FLOODS IN EASTERN RIVERS

High Water Doing Considerable Harm in Ohio and Kentucky.

GREAT DAMAGE TO LUMBER INTERESTS

Railroads Are Also Heavy Losers—Recent Long-Continued Rains Force All of the Streams Out of Their Banks.

CINCINNATI, Feb. 22.—Rain has been falling almost constantly since Friday night, accompanied at times with thunder and lightning. The inevitable result will be a considerable rise in the Ohio river. Dispatches to the Times-Star show that the Big Sandy river is booming, that three inches of rain has fallen at Catelesburg in the past forty-eight hours and that thousands of logs and railroad ties are being carried away. A still further rise will follow last night's heavy rains up the Sandy. At Huntington the Guyandotte river is higher than for several years, with a still greater rise to come. A great many logs are washed into the Ohio river. The streams up the Kanawha river are also pouring out rapidly, bringing down great quantities of timber and railroad ties.

HUNTINGTON, W. Va., Feb. 22.—Heavy landfalls are reported on all railroads throughout southwestern Virginia. There has been a steady rain for forty-eight hours. The logs to timberland will go on for thousands. The Norfolk & Western railway bridge at Lavalette is reported washed away. There on all other lines arrive heavy many hours ago.

LOUISVILLE, Feb. 22.—The Times has the following advice today from the flooded districts:

At Sparta, Ky., Charles Holton, the 19-year-old son of J. W. Holton of this (Gallia) county, was drowned in the floods following the terrific rains of the past two days. Others are reported missing and more than twenty-five families were compelled to flee from their homes by the rising waters of Eagle creek. Young Holton attempted to cross the creek on his way home from a call on a young woman. The water in eight feet deep in the houses along the creek and the loss in cattle and hogs has been great.

At Frankfort, Ky., the rains of the last thirty-six hours have sent the Kentucky river at about the high water mark and the river is full of logs from above. The big and small railroads are reported to be in tenement houses along the river bank are flooded.

At Richmond, Ky., the heavy rains have caused great damage out in the country, the flood being at the top in fifteen years. The large dam at White's mill has been swept away, thousands of folk hocks have been ruined and many turpines are submerged. At Cynthiana, Ky., the water from South Licking river has reached the houses in the lower part of the town and the Cynthiana turpines is flooded for a quarter of a mile.

At Lexington, Ky., the Red river is out of its banks and the Louisville & Nashville train from Jackson could go no further than this place last night, the water completely submerging the tracks and the houses along the river.

MIDDLEBORO, Ky., Feb. 22.—The town of Hynoville is all under water except two blocks. The water reached the court house and there is great danger to the town. Cumberland river is still rising. The flood has reached here.

PLAINFIELD, Wis., Feb. 22.—The worst blizzard and heaviest snow storm in many years prevailed last night and today. From one to two feet of snow fell, drifting badly. Many drifts are piled up on the highways and business is suspended.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Feb. 22.—Advices from northern Wisconsin are in effect that a violent snow storm has raged all day and that railway and other traffic is practically suspended.

Rio Grande Open Again.

DENVER, Feb. 22.—The Denver and Rio Grande main line to the west, which was blocked for a couple of last week by the heavy snowfall, opened today, and through trains are again running on schedule time. This is the first time since 1884 that the Denver & Rio Grande has been closed by a violent snow storm for more than a few hours.

Rivers Out of Their Banks.

CHARLESTON, W. Va., Feb. 22.—The steady rain for two days past has put the Kanawha and Elk rivers above the danger line, and the lower part of the city is now flooded. It is feared that within the next few hours many people will have to move out of their homes. All navigation on the Kanawha has stopped. The weather is warm and the prospect is for more rain.

Parties trying to introduce new cough remedies should know that the people will have Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup.

"The Overland Limited." To Utah in 24 hours, California in 69 1/2 hours via the UNION PACIFIC. This is the fastest and finest train in the west. Tickets can be obtained at city ticket office, 1302 Farnam street.

DEED.
