The remains of Mrs. Belle Lafferty Lock-wood did not arrive yesterday afternoon, as was expected, and the funeral, which was set for today, has been postponed. Mrs. Lockwood was taken from her home in Omaha to Richmond, Va., some time ago, in the hope that the change would benefit her health. She was very frail when she left and she never regained her strength. The funeral will take place from the residence of her sister, Mrs. W. H. Robinson, on Oakland avenue, when the body arrives.

Several conferences have been held be-tween the street commissioner and the other city officers relative to putting into force the recent decision requiring all property owners to clean the snow from their side walks, and upon their failure to do so, to have the work done by the street gangs and the expense charged to the property. There has been a general manifestation of a will-There ingness of property owners to comply with the order, but some will have to have the work done for them to cause them to realize that the city officers are in earnest about the matter.

N. Y. Plumbing company. Tel. 250. Sues the City of Creston.

Suit will be filed in the federal court this morning by the American Loan and Trust company against the city of Creston for $11,800 claimed to be due for water rentals. water works of Creston are owned by W. B. Millard and several other Omaha men, though the rental from the city of Creston is pledged to the Trust company for the payment of the interest on the bonds holds against the company, which brings the Trust company in as plaintiff. For sey eral years the city of Creston has been de linquent in the payment of water tax. The valuation of the city is about $1,000,000, and, according to the law of the state, a levy of 5 mills is allowed for water tax. This only netted a revenue to the city for this purpose of about $5,000, which has left a balance due for some time. Over a year ago the American Loan and Trust company obtained a judgment against the city of Creston for $7,800 on the same grounds. The case has ben appealed to the supreme court and is now pending. The case was tried be fore Judge Towner at Creston, in the district court. The amounts now being sued for are the rentals that have accumulated since the commencement of the first suit.

based on the fact that the state law does not allow of a greater levy for the purpose of meeting the water tax of municipal cor porations than 5 mills. It is also claimed that at certain times of the year the company has failed to furnish the proper supply

Accounts as Administrator of Two Estates Show Him Deeply In Debt, but He Gives Trust Deeds to Secure Bondsmen.

Considerable apprehension is felt as to the whereabouts of J. N. Casady, who left Council Bluffs on New Year's day and has not yet returned. His affairs are greatly involved, and two estates of which he was executor are said to be in bad shape. A trust deed for $15,000 was filed with the county recorder to protect the sureties on Prof. H. W. Sawyer returned yesterday county recorder to protect the sureties on morning from a week's visit with friends his bonds, Thomas Bowman being named in St. Joseph and Trenton. Mo. He will as- as trustee. The property transferred includes a number of lots and several tracts of farm land. The Habilities he intends to protect in the deed are enumerated as follows; On his bond as secretary and treasurer of the Fairview Cemetery association, Thomas Bowman, Denald Macrae and W. H. Hardin; on his bond as executor of the Vogel estate, E. M. Casady, M. F. Rohrer and T. E. Casady, and his debt to the Grosvenor estate. in addition to the trust deed three warranty deeds were filed, one to Officer & Pusey. ransferring 139 acres of farm land for $700 one for Mary Z. Casady, transferring about thirty acres in Council Bluffs to his wife

Mr. Bowman said yesterday that the whereabouts of Mr. Casady were unknown to all his family and friends. The news of his disappearance had come so suddenly that no one knew where he had gone. The deeds recorded yesterday had been sent from Des Moines, that being the last heard from the nissing man. The heirs of the Grosvenor estate filed a potition this morning, asking that Mr. Casady be at once removed. The hearing was held at once by Judge Thornell and the request granted on the showing made of Casady's disappearance and his action in giving the trust deed. The petitioners were Mary L. Pugh, Gerd Grosvenor and Louisa P. Grosvenor. John P. Pugh was appointed executor. Last December a petition was filed by the heirs of Herman Vogel asking that Casade by walk that Casady be made to give an accounting.

At the last report of the estate it was shown that he was indebted to estate to the extent of $5.996. Since the making of the report it is understood that some money was paid to one of the heirs, reducing his Cas-ady's liability to the estate to about $6,000. The indebtedness to both the Vogel and Grosvenor estates is not secured except by note and the bond given by Casady as administrator and executor.

Van Ross, Who Created a Sensation with a Club, is in Jail. Van Ross, the negro who was locked up n a charge of having stolen an overcoat from Solomon's clothing store, is being held in the city jail upon a more serious charge. There is a double charge of larceny against him, and he is also charged with assault with intent to commit murder. He has been identified as the pegro who made a raid upon a stack of calleo piled in front of the Bos-ton store, and made a desperate fight and escaped after being pursued by several of the clerks and a crowd of citizens.

When Ross left the store with five bolts of calleo under his arm, he ran down Fourth street, followed by one of the clerks, named Jensen. He was a good sprinter and had a little start, and after dodging through numerous alleys he had reached the alley in the rear of Groneweg & Schoent-gen's wholesale house before he was overhauled. In the fight that followed Ross dropped his calleo, and, seizing a stick of cordwood, made a murderous attack upon Jensen avoided the blows aimed at his head, and escaped injury, but George Blank, an old man who happened to be com-ing through the alley just then, did not fare so well. Ross struck the old man on the arm, producing a compound fracture. The negro abandoned his calico, and with hi club fought his way through the crowd that was gathering and escaped. Yesterday he visited in the city jail by Jense Blank and others, who positively identified him as the calico thief. He will have a hearing in police court today.

Deplorable Case of Destitution. Mrs. J. N. Miller, who conducts the Fif teenth street mission, reports the discovery of a family named Miller, living on Twelfth street and Eleventh avenue, which is in a pitiable state of destitution. When her attention was called to them and a visit made the woman was found in her bed with a babe four days old. The bed was a mis-erable excuse and consisted of a few rags and a bunch of straw. The woman had re-ceived no medical attention and was in a sad plight. There was no fire in the house and no food. There were two other children, one 3 years old and the other 21 months. The husband was found sitting in a corner of the cheerless room stupidly staring at the floor, and the women believed that he was in the depths of despair. one pile of rags was the only bed the house afforded for all the members of the family The husband claimed to be utterly unable to find employment. The last work he did was to saw a little wood and take his pay in wood, Mrs. Miller and Mrs. J. L. HAS PLANS TO BUILD CREAMERIES for Developing Its Country.

DES MOINES, Ia., Jan. 5 .- (Special.)-The Chicago Great Western road is starting a new scheme, in line of its policy of developing the country through which its roads run It has employed a general creamery agent whose business will be to interest people in building and operating co-operative creameries. C. H. Freeman, who has built scores of creameries on this plan in lows. has been engaged and given a list of ove twenty towns in Iowa, and as many more in Missouri and Minnesota, in which he is expected to place creameries this year. The concerns will be built by co-operative assoclations of farmers, the plan that has proved so successful in this state in the last three years. The railroad will have no interes in them except as it will be benefited by their business. Meetings will be held at every point favorable for the location of a factory, and the plants and machinery will be put in at the cost price. The owns in which creameries are proposed t be built this year are West Platte, Willow Brook, Deer Creek, Savannah, Bush, Rea. Concessions to Steamships to Bring the Export Grain Trade Back to that Port_Eric Road Lends Off.

NEW YORK, Jan. 5 .- Eastern railroads have at last decided to take a hand in restoring the grain trade of New York, which during the last two years has been slipping. Platte. Ice cutting was commenced at Laraway to southern ports on accounts of the amie last week and the houses at that point prohibitive terminal charges hero. These terminal charges were made the basis of the complaint which the New York Produce Com-mission exchange filed with the Interstate a week ago. Then we had to stop as we had Commerce commission with a view to com-pelling the roads to grant the same facilities started in again yesterday." pelling the roads to grant the same facilities to steamship companies that are granted a Baltimore, Newport News and other ports No charge at all is made at some of the Santa Fe Ex-Officials Arraigned Be southern ports. The indications now are that the decired result will be brought about voluntarily by the roads, who see that the business interests of this city are identical with their own and that they have been and John A. Henley, ex-traffic manager of heavy losers by refusing to effer as good facilities to shippers as the southern roads from the established freight rates do. It is not known that the Joint Traffic association has taken definite action, though there is a thorough understanding in regard to the action of several of the roads. The steamship Edwin is now taking a cargo of 100,000 bushels of corn at the Eric grain elevator in Jersey City. It goes to Cork, Ireland. The corn was shipped from the west and it is said to be expressed on a through bill of lading.

The incident is important, because this is said to be the first large steamship that has loaded at a railroad elevator in this vicinity for a number of years, although a common thing for smaller craft. The extra charge diverted business from New York and there was not business enough to keep the slips at the elevators dredged for large steamships The elevators, as if by a concerted plan have recently dredged out their slips and wonted activity in the export grain trade For some time past most of the grain from the elevators intended for export has been imposed for the leading. In the opinion of grain men the invitation to large come to the elevators means nothing ess than the offering of free loading or some oncessions equivalent to this, which may granted to the shipper in the west. It is believed also at the Produce exchange that the action of the Erie is simply the beginning of a program for beating the south-ern railreads at their own game, at which all of the other trunk lines will take a part, and that they are prepared to get business as best they may.

The Union Pacific has begun the annual work of cutting ice and filling its several ico houses along the line for the coming well posted on the ice cutting, said yester- its decision tonight, day: "There is no doubt but there will be plenty of ice next summer, so far as the Union Pacific is concerned. The ice is of splended quality. They don't freeze any better anywhere in the world. The ice in this state is all about ten inches in thickness, while that in Wyoming is sixteen inches tbick. We are now loading ice at Gothen-burg and Kearney for the ice house at North are being rapidly filled. We have made big additions to the ice house at Evanston and the work of filling that house will soon be fore Judge Grossenp. CHICAGO, Jan. 5 .- In the United States ourt Judge Grosscup today took up the trial of Joseph W. Rinchart, ex-president, from the established freight rates of the road. The indictments against years ago. They were based upon shipping transactions, during the fall of 1892. The particular shipments are, 178 car loads of cattle shipped from Kansas City by Jesse Thompson. The regular rate then 33½ cents per 100 pounds. The dictment charges that Rinehart and Henley gave a rebate of $5 a car to Thompson. The second is an alleged shipment during the summer and fall of 1892, to the G. H. Hammend Packing company, and the payment to W. P. Jenkins, the manager of the company, of a like rebate of $5 a car, the payment hav-ing been made October 12, 1892.

PLAN TO REDUCE THE EXPENSES Move to Abolish Ticket Office in

Council Bluffs. For several months past two propositions to cut down expenses in the operation of the passenger departments of several western roads have been under consideration. One is to withdraw the ticket agents from uptown offices in Council Bluffs. The other is to abolish the ticket offices near the Union depot in Kansas City. Neither proposition has suc ceeded in the past because of a failure of all the roads interested in the matter to agree to close their ticket offices at the places

The matter is on the call for next Mon day's meeting of the Western Passenger as-sociation. Two months ago when the same matter was considered the Wabash and the Rock Island roads refused to agree to it, and it fell through. It is understood that the Union Pacific is also opposed to the move.

Clouds Break Away and Snow Melts
Under the Sun.

Railroading was somewhat more satisfactory yesterday than Monday. Passenger trains were run more nearly on schedule time and freight trains that were ignored Monday were handled yesterday. Train No. 4 of the Union Pacific came in from the west, drawn by two big engines, right on time. Four freight trains were moved out on time.

Reed, Jimmy Ainscow and a traiveling man, F. W. Porter, happened to be passing. "Get off the earth!" yelled Brown. Reed and Ainscow had business on the next corner, but Porter, who is hard of hearing, falled to grasp the idea until too late. "I can lick my weight in wildeats." volunteered Brown at errific left-hander, which sent that surprised individual to the sidewalk. A crowd quickly collected, but Brown dodged Brown visited a number of saloons early Officers Edgehill and Sargent were on the carpet on complaint of Mrs. Stapenhorst, who alleged that her son was arrested by them without cause. Under orders from Chief Sigwart, Edgehill and Sargent were directed to break up a gang of young rough who were in the habit of making night hideous in an alley near Seventeenth Leavenworth streets. About a week Charles Stapenhorst and Emil Reese were this gang. Upon examination before Judge Gordon they were found not to be the boys wanted and were dismissed. The officers were repremanded and directed to use more care in the future in making arrests.

The following applications for saloon IIcenses were granted: C. A. Peterson, 220; South Thirteenth street; P. E. Her & Co. 1112 Harney; Oscar W. Johnson, 424 North Sixteenth; Peter J. The beet sugar matter came up for consideration for a few minutes. County Com-missioner Williams, who was appointed chairman of the farmers' committee at the recent beet sugar meeting, was on hand and was called upon for a talk. He said that there was no doubt that in a few years Douglas county would be able to produce enough beets for the factory that it is proposed to locate here. In the meantime, he stated, the factory could draw upon other portions of the state for beets if necessory. He said also that the farmers of the eary. ome of them would undoubtedly subscribe o stock in the company that is to build the lant.

The club was requested to appoint delegates to the annual convention of the braska Beet Growers' association, which meets in Hastings February 2-3. Chairman Dumont was selected as one of the delegaon, and was empowered to choose his com-

A Babe's Untold Suffering And Mother's Many Sleepless Nights.

I herewith write out in full the beginning and end of that terrible disease, Eczema, which caused my babe untold suffering, and myself many sleepless nights. My baby was born seemingly a fair, healthy child, but when she was three weeks old a swelling appeared on the back of her head, and in course of time broke. Every one called it a boil, and, now it had broken, would soon heal, but that was only the beginning of the trouble. It did not heal but grew worse, and the sore spread from the size of a dime to that of a dollar. I used all kinds of remedies that I could think of but nothing seemed to help, in fact it grew worse, her hair fell out where the sore was and I feared it would never grow again. It continued until my aged father came on a visit, and when he saw the baby he told me "to get CUTICURA SOAP and CUTICURA ointment right away." To please him I did so, and to my surprise, by their use the sore began to heal over, the hair grew over it, and to-day she has a nice head of hair, her skin is as fair as a hity, and she has no scar left to recall that awful sore.

CUTICURA soothes and allays all itching and burning that cause a child to fret and the mother to worry, and gives rest and comfort both to parent and child.
