ANOTHER OF THE GANG ARRESTED.

Police Capture Ed Day, Who Belongs to the Davis Outfit.

Ed Day, a member of the notorious Davis gang of burglars and thieves, who are at present in the custody of the police, was arrested last evening. When taken to the captain's office Day at once made a clean breast of his crooked doings in connection with the work of the gang. He asserts that the only part he took with the gang was during a trip into Iowa, which was made last January. He states that Charles Davis, Ed Johnson, Ed Hoag and himself went to Missouri Valley, driving overland in a wagon. While at Missouri Valley Hoag and Johnson went through a residence and secured a quantity of silverware and numerous other articles, which they concealed in the wagon. On the return home they stole a trunk, which was discovered upon the porch of a farmer's house, and at another place entered a barn and took a set of double harness. Upon arriving in Omaha the plunder was con-cealed in the Johnson barn on Seward street, and then Day, so he says, had a mis-Charles E. Conrad, Commons, H. Gocker, secretary hill, Fort Wayne, W. H.
