had its effect on the railway shares and they declined in sympathy. Equidation also being an influence in these stock. Burlington sold off 35 per cent, and the general railway list also responded fractionally. London sciling had its effect in this department, the market there having been stirred, by alarming runners re-garding the health of the czar and the South African situation. They alarming, possibly de-voted to waiting for developments in the trust investigation, during which the changes were very narrow. The dealings in the low-priced stares assumed a somewhat unwonted Im-portance, but the fluctuations were small. In the final hour, however, there was a revival in the market and prices advanced generally

Hillis, the notod divine of Chicago, and also of Whitman Hillis, who is superintendent of missionary work for Ohio, Kentucky and Illinois. His aged wife survives him, but is dangerously III. There is quite a romance connected with the early life of this couple. Their mothers were school chuma and assumed the responsibilities of married life about the same time; and the two children were born in the same year. The young mothers planned that if the lives of the children were spared, they would use their best efforts to unite them for life. And it so came to nass. CHAMBERLAIN, S. D. portance, but the fluctuations were small. In the final hour, however, there was a revival in the market and prices advanced generally under a covering movement by the shorts. The anthracitle coal groups showed an improvement under this movement of 14 per cent. Leather preferred and Northern Pacific preferred ad-vanced 1 per cent. In this rally at the close best point of the day. The bond market maintained decided strength, and although the movement was irregular at intervals, the main tendency was toward a higher basis, with large blocks being taken for European account. The excellent progress noted in the habilitation of various properties that instituted a keen demand for some of the low-grade issues, which attained the highest were $2,724,000. The comparative prices re-corded notable gains in a number of the high-prices current for a long time. The sales were $2,724,000. The comparative prices re-corded notable gains in a number of the high-tried issues. The speculative mortanges show changes of a slight fraction either way.
