Senator Murphy offered a resolution as a substitute for resolution introduced yesterday by Senator Graham. Objection being made by Mr. Muts of Keya Paha, the lieutenant governor held that the substitute, being in the form of a resolution, should be made under the rules. An attempt was made to bring up for consideration the original resolution offered yesterday.

When the bills introduced yesterday were taken up in a contest which has been going on for several days. When Senate file No. 90, by Mr. Graham of Howard, regulating stockyards was read the lieutenant governor moved that it be referred to the committee on miscellaneous corporations. The motion was seconded by Mr. Fritz of Thurston.

Mr. Ransom defended his motion in an elaborate argument. He contended that all bills, according to the constitution of Nebraska, should be referred to an appropriate committee. He insisted that a bill to regulate stockyards should be referred to the committee on miscellaneous corporations, and that to refer it to any other committee was a violation upon the part of the lieutenant governor.

Mr. Grohan, populist of Howard, did not agree with the senator from Douglas. He said that it had been the custom for the lieutenant governor, as a matter of course, to refer all bills to standing committees. Two stock yards bills had already been introduced and referred to the committee on agriculture, and no protest had been made.

Mr. Goring of Platte moved that Ransom's resolution, Mr. Graham was willing, he said, to rely upon the judgment of the lieutenant governor. Mr. Murphy argued that there was not necessarily a close relationship between a stock yards bill and the committee on miscellaneous corporations. He thought the republican opposition to the Ransom motion came with very poor grace.

The senate then took a recess until 2 o'clock. After the recess the lieutenant governor's message was deferred for one week, owing to the fact that printed copies of the message had not yet been received.

SOLVING THE RATE PROBLEM. Eastern Roads May Be Forced to Make a Marked Reduction in Rates. EFFECTS OF A NEW NORTH AND SOUTHLINE. Railroad Men Believe that the Completion of the Pittsburg & Gulf Will Result in Great Benefit to the Trans-Mississippi Country.

A prominent railway official was recently asked by a Bee reporter the probable effect on grain rates of the opening of a new north and south line from this territory and the partial diversion of grain from the Atlantic seaboard to the Gulf of Mexico. In reply he said:

"There is the pointer in regard to the future of the rate matter. You know the Mississippi river is a basing point, and the towage west of the Missouri river have proportionately a much higher rate from New York than the Mississippi river towns have. A great many railroad men believe that the completion of the Pittsburg & Gulf road and the extension of the Gulf railway influence into the north will bring about a reduction in rates from Mississippi River to Missouri river towns to the great benefit of the latter."

"When the new southern line gets to shipping grain and lumber to Liverpool the natural problem for this country will be the rate matter. It will be a question of tariffs to the attention of English exporters who will be urged, as the British vice consul in Kansas City is urging, to sell direct to the American market. It is expected today's mail will wind up the western rates. The Brookline Jockey club has arranged a special event for the coming season. It is probable that other horses will be named to start. The conditions are $2,500 added, two to start or no race. The distance will be a mile and a half, the horses will be made to weigh for age and the race will be decided in the week following the running of the Brookline Handicap."

FORTUNE WAITS A DAUGHTER. An Australian Millionaire's Daughter Looking for a Heir. CHICAGO, Jan. 19.—(Special Telegram)—A millionaire sheep owner of Melbourne, Australia, died in 1886 and left a large fortune. His only daughter, who was the heiress, is now in Chicago. Her father is supposed to be in Chicago and his wife and daughter are trying to find her. The estate of the "sheep king," as Ashbrook was known, is estimated to be worth at least $2,500,000. Two daughters besides the one mentioned above were born to him. In 1880 Edith Ashbrook, then 18 years old, met and loved Edward Townsend, a civil engineer at Melbourne. After a few weeks' courtship Townsend proposed and was accepted by the girl. Her father would not consent to the union. The girl, however, married Townsend. The following year Townsend left Melbourne, going to San Francisco, where he was killed by a falling chandelier. In 1888 the couple went to Port Townsend, Wash., and later they drifted to Victoria, B. C., where Townsend died. His daughter, Mrs. Townsend, who was a widow, was in Chicago at the time of the morning paper. In 1888 the couple went to Port Townsend, Wash., and later they drifted to Victoria, B.
