IOWA CORN FOR INDIA'S STARVING. IOWA MAN INCOLD MEXICO Mass Meeting of Citizens Takes Pre-liminary Steps for Sending Aid. The mass meeting of citizens called by Mayor Carson last evening for the purpose of taking steps to comply with the request made by the Chamber of Commerce commit tee of San Francisco to contribute Iowa corn THEY HAVE CONSCIENTIOUS SCRUPLES for the relief of starving people in India was not composed of numbers great enough to cause a crowd in the mayor's private offices in the city building. These who responded to the call, however, were willing to do any portion of the work assigned them. Mayor Carson read the telegraphic request from Mr. Taylor of San Francisco and stated the object of the call. Rev. C. Hover was chosen president of a permanent organization for relief work, and when he was in

It was expected by those behind the moveducted into office he took advantage of the opportunity to read some communications recently received from church missionaries now in India, describing the awful destitution prevailing there. Private letters from similar sources were read, giving many details of the famine and the suffering among the helpices people. Some of the gentlemen present thought would be the part of greater wisdom to first help the starving people in Council Bluffs. Dr. Patton alleged that the suffer-ings of these people ought to touch our hearts and purses more quickly than the doubtful tales of woe that filtered through questionable sources and located thousands of miles from home. He asserted there were plenty of starving people here for us to look after. When asked to name them and tell where they could be found he recalled after some difficulty with his memory the case of one woman whom he alleged was in needy circumstances. The majority, however, thought it well enough to scrape up a port free, or upon what terms, grain that Council Bluffs people might collect to be sent to the Pacific coast or to Chicago. The name and address of a Chicago firm was given which would undertake to receive and sell on the market any amount of grain or produce that might be contributed and forward the money at once through-

British channels to India. Mayor Carson was instructed to investigate and ascertain the method of delivering whatever might be contributed, and was advised to communicate with the San Fran cisco people at once. After some further discussion the meeting adjourned to reconvene in the council chamber one week later, when the committees

He expresses the opinion that the bank can be safely reor ganized on the plan proposed by the commit tees of stockholders and depositors. This is that the stockholders shall take $100,000 of stock, paying cash, and that the depositors shall take another $100,000 in exchange for 20 per cent of their certificates of de-posit. It looks now as if the plan would be agreed on. Cases in District Court.

Writes of His New Home South of the Rio Grande. ITALIAN WEATHER, THERE IN JANUARY

Methods of Governing a City There Could Furnish Valuable Pointers to Municipal Officers in the States.

Charles Burr Towle, who left Council Bluffs in January accompanied by his wife, writes a newsy letter to The Bee from Saltillo, State of Coahulla, Mex., their new home, in which he speaks very flatteringly of his first impression of the Mexican republic and its people, and also the still greater pleasure he felt in meeting an esteemed old and officers of the navy on the 19th. Elab-friend in the form of The Bee, announcing orate arrangements are also being concluded the arrival of himself and Mrs. Towle, in the far away Mexican city. Towle has traveled retary, several of his intimate friends and considerably in Mexico, and the fact that the officers of the fleet will be the guests of he is a careful observer as well as entertain- the Chamber of Commerce at a banquet. Ing writer, it gives his account of his im-pressions additional interest. The Indiana and Vesuvius, which arrived last night, anchored a considerable distance

"To begin with." Mr. Towle writes, "I wish to declare that it is not my intention at the present time to discuss the political or social questions appertaining to this republic. I am not one of those all-wise trave' rs who writes a book about a coun-try after he has passed through it, and discusses the gravest problems therein. It is my belief, rather, that a man who commits a misdeed of this kind deserves muzzling. not hanging. When I have dwelt among the Mexicans for a year or so, have thoroughly mastered their musical language, and associated intimately with all classes, you may expect some deductions from my experience Now 1 only propose to give first impressions which may, and doubtless will be modified by longer residence here.

"Saltillo is a capital of the state of Coahulla, the same as Des Moines is the capital of Iowa. It is located about 250 niles south of the Rio Grande, on the Mexican National railroad, and situated on an devaled mera, 5,500 feet above the sea level iterally in the clouds, when there are any. which is seldom. It is hidden away in mountain fastnesses, surrounded and pro-tected by the Sierra Madres. Its population some twenty-odd thousand souls, or about he same as that of Council Bluffs. It is a thoroughly typical Mexican town, the 100 mericans who have taken up their abode here, not being sufficient leaven to have nuch effect upon the lump. Nine-tenths of he people wear the Mexican costume-the nales, zerapes and sombreros; the women otton dresses and no head covering what males ever except their abundant tresses.

'There is the finest natural water supply tere with which I ever saw any city blessed It is as clear as crystal, unfailing and brought sixteen miles from mountain springs, through a stone aqueduct 100 or more years old.

GOVERNMENT OF THE CITY. "Like all Mexican cities, Saltillo is excellently governed and policed. Mexican guards patrol the city on horse and foot. They are usually fine-looking fellows, and wear at their belts Colt's revolvers, with twelve-inch barrel, and clubs. I think that life is safer in this sunny republic than anywhere on the western continent, except-ing, possibly, a few of the New England and New York cities. The "city fathers" of some western commonwealths I wot of, where burglary and theft are of nightly on urrence, might apparently learn much from studying the system which Porfirio Diaz-boat Dolphin, the dynamic cruiser Vesuvius, the torpedo boat No. 6 and probably the Cushing will be blockade runners. The Dolphin, which was reported at Jacksonville yesterday is expected to make the attempt to run the blockade tonight. The Vesuvius and the torpedo boat No. 6 will also make the attempt to slip into port without first reporting to the admiral.

The armored coast defense ship Puritan and the Terror are the latest vessels to be ordered to Charleston. Admiral Bunce will probably have in all about twenty ships within the next week. A grand ball will be given the officials

The officials at the department were puzzled when they were notified by Commander Clover by telegraph of his whereabouts, but private letters received here from persons on the squadron explain the movement as a successful running of the blockade. Now the fleet is on the watch not only against the return of the Dolphin, but for the appearance of the little Vesuvius, swifter than anything in the fleet and like a regular blockade runne lower in the water than the Dolphin___ More More over, the Vesuvius is painted a dingy, invisible shade of gray, and so is much more likely to make a successful run than the Dolphin. Secretary Herbert, expects to leave here mpany with him. WASHINGTON, Feb. 12.-Commodore Sicard, commandant at the New York navy yard, has notified the Navy department that the double-turret monitor, Terror, will be ready for sea tomorrow, and it has been or-dered to join Admiral Bunce's fleet off Charleston. The Terror was launched seventeen years ago, but the long delay in completing it has not been so very harmful, for it has enabled the department to embody new ideas as they have developed in that period of time, so that it is now an up-to-date coast defense ship in every respect. The Avoca grand jury yesterday returned general indictments as the result of a general fight that occurred in the little town on last Friday night. A crowd known as the "Heller gang of toughs" came to the town during the evening and after reaching the proper stage of intoxication announced their willingness to take the management of the municipal affairs and all other affairs of the place. Deputy Marshal Peterson was unable to cope with the toughs and he summoned a posse of citizens.
