fluent English, which showed only the faintest suspicion of a trace of foreign accent.

The Christmas attraction at the Creighton will be "The Merry World," which is a popular favorite here, and has been produced in this country for three nights commencing Thursday, December 24.

and Leo Hauser; and its text, more nearly than ever before, represents the literary ability of the more notable persons connected with the theater.

The Nebraska Music hall offers for the coming week a special attraction in the person of Sig. Almon Zhenyi, for whom it is intended to stage a series of the greatest vocal and instrumental.

MUSIC.

Christmas music may be said to have begun when the angels sang to the shepherds upon the hills of Palestine, "Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, good will toward men."

Christmas, or the celebration of the birthday of Christ, was instituted some 300 years after the year in which the event actually occurred.

The Christian churches of Egypt and Asia celebrated the nativity upon January 6, but the Romans fixed upon December 25.
