First Steps in the Important Matter Taken Yesterday.

CHICAGO EXPERTS LOOK OVER THE LAND

Engineers Employed to Advise the Local Committee Regarding the Location of the Sites of the Proposed Exhibitions.

H. C. Alexander and A. C. Schrader, the Chicago engineers employed by the special committee of the Board of Directors of the Transmississippi Exposition association to inspect the five sites proposed as locations for the exposition, arrived in Omaha yesterday.

After a short conference it was decided that the most expeditious plan of examining the sites would be for each site to be shown to the experts by its friends without the intervention of any member of the special committee or any other party.

PLANS OF THE THURSTON RIFLES

Would Attend the Inauguration of the Exposition.

There is a possibility that Nebraska may be represented at the inauguration of Major McKinley by the Thurston rifles. A plan is being discussed by which it is proposed that the rifles shall go to Washington and participate in the inauguration ceremonies and at the same time do some effective military work in the east for the Transmississippi Exposition.

The Whole Story

Of the great ailments and great cures accomplished by Hood's Sarsaparilla is quickly told. It purifies and enriches the blood, tones the stomach and gives strength and vigor.

ICE MEN GATHER THEIR HARVEST

Not Waiting for the Coming of Colder Weather.

The ice men are making any time waiting for the weather to get colder, but are cutting all the ice they can find. The ice on the water works reservoir is from six to eight inches in thickness, and that on Cut-Off lake is about the same.

WOMAN'S WORK IN THE EXPOSITION

Woman's Club Appoints a Committee of Nine to Prepare Plans.

The woman's club took action yesterday afternoon upon the request of the executive committee of the exposition, asking the club to appoint a committee to formulate a plan for a woman's department of the exposition.

SPRING ELECTIONS VIEWED WITH ALARM

City Officials Have Their Own Plans in the Event that the Legislature Makes Some Character Changes.

The prospect of a spring election is hanging with awful menace over the official heads of the present incumbents of the city offices, and, although some of them have recently taken their seats, they are already beginning to build their plans for re-election.
