The snow storm yesterday did no damage to speak of, and only caused a delay of an hour and a half in the motor service. On account of the condition of the track the street cars were compelled to stop shortly after 12 o'clock, but by 1:30 they were running again without trailers. A large sweeper was sent down and cleared the tracks nicely, and by frequent running the line was kept open. The Albright and ${\bf Q}$ street stub lines succumbed early, but an effort was made during the afternoon to get them open for business. Live stock at the yards did not suffer, as plenty of shelter and feed was provided.

Mails from Omaha were delayed on account of the motor service, but the eastern mail arrived in time to be delivered to business BINGHAM, Neb., Jan. 12.—(Special.)—Mr. Charles Tipton Vannest of this place died Friday and was buried Sunday.
