Jean Villemann, a man who has given himolf and others considerable prominence ithin the last year, was endeavoring yesorday to have a warrant issued for the arrest of D. S. Kerr, a well known real estate agent, charging him with unlawfully withholding money which was the proceeds sales of property belonging to Villemann nd sold by the real estate man. The inforcation was filed in one Justice's court, but before the warrant was lesued the justice ith one of the business men who interered to prevent a complaint against Kerr eing entertained. Kerr, upon the advice Villemann's friends, has been holding the ld man's money in trust, with the undertanding that he should pay it out only as its needs required. Villemann's needs very urgent during the last few days, and he was constantly importuning his gent for money. On Saturday he gave him $25, and within an hour or two it was all cone. During the day he also purchased a suit of clothes for him, and the old man frew very indignant that he was required to out them on and leave his old ones as a cuaranty that he would wear them and not schange them for beer. This put the old and in a mental condition that occasioned ll the trouble yesterday. Jesse James was brought up from the ounty jail yesterday afternoon for the purpose of having his preliminary examination upon the charge of having kidnaped and abducted Frances Martin, the 17-year-old girl whose mother had compelled her to return home by the aid of a warrant charging her with incorrigibility. Jesse spent a very un-happy Sunday in the county jail and found me means of letting his sweetheart know all about it. She informed her friends that she would marry young James upon the very first opportunity and would prevent tlary upon the charge of kidnaping by going on the witness stand and swearing that she was not forcibly taken from Miss Murphy, her temporary guardian, but went freely ith him and climbed upon his load of hay with only the assistance of a slight gallant boost from her lover. There were several onferences between the old people during he day, which resulted in an amiable agreenent that the young people should be litted to get married in peace. Instead of eing called upon to sign a mittimus con the young man in the county intil the grand jury investigated the kidsaping charge Justice Vien affixed his name a marriage certificate after he had perormed the ceremony.

Although it is more than a week before the election takes place, all of the senatorial candidates are here and the contest wages warmly. Senator Squire and Judge Turner appear to have more individual strength than any of the many populist candidate. Judge Winsor and Rev. Clark Davis of Seattle, F. R. Baker of Tacoma and Lieutenant Governor Daniels of Vancouver are the most prominently mentioned. Many old-time politicians predict a prolonged deadlock, while Senator Squire has announced that it will not last one week. ATTORNEYS SUE FOR THEIR FEES.

Already Paid Many Thousands During Northern Pacific Receivership. MILWAUKEE, Wis., Jan. 11,-Colonel lames McNaught, for some time president of the Northern Pacific & Manltoba Railroad company, general counsel for the Northern Pacific company, and of counsel for Receivers Payre, Oakes and Rouse, has filed SALEM, Ore., Jan. 11.—The nineteenth suit in the United States circuit court biennial session of the legislature met at against the Northern Pacific Railway company, the new corporation, to recover a bal-ance of $4,000 alleged to be due for services in the interests of the receivers and to recover the proceeds of a note for $11, 743.20 given to secure fees for services curing the passage of a bill by the North Dakota legislature. The bills filed are the first to throw light upon the great sums of money which were paid to the attorneys in the Northern Pa-cific litigation. The investigation of Re-ceiver Oakes covered a period of about eleven months, and all the while the attorneys were also engaged in looking after the other affairs of the receivership. For their services in the investigation alone, however, the sum of $40,000 was paid. Of this amount John C. Spooner received $10,000, Colonel McNaught was allotted a similar amount, William Nelson Cromwell received $6,666.67, William J. Curtis and Alfred Jaretski to gether received $6.666.67, and George P. Mil-ler received $6.666.67. The suits are in the receivership proceeding, Colonel McNaught coming in under the provisions of the de-oree of foreclesure, which blads the purchaser of the property, the Northern Pacific Railroad company, to pay all indebtedness for which the receivers are liable. Judge Jerkins has ordered the North-ern Pacific Railroad company to file an an-swer to the suits before February 1.
