Silk Department.

Ever alert for new things—prompts us to keep sales active in this department. The marvellous business keeps stock small.

The blacks in Duchesse, Penou de Sole and Armaux almost gone; small marvel when we are selling goods that were $1.00 for... 69 CENTS.

Laces and Embroideries.

See the beautiful new things—hand made and imitation torchon—Smyrna, Medici, Point de Paris, Platte and French Val, especially adapted for Underwear.

Hosiery and Underwear.

Before the ides of March the Frost King will nip your fingers and chill your marrow—will not if you provide your children with our heavy ribbed fast black full seamless hose at 10 cents a pair.

We will close a line of Children's Cashmere hose, which sold at 50c, now per pair... 25 CENTS.

The Following Items Will Appeal to Men.

Scotch Wool Mixtures in Shirts and drawers, were 25 CENTS. Heavy Wool Ribbed Shirts and Drawers at... 50 CENTS.

Linen Department.

Housekeepers cannot always tell that they are buying pure linen—goods mixed with cotton—no matter how slightly—are never sold for all linen by us.

Domestics, Flannels and Blankets.

Extra help engaged for this department—will need them to sell. A splendid yard wide unbleached muslin at... 4 CENTS.

Muslin Underwear.

Our pen is not facile enough to do justice to this stock—We have closed out almost every garment of last year's stock.

Cloak Department.

The moment that your eyes strike the cut—the seams—the finish—the up-to-dateness will impress you.

Jackets at $4, $5, $7.50, $10 and $12. Cost percentage not thought of—a clean-up is what we seek.

Lining Department.

Our 20 per cent discount made the sales in this department last week the greatest we have known.

BORDER LAND OF SCIENCE.

Some Further Explanation Upon the Subject of Hypnotism.

MANY THINGS ARE CLOTHED IN MYSTERY.

Scientific Discussion of Phenomena of Spiritualism by Rev. Coppens of the Creighton University of This City.

Last Sunday a portion of the address of Rev. Father Coppens, M. D., delivered before the medical class of the Creighton university was published in The Bee. Today the balance is published, the subject being "Border Land of Science."

CREDENTIALS OF CHRIST.

"Of all things, the Christian religion is the most mysterious and the most inexplicable. It is a religion which has no other basis than the person of Christ."

AN UNEXPECTED CALL.

It was known that many of the former adherents of General Grant, as well as of the followers of Mr. Conkling, were not friendly to the presidential candidature of Mr. Blaine.

MEETING OF FAMOUS LEADERS.

Hobbling on Crutches, General Grant called on Blaine. The name of General Grant as a candidate for the presidency was not presented before the republican national convention of 1884.

AN INCIDENT OF THE CAMPAIGN OF '84.

The name of General Grant as a candidate for the presidency was not presented before the republican national convention of 1884.

GRANT, WHO STOOD IN THE HALL LEANING UPON HIS CRUTCHES BY THE SIDE OF THE PHILADELPHIAN.

"Why, General Grant?" he quietly exclaimed as the old chief kindly extended his hand in recognition.

IMPIETIES.

Dean Farrar quotes Tennyson as having related to him the remark of a farmer who, after hearing a sea-and-land-monster sermon from an old-style preacher, consoled his wife by saying: "Never mind, Sally; that must be wrong. No consoothoon couldn't stand it."

ITCHING SKIN DISEASES. CUTICURA. It is sold throughout the world. For sale by Druggists, Grocers, and Dealers.
