G. A. NEWMAN FOR SECRETARY

Iowa Senate Caucus Nominates on the Fourth Ballot.

HINDMAN LEADS AT FIRST TRIAL ONLY

Two Doorkeepers to Be Dropped and the Number of Committee Clerks Will Probably Be Cut Down to One-Half.

DES MOINES, Jan. 18.—(Special Telegram.)—The senate caucus for the preliminary opening of the legislature, was held this evening. There was only one contest for secretary, Josiah T. Young had withdrawn in the afternoon and the candidates present were: Henry J. Baird of Malvern, George A. Newman of Cedar Falls, W. R. Cockran of Bedford, T. J. Boland of Le Mars, A. D. Hindman of Eagle Grove, J. A. Stearns of Linn county. Each was called on to read for five minutes to the senate before a ballot was taken, as a test. The first ballot gave Newman 8; Baird, 6; Hindman, 10; Cockran, 4; Boland, 3; Stearns, 1.

On the next ballot Newman went up to 17, Hindman getting only 8; Baird, 4; Boland, 3; Cockran, 3; Stearns, 3.

On the third Newman got 17; Hindman, 13; Boland, 1; Cockran, 3; Baird, 3. The fourth ballot gave Newman the nomination, with twenty-one votes, Hindman having 11; Baird, 3; and Cockran, 2.

An assault on minor employes was opened and two assistant doorkeepers were dropped out of sight. A committee was named after discussion to formulate a resolution to the senate a proposition to reduce by at least half the number of committee clerks. The agreement was unanimous that such a measure should be adopted.

At the opening session tomorrow it is expected the only important business will be the publishing of a concurrent resolution for a committee of two members to confer and agree on some plan of handling the code. It is still uncertain what will be done, but a scheme of closer co-operation than was had last year will be determined on.

PRICE OF HIS WIFE'S AFFECTIONS.

Tennant Sues an Iowa Landowner for Ten Thousand Dollars.

CEDAR RAPIDS, Ia., Jan. 18.—(Special.)—Great interest is being manifested in the case of William Wiggin against Charles A. Huston, which is now on trial in the district court before Judge Remley. Every day the court room is crowded with men, women and children from the northern part of the county, where the parties to the suit are well known. Mr. Wiggin has sued Mr. Huston for $10,000 damages for alienation of his wife's affections. Mr. Huston is one of the largest landowners in northern Iowa county, and is reputed to be worth from $40,000 to $50,000. For a number of years he has been very prominent in politics, and few men are better known in the county than he.

In 1894 Mr. Wiggin and his family moved into one of Mr. Huston's farms near Waterloo. He reserved one room in the house for his own use, and often remained there for several days at a time. Wiggin alleges that Huston took advantage of the opportunity afforded, won the affection of his wife, became intimate with her, and subsequently caused her to leave him, and for this he seeks damages in the sum of $10,000. Mr. Huston's lawyer, however, is employed on both sides and the contest is being bitterly fought. The trial probably will last a week or ten days yet.

CONFESSIONS TO A FLESHLY CRIME.

Sam Palatka Tells How He Wrecked the Train at Cahaba Bridge.

NEW ORLEANS, Jan. 18.—A special to the Times-Democrat from Atlanta, Ga., says: Sam Palatka, cross-eyed, a fiend in expression, revolting in countenance, has confessed to the great wreck at Cahaba bridge disaster, which occurred three weeks ago in Alabama. Stollity and with immoral lines of criminal harshness on his face, he admits that he single-handed, sent twenty-seven persons to a horrible death and ruined and maimed scores more. There was no romantic reward back of the work of this courageous coward, a man who dared discovery, which in Alabama meant certain death. He was sentenced in order to obtain a few dollars.

Palatka was arrested in Eaton, Putnam county, in middle Georgia. His first captor believed him mad and gave him a name himself away. Those in charge of him to Alabama, say he is absolutely reckless and entirely without human feelings. Today he spoke of the fearful wreck with no sign of emotion.

"Did it," said Palatka. "I wanted money. It's nobody's business what I wanted to do. I did. I found it very easy. I saw it for the benefit of those who want to wreck trains. It is as easy as wrecking a passenger train as it is to wreck a freight train. There's no money in a freight. I did not get anything out of the wreck. I moved a rail, put it across the track and the whole business seemed to fall. There were plenty of dead folks with money—one man had $500—but before I could get it the live ones had it and then the crowd came. I skipped out."

WILL REDUCE THE BONDED DEBT.

City Council Decides to Take Up $200,000 of the City Bonds.

It was decided last night by the city council to make a good sized cut into the general fund indebtedness of the city by taking up $200,000 of the outstanding percent bonds. There is at present about $120,000 in the sinking fund, and this will be used. The treasurer was instructed to give thirty days' notice to the holders of the bonds that they would be refunded on presentation. Eight thousand dollars' worth will be taken up in the month of August, 1897, due July 1, 1901, and $120,000 in taking up that amount of the issue of August 1, 1883, due August 1, 1903. In this way a saving of about $500 annually will be made, and the general fund indebtedness of the city reduced to $11,400.

Alderman Casper introduced an ordinance providing for the furnishing of the printing and stationery supplies needed by the city by contract, the work to be let to the lowest bidder. In substance the new measure intends that the committee on claims and printing shall prepare a list of all the printing and stationery which shall be needed by the various officers during any current year. This list shall be presented to the city clerk, who shall advertise for bids, and a contract is to be let at the first meeting in April. A $200 bond is to be required of the successful bidder. No officer shall get any supplies except on an order from the committee. After the first reading the ordinance was referred to the committee of the whole.

Weighmaster Higson suggested a number of changes in the contract, and the scales for public weighing. These were referred to the proper committee.

LOOKING AFTER THE BAD BOYS.

Various members of the Board of Education have been holding secret conferences with the police authorities for the purpose of getting rid of the four trouble makers who have been the vandals done at the high school a number of weeks ago.

Prof. Spruiell, one of the members of the teachers' committee, held a conference with Chief of Police Canning yesterday, and the matter was discussed at some length. What action was taken of course is not known, but the police authorities are agreed that the board have never relinquished their determination to prosecute the boys if they could succeed in finding the right ones. One of the chief trouble makers, a boy named T. M. number involved in the job. So far as can be ascertained the board has learned that there were about seventy-five young men more or less connected with the work. The disposition has been not to prosecute any others but the publishers of the young men's magazine, and a majority of the others could be punished on the basis of the present law. It is felt that their punishment would have a bad effect upon the school.

Voted in Two States.

Thomas Parrish was lodged in the county jail last night in compliance with a request from the sheriff at Blair, Neb. Parrish is a squatter who lives on the acreage lands near of Crescent City. RESTORES ORDER IN ALASKA.

Lawless Spirit in the Territory Being Firmly Put Down.

PORT TOWNSEND, Wash., Jan. 18.—From the latest Alaskan advices it is apparent that the former lawless spirit prevalent in the territory is being supplanted by a more orderly government. The district attorney, John Nelson, has just finished the winter session in Juneau. Concerning the indictment of Joseph Murray by the grand jury for libel, the Mining Record says: "Mr. Joseph Murray, late fish commissioner for Alaska, was arrested for libel on January 14, 1900, for his last annual report, to impugn the motives and integrity of our court and court officials, and this action of the grand jury has put him in a position where he is bound by his words or to crawl his way out of the predicament into which he has permitted his prejudices to lead him. All Alaska is indebted to the district attorney for his boldness in his words or to crawl his way out of the predicament into which he has permitted his prejudices to lead him. All Alaska is indebted to the district attorney for his boldness in his words or to crawl his way out of the predicament into which he has permitted his prejudices to lead him."

Magnates Could Not Agree.

CLEVELAND, Jan. 18.—President Johnson of the Cleveland Base Ball club declared this afternoon that there was no big base ball deal in prospect, as had been reported. Mr. Robison and Mr. Abell of the Brooklyn club, who were present at the meeting, said that so far they had failed to reach an agreement on the proposition of trading under some of the players, and it began to look as if the deal would not be consummated. Mr. Robison said that he believed that it would be a good thing for base ball if it could be arranged that there would be a shifting of players and teams. There were some clubs of the National league at the end of each season in order that the strength of the clubs might be equalized. Mr. Abell said he was of the opinion that the deal would not be consummated.

Not Certain About Relief.

The identity of a man who is supposed to have been a robber who was brought back from Pennsylvania to answer to the charge of shooting Nick O'Brien, is causing considerable discussion. Relley is putting up a strong case of innocence, and he has obtained a postponement of his trial. He is believed to be not the man. Nick O'Brien has seen him and maintains that there is no mistake. While bringing him here Sheriff Murnighan cut and cut and took him prisoner around to the Pinkerton offices and the detective headquarters of the city for identification. There all the officers disclaimed that the prisoner was Relley. In appearance the man is somewhat changed after serving eighteen months in the Alcatraz. He has grown fatter and his complexion is bright. He has a red, stubby beard he wore when he was supposed to have shot O'Brien. He is also supposed to be the prisoner stated to a reporter for the Bee yesterday that he did not make a mistake in identifying the man. He has employed Colonel Daily to defend him. This is the same attorney that defended the other men. Several days before Relley arrived in Omaha he was given a letter addressed to him by that name.

QUESTION OF LIABILITY
