

PATENTS TO THE FARMERS

Secretary Francis Gives Title to Some Union Pacific Lands. Complete and Extensive Proof of Purchase in Good Faith Necessary to Secure Transfer from the Government.

RECOGNIZES ONLY BONA FIDE BUYERS

WASHINGTON, Jan. 19.—(Special Telegram.)—Secretary Francis today approved for patent to the Union Pacific Railroad company a list of selections embracing about 34,000 acres of land along the line of road in the state of Wyoming. The secretary took this action in consequence of the filing of proof by the original purchasers of those lands...

WASHINGTON, Jan. 19.—(Special Telegram.)—Secretary Francis today approved for patent to the Union Pacific Railroad company a list of selections embracing about 34,000 acres of land along the line of road in the state of Wyoming.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 19.—(Special Telegram.)—Secretary Francis today approved for patent to the Union Pacific Railroad company a list of selections embracing about 34,000 acres of land along the line of road in the state of Wyoming.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 19.—(Special Telegram.)—Secretary Francis today approved for patent to the Union Pacific Railroad company a list of selections embracing about 34,000 acres of land along the line of road in the state of Wyoming.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 19.—(Special Telegram.)—Secretary Francis today approved for patent to the Union Pacific Railroad company a list of selections embracing about 34,000 acres of land along the line of road in the state of Wyoming.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 19.—(Special Telegram.)—Secretary Francis today approved for patent to the Union Pacific Railroad company a list of selections embracing about 34,000 acres of land along the line of road in the state of Wyoming.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 19.—(Special Telegram.)—Secretary Francis today approved for patent to the Union Pacific Railroad company a list of selections embracing about 34,000 acres of land along the line of road in the state of Wyoming.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 19.—(Special Telegram.)—Secretary Francis today approved for patent to the Union Pacific Railroad company a list of selections embracing about 34,000 acres of land along the line of road in the state of Wyoming.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 19.—(Special Telegram.)—Secretary Francis today approved for patent to the Union Pacific Railroad company a list of selections embracing about 34,000 acres of land along the line of road in the state of Wyoming.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 19.—(Special Telegram.)—Secretary Francis today approved for patent to the Union Pacific Railroad company a list of selections embracing about 34,000 acres of land along the line of road in the state of Wyoming.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 19.—(Special Telegram.)—Secretary Francis today approved for patent to the Union Pacific Railroad company a list of selections embracing about 34,000 acres of land along the line of road in the state of Wyoming.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 19.—(Special Telegram.)—Secretary Francis today approved for patent to the Union Pacific Railroad company a list of selections embracing about 34,000 acres of land along the line of road in the state of Wyoming.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 19.—(Special Telegram.)—Secretary Francis today approved for patent to the Union Pacific Railroad company a list of selections embracing about 34,000 acres of land along the line of road in the state of Wyoming.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 19.—(Special Telegram.)—Secretary Francis today approved for patent to the Union Pacific Railroad company a list of selections embracing about 34,000 acres of land along the line of road in the state of Wyoming.

UNEXPECTED DAY IN THE SENATE

Mr. Turpie Speaks Against the Nicaragua Canal Bill. WASHINGTON, Jan. 19.—The session of the senate today was without incident. Senator Turpie spoke against the Nicaragua canal bill, and the reading of the legislative appropriation bill was completed, with the exception of sections making provisions for the congressional library, which were passed over temporarily, in the absence of senators interested in the subject.

DOCTOR CONAFLY TAKES HOLD

Assumes the Rectory of the Catholic University of America. WASHINGTON, Jan. 19.—Very Rev. Thomas J. Conafl, D. D., was today installed as rector of the Catholic University of America. It was a notable event in the history of the institution, and drew together a distinguished assemblage of churchmen and educators.

IMPORTANT EVENT IN CHURCH CIRCLES

Cardinal Gibbons Delivers the Opening Address. After Which the New Rector Gives His Inaugural Discourse. WASHINGTON, Jan. 19.—Very Rev. Thomas J. Conafl, D. D., was today installed as rector of the Catholic University of America.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 19.—Very Rev. Thomas J. Conafl, D. D., was today installed as rector of the Catholic University of America. It was a notable event in the history of the institution, and drew together a distinguished assemblage of churchmen and educators.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 19.—Very Rev. Thomas J. Conafl, D. D., was today installed as rector of the Catholic University of America. It was a notable event in the history of the institution, and drew together a distinguished assemblage of churchmen and educators.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 19.—Very Rev. Thomas J. Conafl, D. D., was today installed as rector of the Catholic University of America. It was a notable event in the history of the institution, and drew together a distinguished assemblage of churchmen and educators.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 19.—Very Rev. Thomas J. Conafl, D. D., was today installed as rector of the Catholic University of America. It was a notable event in the history of the institution, and drew together a distinguished assemblage of churchmen and educators.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 19.—Very Rev. Thomas J. Conafl, D. D., was today installed as rector of the Catholic University of America. It was a notable event in the history of the institution, and drew together a distinguished assemblage of churchmen and educators.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 19.—Very Rev. Thomas J. Conafl, D. D., was today installed as rector of the Catholic University of America. It was a notable event in the history of the institution, and drew together a distinguished assemblage of churchmen and educators.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 19.—Very Rev. Thomas J. Conafl, D. D., was today installed as rector of the Catholic University of America. It was a notable event in the history of the institution, and drew together a distinguished assemblage of churchmen and educators.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 19.—Very Rev. Thomas J. Conafl, D. D., was today installed as rector of the Catholic University of America. It was a notable event in the history of the institution, and drew together a distinguished assemblage of churchmen and educators.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 19.—Very Rev. Thomas J. Conafl, D. D., was today installed as rector of the Catholic University of America. It was a notable event in the history of the institution, and drew together a distinguished assemblage of churchmen and educators.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 19.—Very Rev. Thomas J. Conafl, D. D., was today installed as rector of the Catholic University of America. It was a notable event in the history of the institution, and drew together a distinguished assemblage of churchmen and educators.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 19.—Very Rev. Thomas J. Conafl, D. D., was today installed as rector of the Catholic University of America. It was a notable event in the history of the institution, and drew together a distinguished assemblage of churchmen and educators.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 19.—Very Rev. Thomas J. Conafl, D. D., was today installed as rector of the Catholic University of America. It was a notable event in the history of the institution, and drew together a distinguished assemblage of churchmen and educators.

REBELS WAITING ON THE BANKS

Fired on the Sloop of the Wrecked Spanish Gunboat. HAVANA, Jan. 19.—The gunboat Relampago struck the Torpedero, which sunk her boat, and almost before the extent of the disaster could be realized the rebels were down upon those on board who were uninjured jumped into the water and made their way in the direction of the Centinela, aboard of which great excitement prevailed.

POOLING BILL ABANDONED

All Expectations that It Would Pass Are Given Up. NO HOPE OF PASSAGE THIS SESSION. House Committee on Commerce Declines Against Pressing the Measure—Take Up Bill Against Ticket Scalping. WASHINGTON, Jan. 19.—Expectations of passing the pooling bill, which has been pending before the house committee on commerce during this congress, have been abandoned. The bill to prevent ticket scalping was considered by the committee and Representative Sherman of New York, its author, was directed to report it to the house with several amendments in the interest of the bona fide purchasers of tickets.

GENERAL WEYLER TAKES A DRIVE

Plans to Concentrate His Forces on the Outskirts of Havana. HAVANA, Jan. 19.—At 8 o'clock this morning Captain General Weyler, accompanied by his son, aide-de-camp, chief of staff, Colonel Domingo, Governor Porras and the chief of police, left the palace in a coach, going by the highway to Luyanó, and escorted by six squadrons of cavalry.

CONVICTS KILL THEIR GUARDS

Sanguinary Affray at One of the Prisons in the Philippines. SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 19.—A convict outbreak at Cavite, Philippine islands, on a Sunday, recently, was the occasion of more fighting at the rebel stronghold than has been precipitated by the entire Spanish army.

SPANISH TELLS WHAT IT WILL DO

American Government to Know the Extent of the Colonial Reforms. MADRID (via Bayonne), Jan. 18.—(New York World Cablegram—Special Telegram.)—Despite official denials, the latest report of the diplomatic agents in and in the Madrid press is that the government has instructed the Spanish representative at Washington to inform the American government, quite unofficially, how far it is disposed to go in colonial reforms, including tariff and revenue matters.

DEPT. TRANQUILITY DISTURBED

Six Cases of Malaria Excite the Waiting Passengers. The women and children who are forced to use the waiting room at the Union depot were thrown into a small panic yesterday when it became known that two women had just arrived from Kansas City with six children, all of whom were very sick with malaria.

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS

John H. MacColl, Lexington, is an Omaha visitor. Al Patrick has gone to Chicago on a short pleasure trip. E. Berger of St. Louis, Mo., is a guest of a business trip.

HE DOUBTED HIS COLLECTOR'S HONESTY

J. C. Billings has been arrested at the instance of Christ Haman, a jeweler at 312 South Sixteenth street, on a charge of embezzlement. Haman alleges that several months ago he turned over a number of small bills to Haman for collection, the amount in all to about $75.

HE MET A STRANGE WOMAN

Thomas Ford, a miner on route from Chicago to Victor, Colo., met a strange woman on North Sixteenth street last night and inquired of her name. She told him her name was Mrs. C. W. Ford, and that she was a resident of the city.

RECEIVED BY THE EX-EMPEROR

Berlin, Jan. 19.—The ex-emperor Frederick received Mrs. Uhl, wife of the United States ambassador to Germany, in audience today.

RECEIVED BY THE EX-EMPEROR

Berlin, Jan. 19.—The ex-emperor Frederick received Mrs. Uhl, wife of the United States ambassador to Germany, in audience today.

RECEIVED BY THE EX-EMPEROR

Berlin, Jan. 19.—The ex-emperor Frederick received Mrs. Uhl, wife of the United States ambassador to Germany, in audience today.

RECEIVED BY THE EX-EMPEROR

Berlin, Jan. 19.—The ex-emperor Frederick received Mrs. Uhl, wife of the United States ambassador to Germany, in audience today.

RECEIVED BY THE EX-EMPEROR

Berlin, Jan. 19.—The ex-emperor Frederick received Mrs. Uhl, wife of the United States ambassador to Germany, in audience today.

RECEIVED BY THE EX-EMPEROR

Berlin, Jan. 19.—The ex-emperor Frederick received Mrs. Uhl, wife of the United States ambassador to Germany, in audience today.

REBELS WAITING ON THE BANKS

Fired on the Sloop of the Wrecked Spanish Gunboat. HAVANA, Jan. 19.—The gunboat Relampago struck the Torpedero, which sunk her boat, and almost before the extent of the disaster could be realized the rebels were down upon those on board who were uninjured jumped into the water and made their way in the direction of the Centinela, aboard of which great excitement prevailed.

POOLING BILL ABANDONED

All Expectations that It Would Pass Are Given Up. NO HOPE OF PASSAGE THIS SESSION. House Committee on Commerce Declines Against Pressing the Measure—Take Up Bill Against Ticket Scalping. WASHINGTON, Jan. 19.—Expectations of passing the pooling bill, which has been pending before the house committee on commerce during this congress, have been abandoned.

GENERAL WEYLER TAKES A DRIVE

Plans to Concentrate His Forces on the Outskirts of Havana. HAVANA, Jan. 19.—At 8 o'clock this morning Captain General Weyler, accompanied by his son, aide-de-camp, chief of staff, Colonel Domingo, Governor Porras and the chief of police, left the palace in a coach, going by the highway to Luyanó, and escorted by six squadrons of cavalry.

CONVICTS KILL THEIR GUARDS

Sanguinary Affray at One of the Prisons in the Philippines. SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 19.—A convict outbreak at Cavite, Philippine islands, on a Sunday, recently, was the occasion of more fighting at the rebel stronghold than has been precipitated by the entire Spanish army.

SPANISH TELLS WHAT IT WILL DO

American Government to Know the Extent of the Colonial Reforms. MADRID (via Bayonne), Jan. 18.—(New York World Cablegram—Special Telegram.)—Despite official denials, the latest report of the diplomatic agents in and in the Madrid press is that the government has instructed the Spanish representative at Washington to inform the American government, quite unofficially, how far it is disposed to go in colonial reforms, including tariff and revenue matters.

DEPT. TRANQUILITY DISTURBED

Six Cases of Malaria Excite the Waiting Passengers. The women and children who are forced to use the waiting room at the Union depot were thrown into a small panic yesterday when it became known that two women had just arrived from Kansas City with six children, all of whom were very sick with malaria.

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS

John H. MacColl, Lexington, is an Omaha visitor. Al Patrick has gone to Chicago on a short pleasure trip. E. Berger of St. Louis, Mo., is a guest of a business trip.

HE DOUBTED HIS COLLECTOR'S HONESTY

J. C. Billings has been arrested at the instance of Christ Haman, a jeweler at 312 South Sixteenth street, on a charge of embezzlement. Haman alleges that several months ago he turned over a number of small bills to Haman for collection, the amount in all to about $75.

HE MET A STRANGE WOMAN

Thomas Ford, a miner on route from Chicago to Victor, Colo., met a strange woman on North Sixteenth street last night and inquired of her name. She told him her name was Mrs. C. W. Ford, and that she was a resident of the city.

RECEIVED BY THE EX-EMPEROR

Berlin, Jan. 19.—The ex-emperor Frederick received Mrs. Uhl, wife of the United States ambassador to Germany, in audience today.

RECEIVED BY THE EX-EMPEROR

Berlin, Jan. 19.—The ex-emperor Frederick received Mrs. Uhl, wife of the United States ambassador to Germany, in audience today.

RECEIVED BY THE EX-EMPEROR

Berlin, Jan. 19.—The ex-emperor Frederick received Mrs. Uhl, wife of the United States ambassador to Germany, in audience today.

RECEIVED BY THE EX-EMPEROR

Berlin, Jan. 19.—The ex-emperor Frederick received Mrs. Uhl, wife of the United States ambassador to Germany, in audience today.

RECEIVED BY THE EX-EMPEROR

Berlin, Jan. 19.—The ex-emperor Frederick received Mrs. Uhl, wife of the United States ambassador to Germany, in audience today.

RECEIVED BY THE EX-EMPEROR

Berlin, Jan. 19.—The ex-emperor Frederick received Mrs. Uhl, wife of the United States ambassador to Germany, in audience today.

REBELS WAITING ON THE BANKS

Fired on the Sloop of the Wrecked Spanish Gunboat. HAVANA, Jan. 19.—The gunboat Relampago struck the Torpedero, which sunk her boat, and almost before the extent of the disaster could be realized the rebels were down upon those on board who were uninjured jumped into the water and made their way in the direction of the Centinela, aboard of which great excitement prevailed.

POOLING BILL ABANDONED

All Expectations that It Would Pass Are Given Up. NO HOPE OF PASSAGE THIS SESSION. House Committee on Commerce Declines Against Pressing the Measure—Take Up Bill Against Ticket Scalping. WASHINGTON, Jan. 19.—Expectations of passing the pooling bill, which has been pending before the house committee on commerce during this congress, have been abandoned.

GENERAL WEYLER TAKES A DRIVE

Plans to Concentrate His Forces on the Outskirts of Havana. HAVANA, Jan. 19.—At 8 o'clock this morning Captain General Weyler, accompanied by his son, aide-de-camp, chief of staff, Colonel Domingo, Governor Porras and the chief of police, left the palace in a coach, going by the highway to Luyanó, and escorted by six squadrons of cavalry.

CONVICTS KILL THEIR GUARDS

Sanguinary Affray at One of the Prisons in the Philippines. SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 19.—A convict outbreak at Cavite, Philippine islands, on a Sunday, recently, was the occasion of more fighting at the rebel stronghold than has been precipitated by the entire Spanish army.

SPANISH TELLS WHAT IT WILL DO

American Government to Know the Extent of the Colonial Reforms. MADRID (via Bayonne), Jan. 18.—(New York World Cablegram—Special Telegram.)—Despite official denials, the latest report of the diplomatic agents in and in the Madrid press is that the government has instructed the Spanish representative at Washington to inform the American government, quite unofficially, how far it is disposed to go in colonial reforms, including tariff and revenue matters.

DEPT. TRANQUILITY DISTURBED

Six Cases of Malaria Excite the Waiting Passengers. The women and children who are forced to use the waiting room at the Union depot were thrown into a small panic yesterday when it became known that two women had just arrived from Kansas City with six children, all of whom were very sick with malaria.

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS

John H. MacColl, Lexington, is an Omaha visitor. Al Patrick has gone to Chicago on a short pleasure trip. E. Berger of St. Louis, Mo., is a guest of a business trip.

HE DOUBTED HIS COLLECTOR'S HONESTY

J. C. Billings has been arrested at the instance of Christ Haman, a jeweler at 312 South Sixteenth street, on a charge of embezzlement. Haman alleges that several months ago he turned over a number of small bills to Haman for collection, the amount in all to about $75.

HE MET A STRANGE WOMAN

Thomas Ford, a miner on route from Chicago to Victor, Colo., met a strange woman on North Sixteenth street last night and inquired of her name. She told him her name was Mrs. C. W. Ford, and that she was a resident of the city.

RECEIVED BY THE EX-EMPEROR

Berlin, Jan. 19.—The ex-emperor Frederick received Mrs. Uhl, wife of the United States ambassador to Germany, in audience today.

RECEIVED BY THE EX-EMPEROR

Berlin, Jan. 19.—The ex-emperor Frederick received Mrs. Uhl, wife of the United States ambassador to Germany, in audience today.

RECEIVED BY THE EX-EMPEROR

Berlin, Jan. 19.—The ex-emperor Frederick received Mrs. Uhl, wife of the United States ambassador to Germany, in audience today.

RECEIVED BY THE EX-EMPEROR

Berlin, Jan. 19.—The ex-emperor Frederick received Mrs. Uhl, wife of the United States ambassador to Germany, in audience today.

RECEIVED BY THE EX-EMPEROR

Berlin, Jan. 19.—The ex-emperor Frederick received Mrs. Uhl, wife of the United States ambassador to Germany, in audience today.

RECEIVED BY THE EX-EMPEROR

Berlin, Jan. 19.—The ex-emperor Frederick received Mrs. Uhl, wife of the United States ambassador to Germany, in audience today.

REBELS WAITING ON THE BANKS

Fired on the Sloop of the Wrecked Spanish Gunboat. HAVANA, Jan. 19.—The gunboat Relampago struck the Torpedero, which sunk her boat, and almost before the extent of the disaster could be realized the rebels were down upon those on board who were uninjured jumped into the water and made their way in the direction of the Centinela, aboard of which great excitement prevailed.

POOLING BILL ABANDONED

All Expectations that It Would Pass Are Given Up. NO HOPE OF PASSAGE THIS SESSION. House Committee on Commerce Declines Against Pressing the Measure—Take Up Bill Against Ticket Scalping. WASHINGTON, Jan. 19.—Expectations of passing the pooling bill, which has been pending before the house committee on commerce during this congress, have been abandoned.

GENERAL WEYLER TAKES A DRIVE

Plans to Concentrate His Forces on the Outskirts of Havana. HAVANA, Jan. 19.—At 8 o'clock this morning Captain General Weyler, accompanied by his son, aide-de-camp, chief of staff, Colonel Domingo, Governor Porras and the chief of police, left the palace in a coach, going by the highway to Luyanó, and escorted by six squadrons of cavalry.

CONVICTS KILL THEIR GUARDS

Sanguinary Affray at One of the Prisons in the Philippines. SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 19.—A convict outbreak at Cavite, Philippine islands, on a Sunday, recently, was the occasion of more fighting at the rebel stronghold than has been precipitated by the entire Spanish army.

SPANISH TELLS WHAT IT WILL DO

American Government to Know the Extent of the Colonial Reforms. MADRID (via Bayonne), Jan. 18.—(New York World Cablegram—Special Telegram.)—Despite official denials, the latest report of the diplomatic agents in and in the Madrid press is that the government has instructed the Spanish representative at Washington to inform the American government, quite unofficially, how far it is disposed to go in colonial reforms, including tariff and revenue matters.

DEPT. TRANQUILITY DISTURBED

Six Cases of Malaria Excite the Waiting Passengers. The women and children who are forced to use the waiting room at the Union depot were thrown into a small panic yesterday when it became known that two women had just arrived from Kansas City with six children, all of whom were very sick with malaria.

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS

John H. MacColl, Lexington, is an Omaha visitor. Al Patrick has gone to Chicago on a short pleasure trip. E. Berger of St. Louis, Mo., is a guest of a business trip.

HE DOUBTED HIS COLLECTOR'S HONESTY

J. C. Billings has been arrested at the instance of Christ Haman, a jeweler at 312 South Sixteenth street, on a charge of embezzlement. Haman alleges that several months ago he turned over a number of small bills to Haman for collection, the amount in all to about $75.

HE MET A STRANGE WOMAN

Thomas Ford, a miner on route from Chicago to Victor, Colo., met a strange woman on North Sixteenth street last night and inquired of her name. She told him her name was Mrs. C. W. Ford, and that she was a resident of the city.

RECEIVED BY THE EX-EMPEROR

Berlin, Jan. 19.—The ex-emperor Frederick received Mrs. Uhl, wife of the United States ambassador to Germany, in audience today.

RECEIVED BY THE EX-EMPEROR

Berlin, Jan. 19.—The ex-emperor Frederick received Mrs. Uhl, wife of the United States ambassador to Germany, in audience today.

RECEIVED BY THE EX-EMPEROR

Berlin, Jan. 19.—The ex-emperor Frederick received Mrs. Uhl, wife of the United States ambassador to Germany, in audience today.

RECEIVED BY THE EX-EMPEROR

Berlin, Jan. 19.—The ex-emperor Frederick received Mrs. Uhl, wife of the United States ambassador to Germany, in audience today.

RECEIVED BY THE EX-EMPEROR

Berlin, Jan. 19.—The ex-emperor Frederick received Mrs. Uhl, wife of the United States ambassador to Germany, in audience today.

RECEIVED BY THE EX-EMPEROR

Berlin, Jan. 19.—The ex-emperor Frederick received Mrs. Uhl, wife of the United States ambassador to Germany, in audience today.

REBELS WAITING ON THE BANKS

Fired on the Sloop of the Wrecked Spanish Gunboat. HAVANA, Jan. 19.—The gunboat Relampago struck the Torpedero, which sunk her boat, and almost before the extent of the disaster could be realized the rebels were down upon those on board who were uninjured jumped into the water and made their way in the direction of the Centinela, aboard of which great excitement prevailed.

POOLING BILL ABANDONED

All Expectations that It Would Pass Are Given Up. NO HOPE OF PASSAGE THIS SESSION. House Committee on Commerce Declines Against Pressing the Measure—Take Up Bill Against Ticket Scalping. WASHINGTON, Jan. 19.—Expectations of passing the pooling bill, which has been pending before the house committee on commerce during this congress, have been abandoned.

GENERAL WEYLER TAKES A DRIVE

Plans to Concentrate His Forces on the Outskirts of Havana. HAVANA, Jan. 19.—At 8 o'clock this morning Captain General Weyler, accompanied by his son, aide-de-camp, chief of staff, Colonel Domingo, Governor Porras and the chief of police, left the palace in a coach, going by the highway to Luyanó, and escorted by six squadrons of cavalry.

CONVICTS KILL THEIR GUARDS

Sanguinary Affray at One of the Prisons in the Philippines. SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 19.—A convict outbreak at Cavite, Philippine islands, on a Sunday, recently, was the occasion of more fighting at the rebel stronghold than has been precipitated by the entire Spanish army.

SPANISH TELLS WHAT IT WILL DO

American Government to Know the Extent of the Colonial Reforms. MADRID (via Bayonne), Jan. 18.—(New York World Cablegram—Special Telegram.)—Despite official denials, the latest report of the diplomatic agents in and in the Madrid press is that the government has instructed the Spanish representative at Washington to inform the American government, quite unofficially, how far it is disposed to go in colonial reforms, including tariff and revenue matters.

DEPT. TRANQUILITY DISTURBED

Six Cases of Malaria Excite the Waiting Passengers. The women and children who are forced to use the waiting room at the Union depot were thrown into a small panic yesterday when it became known that two women had just arrived from Kansas City with six children, all of whom were very sick with malaria.

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS

John H. MacColl, Lexington, is an Omaha visitor. Al Patrick has gone to Chicago on a short pleasure trip. E. Berger of St. Louis, Mo., is a guest of a business trip.

HE DOUBTED HIS COLLECTOR'S HONESTY

J. C. Billings has been arrested at the instance of Christ Haman, a jeweler at 312 South Sixteenth street, on a charge of embezzlement. Haman alleges that several months ago he turned over a number of small bills to Haman for collection, the amount in all to about $75.

HE MET A STRANGE WOMAN

Thomas Ford, a miner on route from Chicago to Victor, Colo., met a strange woman on North Sixteenth street last night and inquired of her name. She told him her name was Mrs. C. W. Ford, and that she was a resident of the city.