

DAY COUNCIL PROCEEDINGS

Majority and Minority Reports on the Howell Investigation.

BOTH ADMIT THE CHARGES ARE PROVEN

Minority Recommend His Dismissal—Barber Claim Shelved for Good—Mayor's Veto of Water Works Extension Sustained.

The anticipated double report from the special committee that has investigated the charges of official irregularity made against City Engineer Howell was presented at the adjourned meeting of the city council last night.

RECOMMENDED DISMISSAL

The evidence taken by the committee on the investigation of the charges fully sustains the charges, but it was brought to light a state of facts that show the existence of a dangerous conspiracy to involve the city of Omaha in a financial disaster.

SIMPLY A SUGGESTION

The majority of the committee reported they found that the city engineer "did not demand, but did suggest" to E. L. Bierbower and A. B. Hunt and also to Stockton Heath and A. H. H. Hunt.

BARBER BILL TURNED DOWN

The bills of the Barber Asphalt company were apparently finally turned down as far as the present council is concerned.

WATCH FOR HASCALL

A question of variation Wheeler rose to a question of retaining the veto.

ONLY A HALF DENIAL

It is true that he denies that he had the interview with the city engineer in December, 1896, as detailed by said Bierbower in his evidence.

On a committee recommendation the ordinance repealing the curfew ordinance was referred to the city attorney.
