Superintendent Jackson Surprises Some of the Well-Wishers in Lincoln. LINCOLN, Jan. 14.—(Special.)—Quite a number of the poplarite element were today astonished by the announcement that State Superintendent of Public Instruction William R. Jackson had appointed to a clerkship in his office Mrs. A. K. Goudy, wife of the superintendent who made way for her to get two years ago, after having occupied the office and enjoyed its emoluments for four years. Mrs. Goudy succeeds as clerk Miss Corbett, sister of the ex-superintendent. A. Goudy is always known to have been a strong republican, and the poplarite element professes to be unable to understand the motive of Superintendent Jackson in making this appointment. It is, however, severely criticized by some of the republicans.

A. C. Wright who acted as custodian of legislative supplies during the session two years ago and who has taken charge of the stationery left the state today. His successor, turned over his office to his successor, L. D. Stoner, this afternoon and this evening left for his home in Cass county. Mr. Wright feels that he has had a very successful record here. Generally in the past the legislature has managed to exhaust its supplies at the end of the session and leave the supplies for the next session in the hands of the printer. This year, however, the legislature has managed to exhaust its supplies at the end of the session and leave the supplies for the next session in the hands of the printer.

Soil Culture Lecture at Ogallala. OGALLALA, Neb., Jan. 14.—(Special.)—Prof. Campbell of Sioux City and Superintendent Park of the Union Pacific, paid this town a visit yesterday evening, and Mr. Campbell gave a lecture on the subject of soil culture. He reported on the subject of soil culture, and gave a very practical and profitable talk to the farmers who were present.

United Pacific company is taking steps to put in five experimental farms in western Nebraska, and they desire to locate one of them near the city of Ogallala. The company is also taking steps to put in a large number of people living in the dry belt that crops can be successfully raised in a dry season by the aid of Mr. Campbell's plan of soil culture. The two farms will be used for packing the soil and mulching the surface by frequent light cultivation. A lively interest was manifested in all that Mr. Campbell had to say on the subject, and many good questions were put to him by the audience, all of which he answered satisfactorily.

Will Collect from the Bondsmen. DAVID CITY, Neb., Jan. 14.—(Special.)—The county attorney has caused an execution to be issued against the bondsmen of Frank Davis, whose term of office expired January 1, 1894, to collect a shortage found by the county by an expert appointed by the county to check up his books, amounting with interest to $4,400. The case has been in the district court for three years, the county obtaining judgment in November, 1895, and the bondsmen failed to perfect an appeal to the supreme court before the expiration of the time allowed. Twenty-two names appear on the original bond, but of that number only some ten or eleven are solvent.

Not Puritanical. There is nothing puritanical about this PURITAN. Puritanism has softened with the centuries. The early Puritan—the Puritan woman—in American history stands for all that is best in our home life. It was she who gave the bent to our national character, she who inspired ambition, and toiled for education and the independence and refinement of the home. There is no more fitting name, then, for a woman's journal than

The Puritan. The Puritan of today is not restricted to New England, but is in every home where the virtues of the old Puritan, now softened and modernized, characterize the home life. And it is to these women—these gentlewomen—the modern Puritans—that this journal is dedicated. The PURITAN can be had from your newsdealer. Ask him for it. If he has sold his supply he can get you a copy, or you can get it direct from the publisher.

preparation of the editorial in this morning's Bee on the Judge McHugh appointment and confirmation. The views expressed in that article this morning coincide with the opinion of the bar of Saline county irrespective of party, nine-tenths of whom are sound republicans.

State Press Association Meets at Grand Island, Jan. 14.—(Special.)—The fifteenth annual convention of the Nebraska Press association was called to order this afternoon at 3 o'clock by President Dayton of York. The secretary read the proceedings of the previous meeting, which were promptly approved as read, and the president delivered his annual address. He acknowledged the assistance of the government in ceasing cutting rates until they were ashamed of their own business methods, and to perpetuate the stop of the government from competing with the country print shop in the printing of envelopes. He expressed his appreciation and congratulated the convention over the fact that it was the longest ever held by the Nebraska Press association. "It has," said he, "and should have no politics, and I would recommend that a committee of three be appointed to arrange the most ghastly penalty for the first member who introduces politics in any of his remarks during the sessions of the convention. He further recommended the establishment of other associations and the federation of the publishers of like political faith."
