

COUNCIL BLUFFS DEPARTMENT

MINOR MENTION.

Clark & Wetzel, L. O. F. B. K., art parlors. Court Reporter Gaston left for his home in Taber yesterday.

Judge Thornell left for Sidney last night and will not return until Tuesday, to which time he has adjourned district court.

A marriage license was issued yesterday to Edward LeMotte of Lincoln, age 31, and Sadie A. Watson of the same place, age 30.

They had not met for years. "You have changed," she murmured. "Yes," said Algenon, "I now have a suit of work to the Eagle laundry, 724 Broadway."

Junice Goodrich, supported by a good company, was received by an enthusiastic audience at the Bohney theater last night. "Capitula January" proved a decidedly catchy entertainment, and was well received.

A horse that had evidently been in a runaway was taken out of a wire fence near Green's old packing house at 8 o'clock last night. The remnants of a harness and bridle were attached to him. The animal was pretty badly cut up. The owner, has not been heard from.

The Misses Robinson gave their regular fortnightly musical last evening. An interesting program of piano, violin and vocal music was given by the pupils of the conservatory, and a very pleasant evening was spent in dancing. Refreshments were served.

Et Miller, a retail liquor dealer of Shenandoah, who under his account with the government, was brought in yesterday and arraigned before Commissioner Steadman. A bond for $250 prevented him from being sent to jail pending his hearing at the March term of the federal court.

The Niblo Spectacular Humpty Dumpty company will present the time-trial play, "Humpty Dumpty," at the Bohney theater Monday night. Many clever specialties will be introduced and the performance promises to be one of the most interesting presented at the theater for some time.

A team of horses attached to a light road wagon became frightened by the hissing of steam from the Northwestern passenger engine yesterday afternoon, and became unmanageable. They fell on the track in front of the engine, but a quick application of the brakes prevented them from being killed.

When the regular annual tax sale closed last December there was a lot of property that was not sold and many of the bidders were unable or unwilling to take their certificates after the property they had bid on was sold to them. This made it necessary for an advertised sale. The sale will be held on Monday, and if the property is not all sold in one day it will be continued until it is or as long as there are any bidders in sight. The sale will begin at 10 o'clock in the morning.

WILL CARRY OVER A SECRETARY. Little Preliminary Necessary to the Special Session in Iowa. Senator N. M. Pusey will leave for Des Moines this evening to be present at the caucus meeting tomorrow morning prior to the opening of the special session of the legislature. He estimates that the session will last at least two months, and may run along until about April 1. As the session is only a continuation of the last regular session little caucusing will be necessary to enable the members in one day it will be continued.

The senate caucus on Monday is solely for the purpose of selecting a man to take the place of secretary of the senate made vacant by the forced resignation of Secretary Bulard, who has been indicted and prosecuted for forgery and several other serious offenses in connection with the financial affairs of the state. The position is a responsible and important one, and as it is lucrative there are many candidates eager to accept its responsibilities. The caucus on Monday will name Bulard's successor. There is only one prominent candidate in southwestern Iowa who is regarded as standing any show of getting the plum, and he is Lawyer Earl of Glenwood. He has the entire southwestern delegation solely for him, and is confident that he can draw enough strength from other parts of the state to make sure of his endorsement in the caucus.

Captain C. S. Hubbard, assistant doorkeeper of the senate, will leave for the capital tomorrow morning on a special train.

Court Notes. Suit was commenced in the district court yesterday by George Neal against J. M. Marcy to set aside the conveyance of some real estate by the defendant to his wife. The plaintiff is acting as the guardian of one of the Marcy heirs.

E. E. Hart commenced a foreclosure suit yesterday in the district court against S. P. Cameron on a second mortgage on some farm property.

In the case of Dettlef Kruse against the Seiffert & Weiss Lumber company a resistance to the motion for a new trial was filed by the plaintiff. The suit involves a claim for wages, and grew out of the affairs of Charles Aitman, the ascending representative of the lumber company at Minneden.

An amended petition was filed by the plaintiff in the case of Lougee against Elias Lemer and others.

Additional affidavits were filed yesterday in the case of L. T. Albert against J. P. Christiansen to support the motion for a correction of the judgment.

A decree of foreclosure was granted in the case of Wickham against Hughes. The judgment amounts to $2,848.

A. P. McLean was granted a divorce from Martha McLean by Judge Thornell yesterday on the grounds of desertion.

MYSTERY PARTIALLY SOLVED

Whereabouts of E. H. Odell Known for a Brief Time.

RETURNS HOME AND THEN DISAPPEARS

Acquaintances Who Saw Him on the Train After that He Looked Hungry and Avoided His Friends.

E. H. Odell, whose absence from the city for several weeks has been a mystery to his friends, returned at noon yesterday, and it is believed immediately left again. He came in on the Wabash and was driven from the union depot to his home on High School avenue, and immediately afterward to the law office of Wright & Baldwin. Mrs. Odell and Mrs. G. W. Wauburn left on Wednesday afternoon for the east. Neither Mrs. Odell nor any of his friends have heard a word from him since he left. Mrs. Odell has been arranging to go to her friends in the east for some time, and Wednesday afternoon she and Mrs. Wauburn bade their neighbors and friends good-by. On Thursday afternoon a telegram messenger called several times at the Odell residence for the purpose of leaving a message, but the house was closed and vacant. It is believed by the friends that this message was from Mr. Odell announcing his contemplated return, but it came too late for Mrs. Odell to receive it.

Several Council Bluffs men came in on the train that carried Mr. Odell, and they then prevented them from talking to him. There has been little doubt in the minds of his friends that Mr. Odell's business cares and financial reverses have unbalanced his mentally.

GETS DRUNK AND PLEADS GUILTY.

Thomas Carey, Postmaster of Modale, Mo., Says He Took Uncle Sam's Money.

When President Cleveland appointed Thomas Carey postmaster at Modale, Ia., the new postmaster had no difficulty in procuring a bond for $4,000 that was considered to be gilt-edged, and Carey was as proud of his bond as he was of his appointment. The postal officials have also had occasion to be thankful that the bond was not a piece of paper, as it was supposed to be, for they have called upon the bondsmen to make good a shortage of $208. The shortage was discovered when Carey was checked up on his account at Modale, and the bondsmen promptly responded to the appeal to settle up. Since then Carey has been enjoying a protracted drunk, this being his way of getting rid of the fact that he had lost $40 a month postoffice and had friends to make good his shortage. Yesterday he received a rude awakening when Deputy Marshal Charley Bradley appeared with a warrant for his arrest on the charge of embezzlement. He was brought before Commissioner Steadman yesterday afternoon. He pleaded guilty to the charge by taking an extra number of drinks after he reached the city and when called upon to plead to the charge he was the happiest man in his county.

"I'm an embezzler, and that's all there is to it. I used the money because I did not have any of my own when my family was alloted them Rev. C. W. Brewer gave a pleasant and interesting talk. Each child is given a garment to make and instructions how to make it. The work is carefully laid out and supervised until the garment is completed. It then becomes the property of the girl who has made it. In this way a strong incentive is given to the little girls to learn to sew. The material is all procured by donations solicited by Mr. and Mrs. Henry DeLong. Many poor children of the city have not only been taught how to sew and make their own garments, but have become proficient enough and have been attentive and industrious enough to clothe themselves during the winter. The school meets every Saturday afternoon. It has developed from a small gathering of little girls from the families until it has now become one of the important industrial educational institutions of the city.

TEACHING YOUNG GIRLS TO SEW. Mrs. DeLong's Industrial School and the Good Work it is Doing.

Despite inclement weather yesterday eighty-five girls were present at Mr. and Mrs. DeLong's Industrial School for Girls. While they were busily engaged in the tasks allotted them Rev. C. W. Brewer gave a pleasant and interesting talk. Each child is given a garment to make and instructions how to make it. The work is carefully laid out and supervised until the garment is completed. It then becomes the property of the girl who has made it. In this way a strong incentive is given to the little girls to learn to sew. The material is all procured by donations solicited by Mr. and Mrs. Henry DeLong. HAVE BEEN FOUND GUILTY

Special Finding of Each Juror in the Case of Moore and Ellis.

UNANIMOUS VERDICT IS RETURNED

Judge and Jury Sustain All the Counts in the Indictments—Prisoners Break Down as Sentence is Pronounced and Admit Their Guilt.

1—We find that this store has the best line of cigars in the city.

2—We find that this store is strictly up-to-date.

3—We find that the stock well kept and always fresh, having the goods that the people require.

4—We find that everyone gets full value for money invested, the cigars are the equivalent of a Tribune bicycle April 30th.

5—We find that when a customer once forms the habit of trading at this store, they rarely ever go around to other cigar stores.

6—We find that they not only receive courteous treatment, but long experience in the business, has placed them in a position to be able to cater to the whims and fancies of each individual.

7—We find that this store is the most popular in the city, and no necessity for personal solicitations for patronage.

8—We find that this store's cigar ought to be sold for 10 cents to make competition on an equal, but inasmuch as this firm sees fit to put out such values for the money, no jury can justify itself.

9—We find that while many other stores are comparatively dull, this store has been throughout the season the scene of life and activity, owing to the excellence of the goods there kept on hand.

10—We find that this store with the push generally gets the pull.

11—We find that a satisfactory reward will be paid by the firm and no questions asked, upon presentation of evidence that they permit any competitor to sell pipes cheaper than they do.

12—We find that the best story always gives the imagination something to do. So turn on your imagination and then come around, and they will still surprise you.

DECISION OF JURY. PUBLIC SENTIMENT. Upon the verdict I find Moore & Ellis "guilty" of selling the most and best cigars for the money of any house in Council Bluffs.

I therefore sentence them to first place among the cigar stores of this city, where they are to remain so long as they maintain their present reputation for selling high grade cigars and continue their courteous treatment to customers.

Have the prisoners anything to say? We acknowledge our guilt and gracefully accept the decision of the Judge. MOORE & ELLIS.

REALLY TO BE HERE TODAY. Sheriff Morgan is expected here this morning with Reilly, the bank robber who shot Nick O'Brien two years ago. He was heard from by the deputy sheriffs when he would go home. It is understood that a determined fight will be made by the friends of the prisoner to prove that he is not the man wanted. His identification by O'Brien has been complete, and it was on his testimony that a requisition was granted by the governor of Pennsylvania.

MAY BUY ST. JOSEPH'S STOCK YARDS. Swift & Co. of Chicago Expected to Develop a Big Industry.

ST. JOSEPH, Mo., Jan. 16.—(Special.)—Milton Tootle and John Donovan went to Chicago last night, where they expect to close the contract by which G. P. Swift is to become the owner of the St. Joseph stock yards. If the sale is made it will include also the property of the St. George Town company, south of the city, about 400 acres of land, already platted and laid out in town lots. It is expected that Swift & Co. will build a large packing house at the stock yards and operate it, although no assurance that it will be done has been given. If the proposed improvements are made the packing house will all be lighted by electricity, and an effort will be made to boom St. George, the suburb adjoining the stock yards.

Three packing houses are now in operation here, but it is possible that the Moran Packing company's plant will be put in operation again. It is tied up in litigation now in such a way that it could not be included in the sale to Swift. It is hoped that the new interests will make the stock yards as successful as the yards at St. Louis. The St. Joseph stock yards company has been carrying too large a debt for many years, and the stockholders were glad to unload. The company has a capital stock of $500,000 and a bonded debt of $250,000.

LAWYER ACCUSED BY HIS TYPEWRITER. NEW YORK, Jan. 16.—Theophilus B. Steel, a lawyer, was arraigned in the Central police court, charged with passing a worthless check for a small sum on Clara A. Davenport, a typewriter, who also says he betrayed her while she was employed in his office. He was unable to furnish a $200 bond, and was taken to prison. Mr. Steel belongs to one of the oldest families of Kentucky. It is said Colonel W. C. P. Breckinridge is his first cousin. Steel has practiced law in New York for thirteen years. He has been assistant corporation counsel, and in 1894 was a candidate for congress on the O'Brien democratic ticket.
