Husband Without Notice. George Creamer, a former barkeeper in a neadquarters last evening and told a story of his wife's infidelity which was quite afecting. He said they had been living toether for many years in a little cottage near Fifth and Hickory streets. Two children were the results of the union.

For the past few months Creamer has been absent from his home nights, due to his work, and has had reasons for suspecting that his wife preferred the society of a handsome neighbor. Yesterday he went home about noon and was surprised to find the front door wide open and his home vacant. His wife and children had departed, and with them the household furnishings. Inquiry among the neighbors disclosed the fact that Mrs. Creamer had hired a large express wagon early that morning and had left about 10 o'clock, guarding her chattels from the driver's seat.

I am especially glad to welcome you to our church tonight. In stating the object of the meeting I think I can do no better than to read the call for this and similar meet ings that are being held throughout the country tonight. This call is issued by the representatives of the foreign missionary board of the United States and Canada.' The call contained an urgent appeal upon all Christian people in this and the neighboring country on the north for united action and a concentration of Christian thought for the cause of church missions.

It stated the necessity for renewed energy among all Christian people at this time, and emphasized the need of more liberal conributions to carry on the work. Rev. Dr. McCormick, paster of the Firs Presbyterian church, was the second speaker Creamer would like to have the police locate the woman. Dahlstrom Declined to Talk to Chairs.

A lecture on the Cuban revolution, by W. A. Dahlstrom, did not prove a drawing card at Washington hall last night. Evidently the people had too many troubles of their own to care to hear about those of the Cubans, for scarcely a dozen were in the hall when the speaker arrived; and as he declined to speak to such a small audience the meeting was dismissed.

We have today a missionary movement that is the most glorious the world, left last night for Chicago, where she will has ever seen." Rev. Dr. Warfield, pastor of the First Con gregational church, said it was useless to discuss the question whether the heathen would be lost if we did not send the gospel to them. "No matter about that," said Dr. Warfield, "I can tell you this: The American church is lost if it does not send the gospel to these benighted people. This century has seen the development of modern Christian missions. Why should the twen tieth century not see the triumph of this movement? It has been well said that the question of missions is one of finance, and it is our duty to provide the funds needed to sustain the work. There are today 267 missionary societies, and during the past year they contributed to foreign missions about $15,500,000. This amount is an inrease of $1,100,000 over the contributions of the year before, but in our own country there was a decrease in the contributions to foreign missions of $70,000. The company supporting this charming comedienne is said to be composed of well known players, who should succeed in pleasing during the brief engagement. A bargain matinee will be given Wednesday. The last two performances of "Alabama by Clement Bainbridge and his associate players will be given at Boyd's today, when one of the popular "bargain day" matinees will be given, and women and children will have another opportunity to see this beautiful play. The evening performance will commence at 8:15. "Human Hearts," by Hal Reid, which will be the attraction at Boyd's for four nights commencing with a matinee tomorrow, gives some vivid pictures of life in the Arkansas hills that will prove more than of passing interest to the average patron of the play house. This production has been received everywhere by enthusiastic audiences. Every detail that goes to make a produc-tion a success has been looked after. The scenery is direct from the artists at the Fifth Averue theater, New York. The company has been engaged personally by H. (Miner, which is a guarantee of its excel-lence. It is headed by the clever author-

actor, Hal Reid, and Bertha Belle West

brook, an actress who has achieved consid erable success. A Successful engagement is anticipated at Boyd's for four nights commencing Thursday, January 21, when the Corinne Extrava-ganza company will present the operatic ex-travaganza, "Hendrick Hudson, Jr., or the Discovery of Columbus." The company, which is headed by Corinne, includes other established favorites and a large chorus of shapely piece will be elaborately staged.

Resabel Morrison will present for the firs time in this city on Thursday, January 21 opening a three-night engagement at the Creighton the successful adaptation of Pros per Merimee's famous story, "Carmen." Miss Morrison has achieved an enviable repu-tation in this part. She will be supported by a company which is promised to be of exceeding excellence, headed by Edward Elsner. Her production of the play is said to be most elaborate and complete, and the calcium and other effects in keeping with the general excellence of both cast and scencry. The eidoloscope, reproducing the famous bull fight, forms an attractive and novel feature of the performance. So will be placed on sale Monday morning.

Populists Discuss Legislation. A few members of the People's Inde-pendent Party club met at Knights of pendent Party club met at Knights of Labor hall, on South Fourteenth street, last night. President J. W. Logan presided, with M. Neison as secretary. The chairman of the committee appointed some time ago by the populist city and county committees to draft a revision of the present primary polling system, reported that it would be in readiness to submit its work at the next meeting of the club, which takes place Friday night. Considerable discussion arose over various sections of the new city charter. It was decided to appoint a committee to draft a charter which would meet with the ideas of the club, and which should be submitted to the state legislature. The committee selected was: C. W. Lumbeck, E. Stodard, H. Cohen, S. Bloom and J. W. Logan. The club endorsed the bill lately introduced by Sheldon of Dawes county, in connection with the initiative and referendum. endum.

Gay lowan Loses His Money made the acquaintance of a woman on North Sixteenth yesterday afternoon and was invelgled by her to a room near Twelfth and Dodge streets. When he struck the fresh air once more he discovered that his pocketbook was minus a tendoliar bill which had been snugly tucked away in one of its compartments. Nelson told the police and the woman was arrested. She gave the name of Trixy Belding. Nelson wept when told that he must occupy a cell as complaining witness against the woman. When searched a large six-shooter was found in his possession, and a charge of carrying concealed weapons was placed opposite his name on the police blotter. made the acquaintance of a woman o
