The resolutions then indores the Plimsoll act, which, it is said, has worked so satis-factorily to the British sailor and shipowner, as a substitute. A copy of the resolutions will be forwarded to Speaker Reed and Congressman Barton. WASHINGTON, Jan. 16.—Senator Frye drew the provision of the substitute for the house bill, No. 2,663, which has passed the senate, says that the provision of the bill annot be construed to authorize the restoraon of flogging on the high seas. The provisions of the bill as it passed the senate are as follows:

"Every master or other officer of an Amer ican vessel on the high seas or any other waters within the admiralty and maritime jurisdiction of the United States who, without justification, beats or wounds or impris-ons the members of the crews of vessels or withholds from them sultable food and nour shment or inflicts upon them any crael and unusual punishment shall be punished by fine of not more than $1,000 or by imprisonment for not more than five years or both. The provision in the house bill was as

"Every master or officer of any American vessel on the high seas or any other water within the admiralty and maritime jurisdic ion of the United States who willfully heat; ons any of the crew of such vessel, or with holds." etc

Senator Frye says that the house bill would allow any sailor to attack the master or other officer, and that he would not be allowed to defend himself or his vessel. The sallors, through attorneys, have insisted the schate bill would restore flogging, but Senator Frye says that it cannot be construed in any such manner. The substitute was reported from the committee on commerce December 21 last and passed the scnate Jan

The play for the winter's championship at doubles is creating much interest in the Omaha Whist club, the contest of last evening being the twelfth in the series. Dr. Burrell and Mr. Rinehart are in the lead, being tied for first place, with 33 points won.

A four from the Omaha club, consisting of Messrs, Allee, Shea Scribner and Jones, went Friday to Des Moines to contest for the Interstate League cup for fours, which is now held by the Des Moines team. Half the contest was played in the afternoon, and a not overly encouraging telegram was received at the club rooms last evening. Des Moines' gain in the afternoon game was 18; Omaha's, 5.

The score of last night's play is given below. The gentlemen mentioned first on each side are the button-wearers for the week, as they made the highest scores in their respective directions:
