the 3d day of November, 1896. The abstract of votes, as compiled by the state canvaesing board, was then handed to Speaker Gaffin. Speaker Gaffin announced that he had opened the returns of the general elec-tion, and now declared and published the following as duly elected: compelled to do this after every meal. Dys-pepsia, that inexorable persecutor, never ccases to torment of its own volition, and rarely yields to ordinary medication. But tranquillity of the stomach is in store for those who pursue a course of Hosiciter's Stomach Bitters. This fine corrective also remedies malarial and kidney complaints, rheumatism, constipation, billousness and nervousness.
